INSURE AT ONCE.—Mr. Julius Gradwohl's advice to the people of Albany is to insure at once before it is too late, for the fire fiend is devastating the cities of the N. W. Mr Gradwohl represents seven solid companies, with an aggregate capital of $76,000,000 and a cash deposit of $350,000 at Salem. As well as business men, farmers should insure their crops, for they will burn, as a number of cases already testify. Though Mr Gradwohl's companies lost some in Seattle, Vancouver, Ellensburg and Spokane Falls their capital is so great the loss is not felt, and they will continue to place risks and pay losses with their usual promptness, the same as they did after the great Chicago fire, in which their losses were heavy.

IN THE LEAD.—Mr. Julius Gradwohl leads in his business and wishes it understood that he will carry the finest stock of crockery ware in the Valley, receiving his goods from headquarters, and keeping up with the times in all the latest novelties. He has received a fine lot of Wedgwood & Co's Newyacht decorated ware, called ruby ware, handsome goods in the market. Mr Gradwohl makes crockery a specialty and will meet the demands of the public in any line. Do not send away for goods but give him a call.

STRUCK OIL.—At $1.25 per 5 gallon can best Standard oil, at the Willamette Packing Co's store.

Judge Denny.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—It seems there are still those in the official circles of Corea who hold that Oregon's former resident, Judge O. N. Denny, is the cause of much of the internal war and strife that has been heard of in Corea for some time past. Dr. Allen, foreign secretary of the Korean embassy, expects to start soon a business trip to Corea to matters for the legation. Speaking of Corea he says: "As to the new minister and Prince Pak, there is a most cordial friendship existing between them, more so than the case with his predecessor. I think all present discussion springs from the meddlesome activity of a citizen of the United States in the employ of the Korean government. They are just about finding him out, and will no doubt soon dispose of his peculiar services."

National Grange.

WORCESTER, Mass., Oct. 10.—Jas. Draper, of Worcester, overseer of the National Grange, Patrons of Husbandry, issued the itinerary of the visitors from the Eastern states, to the meeting of the National Grange in Sacramento California, in November. The price of tickets to Chicago from Boston will be $18 from that point, and to San Francisco and return $100, tickets good for six months. The itinerary, as arranged, gives every desirable opportunity for sight seeing along the route.

Woolen Mills.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 10.—Operations have completely closed at the Pioneer Woolen Mills in this city. For the last five years no profit has been realized, although the product in 1883 amounted to the value of $1,000,000. When running at their fullest capacity the mills employed 700 hands.

Deserved Hanging.

HAILEY, Idaho, Oct. 10.—Leander Lee was today sentenced in the Second district court to life imprisonment in the territorial penitentiary for the murder of his squaw wife, Sarah Lee, and step daughter Jennie Lee, on Lost river, the 2d of July, 1888. The murder was one of the foulest in the history of crimes, but the evidence upon which he was convicted was purely circumstantial.

Corner Stone.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—The corner stone of the Pulitzer building, the new home of the World, was laid at 1 o'clock this afternoon. Colonel Cockerell, on behalf of Mr. Pulitzer, made a brief introductory speech, and Chauncey M. Depew delivered the formal address.
