LOCAL RECORD.

KNOCKED OFF THE TRACK.—The California overland passenger train was about an hour late this morning, says the Salem Journal, and when at the Fair grounds crossing they ran into the one horse wagon of an old gentleman, James Tucker, who was coming to Salem from his home near Silverton, to market a few boxes of plums and pears.

A COMMON OCCURRENCE.—A bicycle rider a few nights ago, riding at a crossing, stubbed his wheel at a crossing while going twelve miles an hour, was thrown fifteen feet, on the hard sidewalk, scraped his nose red, causing an abrasion on one of his arms and wrist, and dislocating a knee, besides tearing his clothes profusely.

TRAMPS.—Here is the way they go for tramps at Walla Walla according to a Pendleton paper: "The citizens made another raid on the tramps at that place last night. Four parties of twenty-five men each scoured the suburbs, armed with clubs, and beat the tramps from their quarters in barn-yards and fence corners.

WHERE IT COMES FROM.—Mack Montelth and Fred Ross have returned from a trip of several weeks to the Sulphur Springs beyond Gatesville. They report forest fires beyond Gatesville in Marion county, covering considerable territory.

FAILURES.—During July there were only six failures in Oregon. Liabilities, $5,179. In July, 1888, the liabilities were twelve times as much. In Washington Territory during July, 1889, there were thirteen failures, with $51,205 liabilities, which exceeds the failures of 1888 by $13,000.

A PREVARICATOR.—One of the biggest liars in the world is the telegraph. Here is a case: "The State Insurance Company of Salem lost but $4,350 by the big Spokane Falls fire. The Albany Company lost but $10,000. These sums were said to be much larger but the telegraph was in error."

SOLD OUT.—Mr T L Wallace has sold his interest in the firm of Wallace, Thompson & Co., to his partners, Mr W S Thompson and Mr E LaForest, who will hereafter run this popular store. Mr Wallace retires on account of poor health. We hope to see him vigorous and in business again, for he is a rustler.

ORANGE MORGAN DEAD.—Mr. Morgan, who was dragged by a horse at Paisley, as narrated by the DEMOCRAT, died on Sunday, Aug. 4th. It seems that he had a lariat around the horse's neck, and was going towards it, when his feet got caught in the lariat and the horse ran, dragging him for a long distance, bruising and breaking his bones in a frightful manner. He was about 35 years of age and was a man of exemplary character. He leaves a wife and children. Mr. Morgan had accumulated a property valued at $30,000 or $40,000, in the stock business.

INSURE AT ONCE.—Mr. Julius Gradwohl's advice to the people of Albany is to insure at once before it is too late, for the fire fiend is devastating the cities of the N. W. Mr Gradwohl represents seven solid companies, with an aggregate capital of $76,000,000 and a cash deposit of $350,000 at Salem. As well as business men, farmers should insure their crops, for they will burn, as a number of cases already testify. Though Mr Gradwohl's companies lost some in Seattle, Vancouver, Ellensburg and Spokane Falls their capital is so great the loss is not felt, and they will continue to place risks and pay losses with their usual promptness and the same as they did after the great Chicago fire, in which their losses were heavy.
