IRONING SHIRTS.

After the shirt is washed and dried, take the bosom wrong side out and fold it together in the centre. Moisten a tablespoonful of starch in a little cold water, then add a pint of boiling water, stir until the whole is perfectly clear.
Dip the bosom, wrong side out, into this starch, dip your hands in cold water and wring the bosom while it is still very hot. Rub the starch in thoroughly, taking care not to get the least particle on the right side of the bosom.
Rub it in, and if you find all parts are not sufficiently moistened, dip it the second time. When the shirt is perfectly starched, shake it out and fold both sides of the bosom again together, thus bringing the side seams together also straighten the sleeves. Now fold the sides of the shirt over on the front, and beginning at the neck, roll it up tightly. Fold it in a towel, and put it in a cold place several hours, or over night. I say a cold place, because the starch would sour if kept in a warm place many hours.
Now, for the ironing. Iron first the neck band, then the sleeves, then the back of the shirt, then the front, and last, the bosom. Put under the bosom a rather hard, smooth bosom board; cotton flannel is the best material for covering, and one thickness under a plain muslin cover is quite sufficient. Spread over the bosom a wet cloth, and iron it over quickly with a very hot iron; then remove the cloth, and, with a perfectly smooth iron, as hot as can be used without scorching, rub the bosom rapidly up and down, not crosswise at the same time holding and pulling the bosom into shape. If you have a polishing iron, use the rounded part of the iron, thus putting all the friction on a small part at one time, giving full benefit of the gloss of both starch and linen.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS

The Ellensburg Fire.

ELLENSBURG, W T., July 5.—The city presented a sad spectacle this morning. Where long blocks of business houses stood yesterday nothing remains but ashes and smoking embers.
Scores of new brick blocks in process of erection suffered the same fate as other buildings. The only four remaining untouched are Moffitt's hotel and the Nash, Howland and Smith blocks which were saved by being some distance from the conflagration.
Two hundred houses were totally destroyed, and the space burnt over is ten blocks, or about fifty acres.
The loss, as far as can be ascertained is $2,- 000,000—$750,000 in buildings and $1,250,- 000 in goods.
There is not a restaurant, hotel or boarding house left, and there are about 150 people destitute.
The origin of the fire is supposed to be incendiary. J S Anthony, in whose building the fire started, says he left his store at 10:15 P M., had used no fire or light excepting the electric light, and thinks the fire was started by an Indian in revenge for a white man beating his squaw.

Deadly Rocket Sticks.

HELENA, July 5.—Helena added one to the list of victims of the Fourth of July celebrations and another is dangerously wounded, but may recover. Clancy Yeager, 13 years old, was killed and Kinna dangerously wounded, but may recover. It was at the time of the pyro-technic display last night. Yeager was struck by the stick of a rocket, which pierced his breast. One of them stuck Kinna in the right side, penetrating between his ribs.

A Curious R.R. Rumor.

WALLA WALLA, W T., July 5.—It is currently reported here that the O R & N and the city of Portland will make a strong endeavor to have a clause inserted in the constitution of the new state limiting the right of the counties to issue bonds to aid railroads. It is said to be a movement directed against the Hunt system of roads, and to prevent this county fulfilling its contract with Hunt regarding new roads he proposes to build. The rumor is creating considerable feeling. Steps will be taken at once to counteract the supposed movement.

pound of cure. Foshay's Oregon Blood Purifier expels all impurities of the blood

If you are nervous or irritable, feel languid, dispirited, or if you have sick headache, sallow complexion or offensive breath, then your liver is out of order and needs rousing. Dr.
Henley's Danolion Tonic restores the liver to healthy action and tones up the entire system. Sold by Foshay & Mason.

ance and pain from hives, itchy and who had
