INSURE AT ONCE.—Mr. Julius Gradwohl's advice to the people of Albany is to insure at once before it is too late, for the fire fiend is devastating the cities of the N. W. Mr Gradwohl represents seven solid companies, with an aggregate capital of $76,000,000 and a cash deposit of $350,000 at Salem. As well as business men, farmers should insure their crops, for they will burn, as a number of cases already testify. Though Mr Gradwohl's companies lost some in Seattle, Vancouver, Ellensburg and Spokane Falls their capital is so great the loss is not felt, and they will continue to place risks and pay losses with their usual promptness, the same as they did after the great Chicago fire, in which their losses were heavy.

When wool was going up ever so little, then the Republicans said "protection did it." Now that wool is going down, what does it? This present administration is like a funeral procession. Everybody is standing behind closed doors till it passes. The Cleveland administration was a vital one, and all the doors of prosperity were thrown wide open; but now the dirge is heard in muffled tones from the Atlantic to the Pacific, from the Gulf to the British possessions, says an exchange.

I can say in my self for Lippid Liver, caused by close confinement. I find nothing to equal it and highly recommend its use. Respectfully,

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS

A Brutal Murder.
LOS ANGELES, Sept. 8.—John McGuffie arrived at San Pedro some time this morning and proceeded to the house of Mrs. Crocker where his divorced wife has been living for some time past. He engaged his wife in conversation and requested her to come and live with him again, but she refused. He then got up and went to the door, apparently with the intention of going out, but turned around and said: "If you can't live with me, you can't live at all," and pulled a revolver and shot at her. She jumped up when he then fired two more shots and she fell dead.

An Accident.
SALEM, Sept. 8.—This afternoon an old wooden awning in front of Fishburn & Shoemaker's pump and patent fence ware house, on Commercial street, fell and caught Irving Claggett, a warehouseman, of Independence, breaking his left leg in two places, just below the knee and at the instep; also breaking his nose and otherwise severely bruising him.

Sound as Usual.
PARIS, Sept. 8.—Gladstone, referring to the rapid increase of the population of America, said: "I wish to recognize America's right to be considered, prospectively at least, and even now to some extent, the great organ of the powerful English tongue. I wish also to indulge in feelings of satisfaction on reflecting that no cause on earth, unless our own folly, now or hereafter, ought to divide us from one another or revive those causes of honorable contention that have heretofore prevailed among us."

A Footpad Robs a Policeman.
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8.—Police Officer Thomas F. Deane was knocked down and robbed of a watch by a footpad early Sunday morning. He shot the thief in the back but the latter ran and was finally caught by the watchman at the mint. He gave the name of Mike Donovan.

A Fire Bug.
LANCASTER, Pa., Sept. 8.—Wrightsville, a small town on the Susquehanna, opposite Columbia, in this county, was a scene of terror last night, the police station and five barns being destroyed by incendiary fires. After the first fire a vigilance committee patrolled the place, but failed to prevent other fires.
