

LOCAL RECORD.

DON'T LIKE IT.—Thousands of dollars have been spent in The Dalles and certain Willamette Valley towns this fall, by residents of this county, for supplies, and thousands more will be spent for the same purpose before the advent of winter. It is very questionable whether, in the long run, anything is saved by trading for cash away from home. If one's time is worth nothing, he may save something by buying his winter supplies in Albany, but how far does the money spent abroad go toward building up our town? Better do your trading at home, except in cases where an individual has monopolized the business in certain lines of trade and wants unreasonable prices for all he has to sell.—Prineville News. As we don't like it when people go to Portland to do their trading, it would be out of place; but real such places as Portland and Albany are still up by becoming trade centers; and some people will go away from home if they imagine they can do better and it is very city's business to take advantage of the fact.

TAFFIED LAGRANDE.—Hon S A Dawson, of this city, who was recently in LaGrande led the following taffy, according to the Journal: "I was in LaGrande in 1864 when there was not a dozen houses and have been here a great many years since. Since the railroad came in the town has been building up rapidly and think that with the country tributary here that you should have a town of 5,000 people within the next two years. The people of the Valley should do all they can to help the lumbering interests along. I understand that some are fighting against the company here, and they are making a mistake in doing so."

ENGINE TEST.—To-night the hose to go Hillsboro will be given a test by the Fire Department, No. 1's steamer being used, and to-morrow evening the hand engine will be given a final test, either in the presence of Hillsboro men or Judge Graham and the fire editors of the two papers. It will be with many regrets old residents will see the hand engine leave Albany.

A CURIOSITY JUG.—At Wallace & Cusick's real estate office may be seen an ancient appearing jar, with a brazen putty surface, a number of curiosities stuck to the putty. They consist of spear heads, trifling wood, pieces of quartz, etc., and present quite an attractive appearance. Mr C C Haman, is the author of the jug, and made the collection entirely from the antiquities in the vicinity of his home.

WHAT WE NEED.—A new thing in the east is a professional superintendent of weddings. She bosses the whole business and in fact is an expert in arranging matters in style. What Albany needs is a superintendent who will bring some of the old bachelors, of which there are a large number, to their senses, regardless of style.

THEY COME BACK.—P. W. Starr, of Los Angeles and his estimable lady called this week and bid us "good bye." Watt says that he is not at all displeased with her or his success; but that he'd like to wander back again, to where the "home stands," somewhere in the romantic Willamette.—Border Signal.

 D W Claypool started last Tuesday for Albany with two four-horse teams after supplies.
 Roe Smead and family have gone to Albany to spend the winter.
 Ed Cantrell, who mysteriously disappeared last May, has been heard from. He is in Oregon, alive and well. This fact settles forever that Cantrell was not murdered, as some believed.—Prineville papers.

A SURPRISE PARTY.—Last evening at the residence of Mr H A Stanard, Miss Hattie Chesney was given a surprise party which proved a very entertaining and enjoyable affair. The evening was spent in lively games and conversation, and was not without its substantial part. The attacking party was composed of Misses Clara Read, Celia Pennington, Annie Ingram, Augusta Bridgeford, Frankie Hopkins, Alice Blake, Linda Miller, May Mills, and Messrs Quincy Propst, Walter Wiles, J R Wyatt, E J McCausland, F C Stanard, F L Kenton, Archie Hammer and Mr Crouch.

OREGON SALT.—It is not generally known away from home that Lake county now supplies her home market with stock and dairy salt of a good quality says the Lakeview Examiner. D R Jones is the proprietor of the salt marsh where Warner lake once spread her waters. Mr Jones grinds and sacks the dairy salt on the ground where it is scooped up by the wagon load and delivered to the different merchants of the county. The editor of the Examiner uses this salt on his potatoes every day.

HARRISBURG.—The town of Harrisburg is located in Linn county, on the east bank of the Willamette, and has been for years an important river shipping point for the products of that portion of the valley. In common with other towns in the valley Harrisburg has taken up the line of march and is pushing to the front. A new grist mill and a new saw mill are the most tangible evidence of this, but the spirit of progress is in the air and making itself felt in numerous other ways.—West Shore.

HE WON.—At the races in Portland last week a little girl about 9 years old, cried out in a shrill voice, "Tom Daly." An old gentleman heard her, and bought four mutuels. Tom Daly won the race and the mutuels paid $114, making the old gentleman a winner to the tune of $436. It is said he rewarded the child by giving her $100 for the "tip."

IT INTERESTS HIM.—The Walla Walla Statesman who man owns lots of property at Yaquina Bay, says, and probably correctly: "The Oregon Pacific railroad will be extended 92 miles east of Albany this winter. Connection with the Chicago & Northwestern is but a matter of a few months and then another transcontinental road will terminate at Yaquina Bay."

FIRST DAY.—The attendance at the State fair was about 1000. The exhibit is fair; but not enough. There were two races. The running race, three-fourths mile, was won by Raindrop. Time, 1:20 1/2. The three minute trot was won by Lady Beach. Stemwinder won the fifth heat in 2:25 1/2.
 To-day will be the 1-16 mile run and the 240 trot.

A MUSICAL CLASS.—Next Monday evening, Sept. 23rd, Prof W H Young, formerly of Ohio, will give a free musical service at the W C T U Hall, after which he will organize a class in vocal music. He will be assisted in the concert by Rev Richard, Prof Lee, O H Irvine and several others. Prof Young is well spoken of as an instructor.

KICKED.—Yesterday Mr J W Morgan was driving a horse, generally gentle, when a cross walk board tripped him and he began kicking over the dash board quite fiercely, in the course of which Mr Morgan was hit on a leg and one of his wrists, the latter being sprained. No serious damage.

AN ERROR.—In the assessment roll published in the Democrat yesterday the figures made the value of 36,908 sheep to be $525,226, which would be about $15 a head, enough to suit any wool man. The correct figures are $52,626.

THE TOURNAMENT.—Twelve horse teams will take part in the Tacoma tournament, which promises to have the greatest contests in the history of the Association. No team will make a sweep, and the ones who get first prizes will be in clover. Races were to begin to-day, and will continue too late for to-day's Democrat.

AT HARRISBURG.—Miss Henrietta Moore, the eloquent Lecturer of the W C T U will lecture in Harrisburg, Tuesday evening Sept 24th at 7:30 o'clock P M in Brown Church. All are cordially invited to attend, and none should lose the opportunity of hearing this talented lady lecturer.

NOTHING IN IT.—There is talk of a street car line being extended down First Street to the woolen mills, then out to East Albany now being platted by the Willamette Land Co., and also out Ferry Street to South Albany and Elkins' addition to the city.—Herald.
 The Democrat is requested by a director of the Street Car Company to say that there is nothing in the above. The company at the present time has no such extension in contemplation.

FRESH PAINT.—The Revere House corner is being painted and put in band box style. This includes Conn Bros grocery store. Where there is fresh paint outside there is a large and varied stock of fresh groceries and vegetables on the inside and some remarkably good grocery bargains are offered.

A WAVE DANCE.—Last evening at Lebanon, several loads of hop picking Indians held a very skookum wave dance that was quite gymnastic in its character. We are informed that one is to be held in Albany to-night, the Indians arriving in the city this noon, but we have failed to secure program, name of hall and comps.
