LOCAL RECORD.

WAS INTERVIEWED.—The surveying party of the Albany and Astoria R. R. have passed Sheridan in Yamhill county and are now crossing the mountains beyond that place.

A MIXED UP MATTER.—We have noticed a piece published in nearly every country newspaper in the State, stating that this is a year of calamities and directing attention to the fact that the year commenced on Friday and will end on Friday.

DON'T BE DISHEARTENED.—Linn county farmers should read the following from an E. O. paper: "An old farmer living near Athens engaged the harvesting outfit to come to his ranch for the purpose of harvesting and threshing his crop."

DROWNED.—On last Friday evening Isaac Staats one of the oldest settlers in Oregon was drowned in a spring near Airle in Polk county.

STEAM NOW.—D D Prettyman, who has been for the past few weeks working in the interests of the Oregon Land Company in collecting specimens of fruits, grains and grasses and has traveled considerably over the counties of Polk, Linn, Benton and Marion, says that he has not yet this year seen a threshing machine propelled by horse power.

A JOKE ON MR. FROMAN.—The following from an exchange shows how even newspapers will get everything mixed up sometimes: "Thomas Froman makes a confession that he and two brothers, Fred and Herbert Rolf, were the cause of the wreck of the O & C. train last Sunday night near Albany."

A SHARP ITEM.—The finest line of cutlery and shears in the city at Stewart & Sox's. Their goods are the very best and will stand the test.

OFF FOR THE MOUNTAINS.—A barrel of lard beef, some fine cheese and a large invoice of choice lunch goods just received at Brownell & Stanard's. Get some.

BAHIES.—The finest line of baby carriages in the Valley just received at Stewart & Sox's. Prices are remarkably cheap considering the superior quality of the carriages.

HIGHEST YIELD.—10,000 rolls of wall paper, latest varieties, finest decorations just received at Brownell & Stanard's.

7 Oaks cures rheumatism, neuralgia, and toothache. Fishy & Mason Agents.

A SAD DROWNING.—A Eugene man informs the DEMOCRAT of the sad drowning of two prominent young people of Eugene, on the Siuslaw near the Pacific a few days ago, word being received at Eugene City yesterday of the accident.

LOSSES.—The loss of the Albany Farmers and Merchants Insurance Company by the Spokane Falls fire will be about $100,000. Among those burned out was the firm of Montell & Schenbach, who carried a stock of goods valued at $60,000 or $70,000, about half insured.

CLEAN THEM OUT.—The attention of the DEMOCRAT has been called to the fact that in the alleys back of some of the business blocks in Albany are accumulating large quantities of boxes, straw, etc. In view of the fact that there is a fire epidemic in the land this rubbish is very dangerous.

HARVEST CREAM.—A Marion county correspondent of the Silverton Appeal says "Mr Charles and Harvey Hartman threshed 20 acres that yielded 51 bushels per acre. Mr R H Scott threshed one field of 42 acres that averaged 42 bushels per acre."

BIG.—People who saw the big loads of big watermelons left at Wallace, Thompson & Co's recently wondered where they came from. Mr H Hutchins, of Lodi, Cal., the man who shipped them, is in the city, and as he weighs about 350 pounds it is no wonder he makes big shipments of big watermelons.

TO-NIGHT.—Superintendent McElroy arrived in the city this noon, and during the afternoon made a trip across the river with Mr Dickson and J W Cusick after articles for the Milwaukee exhibit. To-night he wishes to meet our citizens at the W C T U Hall.

DATES.—The date of the Transcript was not changed yesterday, and we were feeling kind of hurt over it, but we were consoled this morning when we picked up the Albany DEMOCRAT of the date of July 31.—Transcript. It's a habit of the DEMOCRAT to keep one notch ahead of its contemporaries.

BIG FISH.—The Ashland Tidings tells of a fishing trip made by Mr L Alford and five others, all of Ashland, on which one of the parties caught a trout that weighed 18 pounds. Mr L Alford is a grand-son of Uncle Thomas Alford, of Harrisburg.

HE IS DEAD.—Prof. Krumbeln, the artist who visited this city some months ago and whose artistic productions called out much favorable comment is dead. He took a severe cold which settled on his lungs and died in San Francisco Wednesday last. His wife arrived from London in time to be with him at the very last.

WILL RECEIVE $2000.—"Big Jack," the brave engineer who lost his life at the Lebanon switch railroad wreck, in attempting to save the lives of the passengers on his train, was a member of the A O U W from which order his family will receive the sum of $2000.

BUILD 'EM.—What are people going to do for houses to live in? Is a question asked a thousand times a day.—Astoria Transcript. Do like people do in Albany. Build 'em.

FALLING.—Quint Guthrie, the injured fireman, is reported to be gradually falling with slight prospects of recovery. Even should he recover it is said he would be blind.

GET FIRST CHOICE.—Just received at L E Blain's tailoring department a large and elegant line of piece goods for suits and pants, never before equalled in Albany. They embrace the very latest patterns, are in style and will make up, under the skillful workmanship of Mr. Schiffer into the finest suits to be obtained in the Valley. Call early and get choice of patterns.

OSTERVILLE IN ASHES.—Saturday afternoon about 4 o'clock a fire caught in the Williams cannery at Oysterville, on Yaquina river, from the cannery engine, resulting in the cannery, with its machinery being burned; also the Naseby house, Rader's slaughter house and a barn, leaving only one building standing.

A PATENT.—Large piles of paper and other highly inflammable rubbish lying in the alley between First and Second Streets. A careless cigar smoker passes along and thoughtlessly casts the short stub of his cigar in the rubbish. Ignition takes place.

A regular Seattle or Spokane Falls fire occurs. Great loss of property. Everybody knows how the fire might have been averted, but no one seems to know how. A word to the wise ought to be sufficient.

IN THE LEAD.—Mr. Julius Gradwohl leads in his business and wishes it understood that he will carry the finest stock of crockery ware in the Valley, receiving his goods from headquarters, and keeping up with the times in all the latest novelties. He has received a fine lot of Wedgwood & Co's Newacht decorated ware, called raby ware, handsome goods in the market.
