

LOCAL RECORD.

LIARS ANYWAY.—Those Nebraska "editors" have gotten home. One ignorant gets the Willamette mixed up with the Columbia, or something else and says: "The sands along the Willamette drift were than snow in Nebraska, and although 'sand fences' are built, they seem to do but little good. On each side is bank after bank of sand, which whirled, drifts, and eddies in the wind, making life almost unendurable, and causing the railroad no end of trouble. For miles and miles the railroad has men employed who do nothing else than try to keep the track clear from sand, but as our train was stalled twice they proved inadequate to the task." He sized Salem up as follows: "Salem is not booming. As James Thorn remarked, 'It has too large a southern element to grow fast, and we have too many barnacles.'"

THEIR OWN FAULT.—"Out West," said a theatrical manager, to a New York reporter, who has just brought his company into Gotham, "they don't always do things in New York style. We played at a theatre in Salem, Or., two weeks ago, and when I asked an old gentleman with long whiskers, who was sort of general factotum about the theatre, what time they usually ran up the curtain, he said, shifting a quid of tobacco in his mouth, 'Well, we don't have no regular time; we gen'ly begin when the folks begin to 'stomp.' So we waited till our audience got there and 'stomped,' which was about 9 o'clock."

FRUIT TREE SWINDLER.—This scheme is said to be in operation somewhere in the State. The farmer gets $500 worth of fruit trees for nothing, but is to give seller one half profits for ten years, or pay full amount in cash if farm is sold. A bond is given, and filed. Afterwards a man will appear to buy the farm. But the bond affects the title, and must be paid. The farmer pays it. The purchaser skips. Curtains down. Farmers should not monkey with buzz-saw strangers.

THURSDAY NIGHT.—Lawrence & Connors Musical Comedy Co. will be at the Opera House, Thursday evening, when Harry Connors will present his great role of Widow O'Brien, in "Fun on the Bristol." William Cartwright is said to be immense in "Flewy-Flewy." It is time for our citizens to have a big laugh and an enjoyable evening, and this will offer the proper opportunity.

ONLY A CELESTIAL ANYWAY.—After all Governor Penneyer has some sand. He wouldn't respite Chee Gong in the face of convincing Chinese affidavits, which he knew were unreliable. The Oregonian on the morning before the execution advised him to do so, and the next morning commended him for not doing so, which was commendable on the part of that paper, though it displayed gymnastic qualities of a high order.

A BRIGHT IDEA.—The Democrat encourages the following from the Portland Welcome: "To cure the tramp nuisance, it is suggested that a State law be enacted, making the stealing of a ride on the railroads petit or grand larceny according to the amount measured by the distance traveled."

VERY NICE.—Don't cook this hot weather. Drop in and get some of our lunch delicacies. We have just received a fresh supply of cream cheese, Limburger cheese, smoked beef chipped to order, etc.

THAT HOSPITAL.

A couple months ago the DEMOCRAT mentioned the fact that an effort was being made to secure land for a Sisters hospital at this city. We have been informed that the effort did not materialize, owing to a little lethargy on the part of owners of land. This is an important matter and should be attended to at once. Albany has the promise of the hospital, the DEMOCRAT is informed, and all that is necessary to get it now is to furnish the land, about an acre and a half for the institution. The hospital, though under the control of the Sisters, would be for the benefit of the public regardless of creed. The reputation of the Sisters as trained nurses does not need to be mentioned, as it is too well established. Such a hospital is needed in Albany, and will be more so in the future, as the city continues to increase in population, and particularly considering its location as a railroad center and its importance as a manufacturing city. A hospital will be built somewhere in the Valley at no distant date, and Albany is a good place for it and can have it by doing just a little. Business men interested in seeing a hospital established here will do well to confer with Mr. J. A. Gross, who has already done, and will continue to do what he can, to get one here.

STEREOTYPED.—The following unreasonable fling is from the Ochoco Review. In the first place neither of the Albany papers stated that work would begin next week, making the item a falsehood. In the next place in giving railroad items we have only stated such matters as were told us, and that is what a paper is for. "The Albany papers of last week come to us with the usual stereotyped announcement that active work on the Oregon Pacific will begin next week." Those papers would be fully as well appreciated and command more respect as truthful news disseminators, if they would leave this "next week" business out of just one issue."

THE CUP BROKEN.—A Prineville paper soars in the following manner: "We have all along had varying faith in the early completion of the O. P. railroad through this country, and of late have almost been lifted off our feet a number of times by the booming announcements in the Albany weeklies about work going to begin next week, and so on, but now the cup of joy (so-called) is rudely dashed from us, and our fondest hopes knocked entirely west and crooked. On Thursday night of last week a burglar broke open the fire and burglar proof safe of the Oregon Pacific company at Albany, and took therefrom two dollars. May the foul fiend get him!"

HELD.—This afternoon Bernard Wessen, with Hon W. R. Bilyeu and Judge Blackburn as attorneys, appeared before Justice Humphrey to answer to the charge of attempting to kill Nick Zimmerman with a dangerous weapon. He waived examination and was held under $2000 bonds to await the action of the grand jury. The revolver with which he did the shooting was found on him, and is in the possession of the Sheriff. He states that he rode from Albany to Montague on the blind baggage.

IN THE LEAD.—Mr. Julius Gradwohl leads in his business and wishes it understood that he will carry the finest stock of crockery ware in the Valley, receiving his goods from headquarters, and keeping up with the times in all the latest novelties. He has received a fine lot of Wedgwood & Co's Newyacht decorated ware, called ruby ware, handsome goods in the market. Mr. Gradwohl makes crockery a specialty and will meet the demands of the public in any line. Do not send away for goods but give him a call.

GET FIRST CHOICE.—Just received at L. E. Blain's tailoring department a large and elegant line of piece goods for suits and pants, never before equalled in Albany. They embrace the very latest patterns, are in style and will make up, under the skillful workmanship of Mr. Schiffer into the finest suits to be obtained in the Valley. Call early and get choice of patterns.

LYONS.

Our new city of Lyons is growing slowly but surely and is becoming quite a lively shipping point for the surrounding country. Several carloads of grain and lumber are being loaded and got in readiness for shipping below.

Mr. Henry Lyons, our enterprising merchant, is building a new livery and feed stable.

The Hyatt Bros., whose mill is located about one half mile from here, have the contract for sawing 350,000 feet of lumber for the new Salem mill and are soon to begin work upon it.

Mr. J. D. Montgomery, the genial telegraph agent of Lyons, has just returned from a trip abroad, and was gladly welcomed back by his many friends.

The three year old child of Mrs. H. Massey, of Salem, who is visiting relatives near Nehalem is very ill with pneumonia.

PURCHASED IN ALBANY.—That cane presented Hon S. M. Pennington, mention of which was made in the DEMOCRAT Saturday, was purchased of Mr. H. Ewert, of this city, who carries a large and fine stock of gold headed walking sticks and can be obtained anywhere. The statement that it was a fine cane as the city can boast of was correct.

TALENTS.—A novel method of raising funds has been tried by a neighboring Sunday school. Some time ago 350 new ten cent pieces, called "talents," were distributed among the scholars and teachers, with instructions to do whatever in reason they could to increase the sum. Recently the talents were called in, and notwithstanding all the scholars did not make returns, the sum received was $537.

A CAR DEMOLISHED.—A few days ago a freight train was passing Sissons when a large tree that had been burning at the base fell, striking a box car, just missing a brakeman. The tree broke clear through the car to its floor, pretty well demolishing it. The car went north bound for the shops this noon.

A PECULIAR SUIT.—A Seattle firm has brought suit against the company that sold it a safe, which was warranted to be fire proof. The contents of the same were destroyed in the late fire; hence the claim for damages. It is to be hoped damages are recovered.

$600 FOR A DESPATCH.—The largest amount of money ever paid out for one telegraph message in the history of the Pacific coast, was that of Schwabacker Bros., the day after the Seattle fire. It amounted to $600 and was an order for goods.

A SAMPLE.—In keeping with the fish stories being told the Pasco Headlight gravely informs a listening world that peaches have been successfully grafted on the sagebrush of that region.

WANTED.—Girl to do general housework. Call at once at office or residence of Dr. O. C. Aubrey.

STILL IN MARKET.—The finest lot of blackberries of the season was received today. Those desiring to put up berries should give us a call.

INSURE AT ONCE.—Mr. Julius Gradwohl's advice to the people of Albany is to insure at once before it is too late, for the fire fiend is devastating the cities of the N. W. Mr. Gradwohl represents seven solid companies, with an aggregate capital of $750,000,000 and a cash deposit of $350,000 at Salem. As well as business men, farmers should insure their crops, for they will burn, as a number of cases already testify. Though Mr. Gradwohl's companies lost some in Seattle, Vancouver, Ellensburg and Spokane Falls their capital is so great the loss is not felt, and they will continue to place risks and pay losses with their usual promptness, the same as they did after the great Chicago fire, in which their losses were heavy.
