THE HAZELWOOD LAND COMPANY.

THE TERRIBLE LOSS EXPERIENCED by Seattle in the late fire, was such as to render thousands homeless and dependent upon the charity of the world. The immediate wants were tended to, and the world at large nobly responded to the call for aid. But at the present time the prospects for a long winter stare hard in the faces of many hundreds; sickness from exposure are certain to occur, and the following plan has been devised to assist in caring for the unfortunates who may need medical assistance, by giving to the different hospitals a handsome sum of money.

The Hazelwood Land Company has generously determined to donate the proceeds of two houses and two hundred lots to the hospitals of the city, and has purchased this property with a view to disposing of it at a small advance over cost and devoting the net proceeds to the charities above mentioned; and proposes to issue tickets to be sold for $2.50 each for the purpose of raising money to help carry on the work. They have placed tickets on sale throughout the country, and upon December 31, 1889, a committee consisting of two prominent citizens will take all the numbers of tickets and place them in a box, they will then be thoroughly mixed and a boy blindfolded will place his hand in the box and draw out one number, and whoever holds the corresponding number will be awarded one house and the pair of lots upon which it is built. Then the fifth number drawn shall be awarded a lot, then the tenth number a lot, and so on, every thirty-fifth number drawn shall be awarded a lot until the two hundred and sixth number shall be drawn, which shall entitle the holder to the corresponding number which shall be drawn, is the remaining house and pair of lots.

All the above property is guaranteed to be free of any and all liens, mortgages or anything that will impair a title. A warranty deed assuring a perfect title will be made to every lucky ticket holder who wins a prize. The tickets are only placed at $2.50, and besides a standing show to get a beautiful home worth $6000 or a lot worth $250. You are aiding one of the grandest charities which has ever asked of you. Purchase your tickets of agent or traveling canvasser who proper credentials. Deeds are deposited with the Puget Sound National Bank.

INSURE AT ONCE.—Mr. Julius Gradwohl's advice to the people of Albany is to insure at once before it is too late, for the fire fiend is devastating the cities of the N. W. Mr. Gradwohl represents seven solid companies, with an aggregate capital of $76,000,000 and a cash deposit of $350,000 at Salem. As well as business men, farmers should insure their crops, for they will burn, as a number of cases already testified. Though Mr. Gradwohl's companies lost some in Seattle, Vancouver, Ellensburg and Spokane Falls their capital is so great the loss is not felt, and they will continue to place risks and pay losses with their usual promptness, the same as they did after the great Chicago fire, in which their losses were heavy.

A NEW CANDIDATE.

Mr. Harvey Scott has retired—ostensibly—from the editorship of the Oregonian, for the purpose, it is generally supposed, of becoming a candidate for the United States Senator next year against Senator Mitchell. Mr. Scott has fairly "earned" the promotion. He has supported the principle of a life-time; he "backed" candidates, from President down to constable, whom he has denounced as dishonest, incompetent, and dangerous; he has bowed his head and bent his journalistic course abjectly for a year and a half now to the dictates of the Simon-Dolph ring; has forsaken honest and independent journalism and become the sycophantic servant and tool of every scheme of plunder, corruption; he has also made a great deal of money; Why should he not be Senator?—East Oregonian.

"The Road To Heaven,"

A golden Casket of unique brilliant and beautiful christian treasures, gathered from the richest mines of religion, science, and philosophy; sumptuously illustrated with a magnificent galaxy of royal steel plate engravings.

No other book of modern times deals with such a living subject, displays such genuine genius, has such a significant, striking and attractive title as this new book possesses. It contains the essence of a thousand fables boiled into one, and explores every field of human experience, that can engage, fascinate and charm both the highly cultured and the man of the world.

It is issued by the Globe Bible Publishing Co., of Philadelphia, Pa., and sold by subscription only. Mr. L. McFarland, who is the authorized agent for this section is now canvassing for it. We heartily recommend this book to our readers.

STOOD UP.

PORT TOWNSEND, Oct. 20.—James W. Stock and a merchant, was waylaid last night by footpads while returning home, and in the attempt to rob him, Stock was severely beaten and bruised. His cries brought assistance and frightened the robbers away. Later two men giving the names of Jim Smith and Ludwig Lunwen, claiming residence in Tacoma were arrested and identified as Stock's assailants.

A Heavy Rain.

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 20.—There was quite a heavy rainfall to-day all over the state. At Los Angeles over three inches of rain fell in eight hours. The ground in the San Joaquin and Sacramento valleys was well soaked. There was a little damage done to fruit in a few places.

Enclosed for Murder.

WHEELING, W. Va., Oct. 20.—This evening, as Charles Platt, aged 15, and a friend were returning home in a wagon from gathering walnuts in the country, they were accosted by James Mulcahy, aged 17, who asked them for a ride. Upon their refusal Mulcahy raised a rifle, which he was carrying and shot Platt, killing him instantly.
