CONTINUES THE HUNT.-Mrs Mary Damback, who was recently in Albany is making herself known through Oregon, and the DEMOGRAT hopes she will and her husband before her purse is exhausted She has reached Pendleton according to the EO. "Mrs Mary Damback has arrived in Pendleton from Butler county, Pennsylvania, in search of her husband, Christian Damback, who left his home in Pennsylvania January 4th, 1888. He is fair complexioned, six feet in hight, is bald, and of German desent, but speaks good English. When last heard from he was in Linn county, Oregon, and had there purchased a farm. He had $4000 on his person when he left home. A liberal reward will be paid for information as to his whereabouts."

FASHION NOTES OF OUR OWN,-Th, DEMOCRAT after inspecting some of the Journals is able to make the following report. You can wear bustles or not just as you please. Striped flannel blouses are in order and are quite pretty if not too floppy-Fluted collars of great width, making the head look as if it protruded from a funne head look as if it protruded from a funnel are in order. Light fuffy caps and hats for men and women indiscrimiatly, with one and two forepieces, are sometimes seen. Plush cloaks and loudly striped cloaks will be the proper thing. Large fruit such as peaches, grapes, prunes' plums, cherries etc. will be worn on the fall bennets by those wanting to be up with the times. The Daily Democrar every evening is quite a popular thing among the people of Albany.

THE CORVALLIS COLLEGE .- The DEMO CRAT did not know until to-day that the Corvallis College, under charge of the M E Church south, was holding a term of school. It is informed that such is the case, school having opened on the 11th instance in the old Agricultural College building with an attendance of about thirty. It is proposed to continue the school and make it a permanent institution. Following is the faculty. Rev D Atkins, President; Miss Mattie Spencer, teacher in prepara-tory department; Mrs A C Adkins, teach-er in music; Mrs S T Jeffreys, teacher in

A CRYING NEED .- One of the greatest needs of the present age in Albany, is a platform on the North side of the Southern Pacific R R at this city. Fully half the people alighting from the cars here do so on that side, on account of the hotel buses and men being there and it being cityward. 'One evening two women fell in getting down from the cars, and such occurrences are common. Many also have to enter the cars from that side or pass over and the task is doubly difficult. The Company will confer a great favor to the traveling public generally if it will give them this greatly needed improvement, Wito was IT .- Last evening as an old lady and gentleman boarded the north grounds, the old gentleman was robbed un- prices before buying. not possible to learn his name, but he was from Linn county. There was a great crowd at the platform as the train was erow at the platfolm as the than was starting and the old gent was in the thickest part of the crowd, of course. He felt a strange hand fembling in his pocket but before he could realize what was being done he was robbed of his purse and the thief had escaped. The old gentleman was the loser of $$40 by the operation, Statesman.

as it illustrates the widely varied ideas different assessors have of real estate values. F L Richmond, a Portland drummer, owns a piece of property on Court street which he will sell for $3300. It was assessed for the county at $2,000, for the city at $2500, and for school purposes at $4450. The latter assessment has engendered considerable kicking on the part of Mr Richmond.—Pendleto 1 E O.

JUST & BARN. -But it is a curious kind of an arrangement. Geo F Simpson, E W Langdon, George Hochstedler and Mrs
C O Barnes each own a quarter of the

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN.

The Man About Town has never heard of what became of James Bannon, the escaped prisoner accused of trying to rob the Lebanon Bank. A gentleman from Lebanon says the people there make no bones in expressing their opinion as to who assisted Bannon, two men in particular being named openly; but who carried the several tons of dirt off in sacks from under the building, not a trace of which has ever been found, is not even settled by rumor, for that was work the principals would not think of diong.

How many runners it takes to make a fact is a problem it would take considerable figuring to solve. There have been enough brick and stone hotel rumors. In Albany to fill at least a small volume ; but the problem is not yet on paper. And railroad 'umors, well, Robinson himself couldn't figure the business out.

The Chinaman garbarge man of thi city has a peculiar kind of a whip. His seat hangs ever the front of his wagon, and when his horse, a balky one refuses to move with the desired alacrity, Ah S will draws his right leg back and gives the animal a vociferous kick with his heel, often repeating the operation with the regularity of a piston, and accompanying the op-eration with angry curses spoken in a con-fusion of Chinese and English words of remarkable profanity.

report a shamefully slim exhibit of our products, and commend nothing but the horse racing and stock exhibit. It seems sort of tough for the State to make ap-propriations just for horse racing.

An Albany woman with $6000 out at interest pays taxes on the full amount. An Albany man owning a piece of property valued at about $30,000 pays taxes on about the same amount as the woman. His income from his property is four or five times as much. This is a sample, and it indicates that there is an injustice done, not by our law; but by the prevailing custom of making assessments.

IN THE LEAD,-Mr. Julius Gradwohl eads in his business and wishes it understood that he will carry the finest stock o crockery ware in the Valley, receiving his goods from headquarters, and keeping up with the times in all the latest novelties. He has received a fine lot of Wedgwood & Co's Newyacht decorated ware, called ruby ware, handsomest goods in the market. Mr Gradwohl makes crockery a specialty and will meet the demands of the public in any line. Do not send away for goods but give him a call, Sona Springs,-Mr. Frank Crabtree ow has charge of the Findley Soda Springs, and is prepared to furnish the public with first-class accommodations, during the fall and winter.

ALL PERSONS,-Indebted to the late arm of Brownell & Stanard are requested to call and settle at the store of C E Brownell without delay or make some satisfactory arrangements.
