LOCAL RECORD.

PAID CHATEL MORTGAGES.—Contable C G Burkhardt left this morning for Lincoln, Neb., armed with a warrant and requisition for the arrest of Sylvester Nicolls, now in charge of the sheriff at Lincoln, having been arrested there. About the first of February Mr Nicolls, who was running a farm near Shedd, gave a chattel mortgage on six horses in favor of Davis Bros for about $600. Several weeks ago he came to Albany, and in partnership with Mr Martin took a contract on the street railway. Suddenly he disappeared with the six horses and it was afterwards learned that he had taken them to Lincoln, when a warrant was secured for his arrest. Chattel mortgages seem to have been a favorite with him, for he gave five or six others on growing crops, etc., amounting to over $1500. It evidently means the penitentiary for Mr Nicolls.

NOT TRUE.—The Albany Democrat copies without comment an item from the Lebanon Express to the effect that some of the Corvallis boys stood on the hose of the Albany team during the hose contest on the Fourth and thereby won the race. A thing like that, which is utterly without foundation, is not the right thing. No responsible person will say that the Corvallis boys did not win the race fairly. Such ill-natured remarks as these mar the good feeling that ought to accompany these contests.—Leader. The Express spoke in reference to the Lebanon team. The Democrat did not intend to endorse it. In fact the writer was at the hydrant, and knows it was not true.

FROM PORT TOWNSEND.—Mr Alex Cunningham, of Port Townsend, is in the city for the purpose of disposing of his Linn county property. He says Port Townsend is a live city, and property has doubled in value since he went there. Smuggling is the favorite business, both of opium and Chinamen. $10000 properly invested in opium produces $200,000. Chinamen are brought over for $20, and if a cutter appears in sight they are drowned in order to save the bacon of the smugglers. It is a safe business when you are in with the government officers. The railroad building towards Port Townsend will probably give it quite a boom.

THE FASTEST.—Every town in the valley, big enough to have a company, have provided their boys with a racing cart. Corvallis has more speed among her firemen than any town in the state, and they ought to be given an opportunity to contest for laurels they can easily win.—Times. Seio and Lebanon also claim to have the fastest runners.

ANOTHER ONE.—A gentleman is in the city in the interest of the Southern Pacific guide, and will meet our business men this evening at 8 o'clock at the office of Curran & Mantelich. Certainly no one can be more interested in building up this valley than the Southern Pacific; but this guide is a great thing.

DR. BROOKS.—Dr John A Brooks delivered an address at the W C T U hall last evening to a good sized audience. It is reported quite an interesting effort, well delivered. Having run for vice president on the prohibition ticket Dr Brooks has a national reputation.

PAY YOUR WATER BILLS.—On the 10th, 11th, 12th and 13th inst. the undersigned will call upon the patrons of the city water works for the amounts due for water. Let every one be ready to pay. A L GRAY.

PRIVATE SALE OF HOUSEHOLD GOODS.—Mrs W B Rice offers at private sale her entire lot of household goods, consisting of two chamber sets, settees, kitchen furniture, carpets, stoves, etc. The goods can be seen in the warehouse at the O P docks.

BABIES.—The finest line of baby carriages in the Valley just received at Stewart & Sox's. Prices are remarkably cheap considering the superior quality of the carriages.

BROWNSVILLE.

BROWNSVILLE, July 8th, 1889.
The Pioneer's of Linn County assembled here Wednesday, the 3rd, and at 2 p. m. an address of welcome was delivered to them by G. P. Coshaw, Jr., of this place. S. G. Irvine, D. D., of your city, the orator of the day not having arrived, Rev. R. Robe responded to the calls for him in a neat and interesting speech of half an hour. Mr. Irvine arrived at 3 p. m. and delivered a most interesting talk in a becoming familiar manner to his pioneer friends. Music by a select choir, and the Crawfordville Brass Band furnished music during the exercises.

On the 4th our town was early filled by people from neighboring towns and the adjoining counties, and by noon there were about 5000 souls in the grove and town. The procession was a success and much longer than was anticipated. One of the most interesting features of which was the immigrant wagon representing the passage across the plains in the days of '49. Hon. J. P. Galbraith, of this place read the declaration. Rev. R. Robe offered prayer and Hon. W. C. Johnson, of Oregon City, a pioneer of '45 delivered a very pleasing oration to the pioneers. Master Ralph Miller, of Halsey, only 7 years old, delivered in a splendid manner a declamation, which called forth well deserved plaudits from the many auditors. The barbecue was the only part of the program that did not materialize. A good dinner though was to be had and after dinner the plugmugs created quite a commotion and a great deal of amusement. After the storm thus created had blown over Rev. W. R. Bishop, of Portland, entertained his many friends as he only can entertain. The pioneers enjoyed themselves as only those can who meet friends of olden times after years of separation. Your correspondent never witnessed a gathering of any kind large or small where there appeared to be so much real enjoyment as during the three days meeting of the pioneers, ending Friday the 5th. Quite a large number from the country remained to witness the fireworks which were good for the outlay.

Friday morning the business of the Association was attended to. The first Wednesday of June, 1890 was selected for the next annual meeting, to be held in the same place. J. M. Waters was elected President; A. M. Templeton, Vice President; A. W. Stanard, Secretary; W. R. Kirk, was re-elected Treasurer; J. M. Moyer, R. Glass and Cale's Gray, Trustees. Short speeches were then made by the retiring President, the President and Vice President elect and by Mrs. G. F. Colbert, which were not the least enjoyed of the three days exercises. We would like to suggest to the managers that preparation be made for more active parts to be taken by members of the Association. Rev. A. LeRoy, though not a pioneer was called for and delivered some very interesting remarks. At noon the society adjourned, but remained to hear Mr LeRoy preach at 2:30 p. m., which was done on request of the Association. The meeting was in every way a success and a credit to those who had charge of affairs. A long list of new names was added to the constitution among them being the names of Ex Gov. and Mrs. Moody.
