President Harrison now regards Corporal Tanner as a "surplus" that he must soon rid himself of.

It is said that Pope Leo XIII has determined to take refuge in Spain, in case he is forced to leave Rome.

Sir Morell Mackenzie is strongly opposed to the use of tobacco and alcohol by those who use their voices in public.

It is pretty well demonstrated by this time that a protective tariff protects the trusts in robbing the people.

Buffalo Bill, Amelie Rives-Chanier, Belva Ann Lockwood and Whitelaw Reid formed an interesting group at a recent reception in Paris.

Mr Gladstone has increased his allowance of wine for dinner, rarely drinking less than a pint of his favorite port now. He says that quantity affects him less than a half pint did a generation ago.

Venerable ex-President McCosh, of Princeton College, and Mrs McCosh have gone to the coast of Maine on their summer vacation. Dr McCosh has nearly recovered from his late serious illness and appears to be in good spirits.

The eccentric George Law, of New York, who gave valuable diamonds last year to all the sporting characters of Saratoga, has lately distinguished himself again by losing $50,000 at faro in a Long Branch gambling house. He tried to "break the bank," but with disastrous financial results.

Mrs John A Logan is home from her jaunt in Europe. She brings a ruddy color from the sea. When she landed on Friday she wore a close fitting costume of black. Her hair is snowy white, and was brushed straight up from her forehead and tucked beneath the white silk border of a black bonnet. On her bosom she wore the large black locket, exposing the portrait of General Logan that she always wears. "I was very much disappointed," she said, "with the small showing America made at the Paris exposition." "Are there many Americans in England?" "Why, I felt quite at home among the very many of my countrymen I found there. Americans are very much in vogue in England now. They are quite the fashion, and are treated in the most whole hearted and hospitable way in the world. All over Europe Americans get the most flattering attentions."

Not long after the war a circus came to Montgomery, Alabama. It was the first circus that had been there in a long time and attracted an immense crowd, especially of the negroes. The most interesting feature of the entertainment was the balloon ascension. The negroes had never seen anything of that kind, and regarded the spectacle of a man sailing up into the clouds very much as they would have looked upon Elijah going up in his chariot of fire. The balloon sailed away eight or ten miles and came down in a field where some negroes were ploughing. Terrified at the spectacle of a chariot coming down from heaven they verily believed that the last great day had come, and remembering all their shortcomings, fled away in terror at the approach of the awful judge. One gray headed and rheumatic old negro was unable to get away. He could follow the plough, but could not run, and the chariot came down upon him with terrible swiftness. In that awful moment his whole life rushed upon him, he thought of all the petty sins he had committed, and the ghosts of a hundred chickens seemed to rise up in judgment against him. But in that desperate emergency his mind did not desert him, and remembering that politeness always counted with his earthly master he quickly decided to greet the Lord of heaven and earth in becoming style. As the aeronaut touched the earth and began to untangle himself from the meshes about his car the old darkey, with an air of profound obeisance, removed the wool hat from his shaggy pate, bowed low and said with pious unction: "Mornin' Mars Jesus, how you lef' your pa?"

The war against the Jews at fashionable resorts has been revived at Coney Island, where the Brighton Beach hotel has positively excluded the Hebrew. It is a most senseless and unreasonable discrimination, based on a prejudice which the world ought to have grown ashamed of long before this. Hotel keepers have the undoubted right to exclude undesirable guests, but race distinction is of all discriminations the most odious. Imagine the fastidious Brighton beach people refusing accommodations to a man of the learning and breeding which characterize Rabbi Solomon Schindler, on the ground that he is a Jew!

To lessen our stock of canned goods we will sell a few in that line at remarkably low prices.
