LOCAL RECORD

GEORGE'S BLISS.—Mr John Swikehammer, whose erudition is a household word in many parts of Linn county, was in the city Saturday, and had five hundred impressions of the following made at an antimony shop: "Lecture Ticket. Admit one. George's Bliss." A Democrat man who interviewed Mr Swikehammer learned that he is now at the incipient stages of a lecture tour through the valley. After great investigation he has perfected several lectures which promise to take the public by hurricane. One of them is entitled "The Grand Unity of Ideas," a title that suggests a pyramid of thoughts at once. After doing Oregon Mr Swikehammer has in contemplation a trip through the East, where they are in need of having their ideas now in chaos brought to a focus. The Democrat has known the lecturer for several evolutions of the zodiac, and heartily recommends him to the thinking people of Oregon who are desirous of a literary treat of an elevated order.

SELL HER AND BUY MINING STOCK.—In speaking of Salem and her crew, referred to in the Democrat, the State Democrat of that city says: "Yes, neighbor, she is 'holding her own in good shape,' but she don't claim any boom just at this time; but wait until the Gold Mountain and Dry Gulch Consolidated Gold and Silver Mining company get their mines in operation. Then there will be a genuine boom, and the 'prominent citizen' with the cow with prominent hip bones" will relent and buy the starved animal some feed that he may dispose of her, and thus secure enough funds to purchase a few shares of stock. Our advice to the "prominent citizen" is to make the purchase as soon as possible, ere it is too late."

MR. SMITH DREW IT.—The drawing for the two story house in the Pipe's addition took place at the office of Burkhardt & Malin at 5 o'clock Saturday evening, and resulted in Mr G W Smith getting the house. On Wednesday evening Mr Smith will give the other purchasers in the addition a banquet at the St Charles Hotel, which shows that he appreciates his fortunate draw. The Pipe's addition cost the owner $2500. It consisted of thirty-two lots, which sold for $150 a piece, a reasonable profit.

AN AGED TRAVELER.—Miss Sarah Althouse, sister of Mrs S E Young, and mother, Mrs Henry Althouse, arrived here last evening from Illinois. They were met at the depot in Portland by Mr Phil Goodwin, a nephew and book-keeper for S E Young. Mrs Althouse is ninety years of age and yet stood the trip well, and is lively as many women of sixty and seventy.

ITEMS GROW.—Recently the Democrat mentioned the fact that Mr G T Cotton had platted a piece of land near Lebanon and jokingly remarked that he was undecided whether to call it Cotton's addition to Lebanon or Albany. As usual our Ex's bite, and here is one of the items: "G T Cotton has platted a piece of land adjoining Lebanon, and offers it for sale as 'Cotton's addition to Albany.'"

POSTAGE STAMPS.—In a few weeks there will be a general change in the postage stamps used in the U S and the variety will suit even an evening rainbow. Here is the list: One cent, ultramarine blue; 4 cent, chocolate; 5 cent, light brown; 6 cent, vermilion; 10 cent, melon green; 15 cent, steel blue; 30 cent, black; 90 cent, orange. The old 2 cent stamp will be cut down about one fourth smaller, and be of metallic red or carmine color.

APING SAN FRANCISCO.—Portland is to have an athletic club which is to be counterpart of the famous California Athletic club of San Francisco. Dave Campbell has been elected instructor of the club, and apparatus recently used by the California Athletic club, has been purchased. Purposes for matches will be offered as soon as the club is incorporated.

GRAND JURY.—The following grand jury was drawn at the convening of Circuit Court this afternoon: A P Blackburn, W K Temple, Thos Alphin, D C Cooley, Peter Powell and C T Croft. Jonathan Wassom was appointed foreman.

TOO MANY A DAY.—Mr Meyers, the Albany mail carrier, has to make seven trips a day under the present arrangements, and considering it too much for the pay, $30 a month, has resigned. This does not include numerous extra trips caused by delays.

"The Estrella" cigar, 3 for 25 cents, at Ellis Cigar Store.

A BARK IMPOSER.—The Masonic fraternity of Oregon and Washington have recently been treated to a visit of an imposer of the darkest dye. By name he is Prof Wylie Willey, claiming to hail from South Carolina. He refers to lodges in that state which, it is found have no existence. He applies to the brothers for assistance to enable him to make his way to some far off destination. Failing to examine him closely, often suggestions were donated and from these donations the fraud grew fat. It is understood that he bilked Turner and Oregon City.—Statesman.

THE CHEAPEST AND BEST.—Crawford & Paxton wish to say to the public that they will soon bring out great improvements in pictures by newly discovered processes never before introduced on this coast. As to cheap work offered by any traveling photographers, we will give our patrons better pictures and lower prices than any traveler can do. We are here for business and mean just what we say. Call one and all and we will verify our promise.

A LEFT HANDED COMPLIMENT.—Geo F Simpson, a prominent citizen of Albany, visited Scio last Friday and made us a friendly call. Mr Simpson has control of the warehouse at Munkers station on the O P, which was crammed full of grain in the early part of the season. As a wheat buyer he generally keeps ahead of the market.—Scio Press.

A FIFTY FOOT FRONT.—Saturday evening Dr Scroggins bought of Dr J L Hill his fifty feet front adjoining the Russ house, paying $800 for it. By the way if A T Arnell could be in Albany for a few moments and witness the immense increase in the price of the property he sold for almost a song a few years ago his remarks would be worth a circus.

A PECULIAR ACCIDENT.—Yesterday on the Upper John Day river Miss Annie McHaley, daughter of George V McHaley, of Prairie City, was badly scalded by the explosion of a pan of hot lard and there are some doubts as to her recovery. Her arm face and one side of her body are horribly cooked.

ANOTHER BRICK.—This forenoon Mr Jason Wheeler sold to Mr M Sternburg forty-four feet front of the second street property, between Ellis and Lyon for $5,000. He proposes building a two story brick on it in the spring.

BOYS READ THIS.—A Portland man went into a store last week and put a lighted cigarette on the edge of an aquarium. A goldfish seized it and took a puff. For several days the poor thing lay at the bottom of the tank and puffed like a tired dog. Its color changed to jet black, and the owner of that cigarette has sworn off for keeps.

BROWNVILLE.—There are now over 200 scholars in our schools and several more will enter soon. This is an excellent showing. We believe the best in the history of this school.

MR C H YOUNGER, and the boss carder in the Albany woolen mills (we did not learn name) drove over from Albany Wednesday, returning Thursday. Business was their object.

Teaching is given in dress making, penmanship and singing, and there is a good circulating library.
