SOCIAL ETIQUETTE.

Important though it is to know the correct thing to do, and to do it promptly and gracefully on occasion arises, still the most useful social knowledge is perhaps that which teaches the things to be avoided, and it is for this reason that very many of the rules of etiquette are put in negative form. Among prohibitions which will oftenest be found applicable are the following:

Do not turn over the end of the visiting card or turn down the corners. This fashion does not now find favor.

Do not use trade terms except for trade purposes; as posted for well informed; balance for remainder.

Do not address a letter to a married lady, Mrs. Rev. John Thomas, or Mrs. Dr. Frank Brown, nor use her own name or initials. Mrs. John Thomas or Mrs. Frank Brown is the correct form.

Do not send a verbal answer to a written invitation.

Do not remove your glove when shaking hands, or apologize for not doing so. It is proper to offer the gloved hand.

Do not stop acquaintances and stand in the center of the sidewalk, forcing every one out of the path.

Do not talk at a concert or theatre during the performance. It is ill bred, though a rudeness by no means uncommon, to thus disturb those who wish to listen.

Do not occupy more than your rightful share of space in omnibus or street car. Ladies are accused of being the greatest sinners in this respect.

Do not begin a letter half way down the page nor end it abruptly with "yours" or "yours, etc.," such a phrase being rude and ungainly; neither is it in the best taste to abbreviate "affectionately," "respectively," and like words.

Do not write the name of street and number of house at the bottom of the envelope as is sometimes done.

Do not insist upon a guest being helped twice to a dish if he positively refuses once.

Do not whisper or use French or German phrases in company if it is likely that they will not be understood by any one.

Why?—Why do you not go to Waterloo? As a summer resort it is unexcelled. Good level ground, good shade, excellent soda water, good hotel accommodations. Board and lodging from $5.00 to $7 per week to suit customers. Six miles above Lebanon on the Santiam river. I will be at Lebanon every Saturday at arrival of train to convey parties to Waterloo. Good feed stable in connection with hotel.
J. G. Gross,
Proprietor Waterloo Hotel.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.—Commissioner Tanner's letter of resignation is made public. He says: "The difference which exists between the secretary of the interior and myself as to the policy to be pursued in the administration of the pension bureau, has reached a stage which threatens to embarrass you to an extent which I feel I should not call upon you to suffer and as the investigation into affairs in the bureau has been completed, and I am assured both by yourself and the secretary of the interior, contains no reflection on my integrity as an individual or as an officer, I herewith place my resignation in your hands, to take effect at your pleasure, to the end that you may be relieved of any further embarrassment in the matter." The Hancock Command of Union Veterans to-night adopted resolutions condemning the administration for accepting Tanner's resignation and endorsing the latter's management of the pension bureau.

A Terrible Storm.

LEWES, Del. Sept. 12.—No language can picture the terrible scene along the coast. The wind is blowing almost a hurricane, driving the rain with a force that cuts like hail. A half a mile beach of sand, between the town and the coast, is now a tossing ocean, bearing wreckage on every wave. Through the mist of spray the battered sails and naked masts of a score of deserted and dismantled vessels are dimly seen. In all, twenty seven vessels came ashore here.

A Letter Writer.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 12.—County Clerk Davies received a letter to day, addressed to "Cupid's Office, San Francisco," and dated at Jefferson, September 8, 1889, in which the writer says: "I wish you would send me one paper of your Cupid advertisements. Excuse me, I don't know the name of it yet. I am single and I like the acquaintance of a good lady. Yours truly. Address Conrad Dillman, Jefferson, Merion county, Oregon."

Deedly Justice.

DAGGETT, Cal. Sept. 12.—Perry Dodson, who knocked J. L. Patterson, superintendent of the Ranover mine, off his horse and robbed him of $5000 a few days ago, was overtaken by Patterson and John Ackerman near Coyote hotel last night. He commenced shooting at them and they returned the fire, hitting Dodson nine times, killing him. The stolen money was found on him.
