MONICA LETTER.—Mr Wilson just received a live letter from Santa Monica. Mr Bry characteristically, makes some word thrusts, full of interest to here, but of a local nature. He is talking one of the deadest towns in the U. S. and of how they bury their dead in sheet iron coffins to protect from badgers. John is a good fellow and we can easily see long old home in the gem city of and we predict will be here inside May Jones and Royal America doing good health.

STRUCTURE.—The new woolen mill the solidest and most permanent in the valley. A Democrat who inspected it to-day in company with Secretary Galbraith was sure the thoroughness of its make-up. The stone foundation, solid brick walls, brick partitions, a corrugated iron roof, not only on the main building, but on the dry and other houses. These buildings speak of permanence in all their details, and the mills will be an institution the city will be proud of.

CASE.—A peculiar case was yesterday at Salem, one which sometimes have a duplicate at Albany. It is of interest. The city an stray horse, and in due time it, and sold it to the highest bidder, Robert Ford, put the horse in his pasture, where A G Roberts, county, the former owner of the horse, and unknown to any one, had the pasture and to his home. Then had him arrested for horse and that was the case. It was held to await the action and jury under $400 bonds.

SOCIALS.—The attendance at the social given last evening at the O. F. Hall by Beulah Rebecca Degree Lodge was good, and the social was one of the most enjoyable ever held in the Hall, the evening being spent in amusements and unrestrained conversation.

The dime social at the residence of Rev L J Trumbull was enjoyed by a house full, noticeable for the large number of young people present. Lively games, genuine sociability and a nicely gotten up repast were the order. A labor saving feature of the lunch, and a good idea, was the passing of wooden plates, already containing a couple pieces of cake, a sandwich and a pickle, accompanied by a paper napkin, saving the confusion of so many waiters. A short program, consisting of recitations by Misses Rose Trumbull and Miss Celia Pennington and music, was presented.

ASHLAND.—Mrs H J Clark, who has been living at Grant's Pass while her husband is superintending the brick construction of the Opera House block there, was in Ashland yesterday, having just returned from a visit in Portland. Besides delegates from the various unions, Mrs. Riggs, State President, is expected to be present, and also Miss Mary A West, editor of the Union Signal, of Chicago, will conduct her school of method's drill, which will be of great interest and importance to all white ribboners. The evenings will be occupied by lectures of interest to the public. Miss West speaking on the 8th, and Miss Moore, who lectured in Albany this week, speaking on the evening of the 9th. A full program will be given later.

HAPPY WOMAN.—The wife of one of our most industrious mechanics met him at the gate the other evening on his return from his day's work with her countenance beaming with a happy aspect and in answer to his inquiry as to the cause of her pappy frame of mind she declared to him that that chicken which he had ordered from the Willamette Packing Co's store was the juiciest and tenderest yum! yum! that she had ever had. Every wise husband will order one or more from these enterprising grocers for Sunday.

Graham has received a large and choice stock of suitings, purchased in the East at bottom prices, and is now located at his old stand, two doors north of the Democrat office, where he is prepared to make suits and do a general tailoring business in a satisfactory manner, his many years of experience in Albany speaking for his workmanship. Call and see his suitings and get prices.

FINE LOOKING MEN.—Three finer looking gray haired men are not often seen than those with Col Hogg, and a finer lot of chow cho, German pickles, mixed pickles, in bulk, Swiss cheese, Limberger cheese cream cheese, Queen olives and fresh coconuts, were never received in this gem city of the valley than those just to arrive at the Willamette Packing Co's store.

BARGAINS.—The Waverly Hotel property, 33 1/2 feet frontage on First st., 100 feet deep, is for sale at a low figure. The property is leased for $400 a year. Is a good investment. E. G. BEARDSLEY, Real Estate Agent, Broadalbin st.

THE HAND ENGINE.

Is Arrived Among an Unappreciative People.

The following is from the Hillsboro Democrat. It is a very unjust article, considering the fact that three of the representative men of Hillsboro were in Albany and examined the engine before it was shipped. Nor is it true. The people of that city evidently do not know what an engine is. The engine was in remarkably good condition, considering its age, and with decent treatment is good for many years of active service. Here is the article: "The hand engine purchased from the city of Albany has arrived and appears to have caused an immense amount of kicking. The wood work seems to be in an advanced state of decomposition, the hose is quite old, and in various ways the concern seems to be considerable the worse for wear. But all these are minor defects that can be remedied for a small cost. It was not to be expected that the Council could buy an entirely new engine for $800, and if it takes $300 to repair it it is still a cheap machine. The Council should, however, immediately provide an engine house, as the machine will be utterly ruined in a short time if it is not removed from its present quarters. The Council must also provide cisterns, as it is rather difficult to put out a fire without water, even with an engine that has had so much experience in the business."

SOME MORE.—104 acres 8 miles from Albany at $8 per acre, situated 3 1/2 miles from Marion.
