TELEGRAPHIC NEWS

R R THIEVES.

SEATTLE, Oct. 6.—A conspiracy was to-day unearthed through which certain employees of the Puget Sound Shore railroad and the Columbia & Puget Sound railroad have been systematically robbing consignments of goods transported over these roads and disposing of them to their own profit. Various firms about the city have some time been complaining of their losses in clothing while in transit, and some weeks ago consignments of men's fine clothing to Toklas & Singerman and Kline & Rosenberg were $500 short. About a week since C P Blanchard, manager for Toklas & Singerman, was passing a tailor shop and he accidentally noticed a suit of clothing belonging to one of the firm's shipments. Stepping into the shops he ascertained that the suit had been left there by one Jack Gay, brakeman on the road, to be refitted. Officers were notified and they watched for Gay. Yesterday he called after the clothing and was promptly arrested. It was known that he was a member of a band of conspirators, and Gay was so woked upon that he was finally induced to confess, and implicated several others.

Poor Johnstown.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Oct. 6.—With the thermometer about the freezing point, there is a great deal of suffering here these nights by people who are improperly sheltered and poorly clothed. The relief money which was intended to supply their necessities, even if at once, will now come too late to be properly applied for providing against the blasts of winter. The clothing that was on hand when the commissary department shut down has been transferred to the Red Cross Society, by whom it will be distributed to the needy. There have been a great many deaths here within the past week, and most of them have been superinduced by ailments contracted in the flood. At the Red Cross hospital there are now twenty two cases of typhoid fever, most of them strangers in town.

A Council Denounced.

TACOMA, Wn., Oct. 6.—A meeting of business men was held at the Tacoma hotel to-night when the present city government was denounced in the most unqualified terms, and some of the speakers referred to the present mayor as being half intoxicated at all times. One speaker said the votes given in favor of a saloon license on Tacoma avenue last night were in favor of thieves, footpads and thugs of this city.

King County Ahead.

SEATTLE, Wn., Oct. 6.—An error by the clerk in making up the official returns of King county made Wilson's majority 960. The columns were cast up again to-day and it was found that the correct majority of Wilson is 1071. Other mistakes were made but so far as the revision has progressed none of them have been found to be material. This majority of 1071 for Wilson clearly entitles King county to retain its position as the banner republican county of the state. Whatcom county comes next with a majority of 808.

Olympia's Capital Vote.

OLYMPIA, Wn., Oct. 6.—According to estimates made to-day Olympia has received 24,000 votes for the capital. The official returns are anxiously looked for.
