

LOCAL RECORD.

AFTER A CHILD.—Mr M C Hussey arrived in Albany this morning looking for his wife and child, but they were not here. Mrs Hussey and child arrived in the city yesterday morning and put up at one of the hotels. Marshal Hoffman received a dispatch from the Medford constable to arrest her, a warrant awaiting her arrest at that city, and did so, immediately telegraphing for cause. He received the response that there was no cause but to hold her, which he very properly proceeded not to do. She took the noon train south, and passed her husband at Oakland on his way here, thus shrewdly beating him at his game. The couple seem to have separated, and the strife is over the possession of the child, which both want. Mrs Hussey claimed that her husband is a hard drinker and did not treat her well and that she would not live with him. Hussey spent the day in telegraphing to intercept his wife; but it is to be hoped he does not succeed in getting the child. He left on the noon train southward bound.

LEBANON.—On last Monday consider, able excitement was caused by an alarm of fire. It proved to be a small barn belonging to F M Miller, at the place now occupied by Mr Bartenshaw. The fire was started by two little boys who were playing in the barn loft with some matches. The fire boys answered very promptly and the hose was laid, but lacked about two sections of having enough to reach the fire. The entire loss was about $60. The Corvallis Times says that Corvallis has the fastest team in the state, but we notice there was no one who thought so strong enough to put up anything on it on the Fourth, when one of our townsmen wanted to bet them any amount they could not beat the Lebanon boys a hub and hub race. On last Monday Messrs Barkhart & Bilyeu sold their lively stable, including thirteen horses and all the buggies, hacks, wagons, etc., to Messrs John Nichols and A P Blackburn. The school directors have employed Prof J G Rickman to teach the Lebanon public school for the coming year. Drs Frank R Ballard and J S Courtney have formed a partnership.

A SERIOUS FALL.—This forenoon William Riley was carrying a hod of brick on a trestle over the second floor of the Masonic temple, when he slipped and fell about six feet. Another workman standing below partially caught his fall, but his back and neck struck on the joists, knocking him senseless and causing traumatic tetanus. He was taken to the residence of his uncle, Mr Adams, on First street near the O P track, where Dr Ellis attended him. It was thought at first that Mr Riley regained consciousness in an hour or two and is reported to be on the improve. He is about twenty-two years of age and unmarried.

A GOOD IDEA.—In reference to the illustration of Salem referred to several days ago the Statesman says: "The brother is requested to possess his soul in patience. In the January number of the West Shore, the public buildings of Salem were illustrated and they made such a meager showing comparatively that it has been determined to surprise the eyes of the reading world by an exhibit of 'the homes of Salem,' and this feature alone will adorn the pages of the number spoken of. The Democrat man is in vited to keep his eyes open for the show."

FROM THE MINES.—Mr. Jos. Webber returned last evening from the North Santiam, where he had been on a mining prospecting tour. He was at the mines twelve miles beyond Gatesville near the line where the O. P. will run. Three ledges are being worked with good results. Mr. Webber brought back some fine specimens of ore, and says there is a bright future for these North Santiam mines.

A WHEAT FIELD.—Mr J H Geikentener, of Tangent, has shown the Democrat several photographs taken by Crawford & Paxton, of scenes in the fine wheat field on the McFarland farm. They show the immense wheat, so high and top heavy that it clogged, off to fine advantage, and some of the scenes are quite artistic and picturesque.

PRIVATE SALE OF HOUSEHOLD GOODS.—Mrs W B Rice offers at private sale her entire lot of household goods, consisting of two chamber sets, settees, kitchen furniture, carpets, stoves, etc. The goods are in care of Mrs C J Stuart.

HAY WANTED.—Mr L Senders, of this city will buy all the clean timothy hay brought to him in tightly compressed bales, for which the market price in cash will be paid. Deliver at stables.

BORN.—On July 11th, 1889, at Hansey, to the wife of Prof G F Russell—a boy.

ALBANY ROAD NEXT TIME.—John H Bulck arrived from Silver Lake, Lake county, last Sunday with nearly 10,000 lbs of wool. He complains greatly of the road, as much about the brush as anything else—the long sacks of wool being exposed to much scratching and sweeping on the way. The road from Lake county southward to the C & O R R is not practicable for freight now, because the springs and wells have dried upon the way—there being one stretch of 70 miles or more on which there is not a drop of water to be had. Mr Bulck will try the old road to Albany with his next load of wool, he says. Ashland Tidings. Some day it will be the Oregon Pacific, which will offer an outlet for an immense quantity of wool.

THE REASON FOR IT.—We have heretofore mentioned the big find in the Rockville cistern and also about its being salted. The reason is now given: "Some contractors were grading First street and had found that they would lose about $1500 on the job. Some brass filings were placed in the cistern and in the excitement that ensued of course all work was stopped. It was fun though while it lasted. Men who had been guiltless of physical labor for years were rushing excitedly about with a 4x4 scantling, hunting for some unlocated fraction. About 40 claims were located."

FOR THE UPPER SODA.—On Tuesday Mr and Mrs Wayne Williams, Misses Alice Williams and Martha Hill and Henry Tarter started on a six week's fishing and hunting expedition to Upper Soda, Linn county. Wayne began to dig up fish stories before he got out of town, West Side. Mr Williams lost a fine Winchester rifle across the river from Albany, and the person finding it will please answer the advertisement in another place.

YAQUINA BAY.—There are now probably four hundred visitors in and around Newport, enjoying the sea breezes and getting health and recreation. In two weeks from now this number promises to be increased to a thousand or fifteen hundred. Maje Hammond on Sunday accidentally exploded a Winchester 44 cartridge in his hand, slightly injuring a thumb and finger.

OREGON AHEAD.—During the first six months of this year there were 27 failures in Oregon, with $93,700 liabilities. For the corresponding time last year there were over three times as many failures, with six times as large liabilities. In Washington there were 50 failures with $178,500 liabilities, considerable of an increase over last year.

FAST BALING.—On the 6th inst, Ed Dove's three hands baled and tied complete 80 bales of hay, totaling seven tons and 120 lbs in six hours exactly. This is at the rate of 2,354 lbs per hour, or nearly 40 lbs a minute. These bales averaged, when weighed, 176 1/2 lbs.—West Side.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN.

Harry Bethune, the champion footracer of the Pacific Coast, was in town Wednesday, the guest of H. H. Odell. They leave for Albany where they intend matching a race with Cameron.—Lebanon Express. The man looks about as much like Harry Bethune as the M. A. T. He is not even champion of Seattle, where he resides.

Men, are only boys grown old, and it is well, that such is the case. The circus comes and goes and all the boys tumble Sullivan and Kilrain fought, and all the men are practicing with the gloves. Boxing itself is fine exercise and every man should know something about the art of self defense. A little science with a little body is often more powerful than no science and a big body. Get in and drill but do not let your angry passions rise, for scrapping matches are brutal affairs and scrapping up noses affect the beauty of the face divine.

This is sort of a selfish world. It is every man for himself and let the flood engulf the hindmost. In order to navigate now-a-days it seems necessary to watch only your own rudder and cripple your neighbors if you can. That is a poor course on principle, and if allowing your own cow to run at large makes a neighbor desire to do likewise you should keep her up.

OFF FOR THE MOUNTAINS.—A barrel of dried beef, some fine cheese and a large invoice of choice lunc goods just received at Brownell & Starnard's. Get some.

Call has been heard from. Here it is from an exchange: "The other night at Farmington the bell cord of the passenger was pulled and the train stopped to allow a man and his wife to get on board who postulated excitedly for the privilege. On board the train, the couple kissed a lady good-bye, who had previously stepped on the car platform, after which performance they jumped off again and sauntered leisurely away, as if nothing unusual had happened. The thoughts of the train men at that moment would look hard in cold type."
