

LOCAL RECORD

RATHER ROMANTIC.—They were acquainted with each other in Minnesota years ago, when young people together, a name was Charles Perry and her's name was Mary. He loved her passionately, but she had no use for him at all. Miss Knox came to Oregon about three years ago and opened a private school at Salem, meeting success and making friends generally. Perry followed her to Oregon; but she refused to have anything to do with him. In December at Portland he was adjudged insane and taken to the asylum; but afterwards escaped, and could not be captured, though he appeared frequently to mar the happiness of the school teacher. Yesterday morning he appeared at the school house, grabbed Miss Knox and was attempting to carry her off, saying he had a house ready for her, when a school boy, fifteen years old, came to the rescue and fought for his school teacher like a good fellow. Perry was arrested and placed in jail. It is said he is not insane at all, except in love. —Miss Knox.

HARD LOOKING CUSTOMERS.—Two of the most cultis looking fellows ever seen in the city of the toombs, were at the depot at evening, quarreling over the contents of a bundle. One of them had peeled the other's nose over the affair, which was not presented physically, the man saying he didn't want to fight with him over a pair of overalls bought at Phil Cohen's. The quarrel ended one of them and left him with a few moments in the baggage room with a drayman; but he sneaked off with his bundle and took to the blind baggage when the train came in. They claimed to have been working on the O. P. and had several dollars between them. It has since been learned that the bundle had been stolen of boarder at Mrs Murray's hotel and that the Phil Cohen part was a joke to cast off suspicion. A warrant was issued for their arrest. The bundle contained a revolver and some clothes.

BLESSED RAIN.—Rain is the making of any country. Last year it was so dry through some parts of Eastern Oregon that crops were ruined. Now they have gotten some rain, and the Fossil Journal comes so overcome that it says: "The farm rains of this week are a blessing to very one. The farmer is smiling as he sees his fall sown wheat and rye spring from the earth and tingle the plowed field with a greenish hue. The sheep man glories that the new green grass is already growing enough to satisfy his hungry herds, and the cattle and horse men know that a few days it will be good feed for their stock also. The new-corn and other farmers are taking advantage of the time for sod breaking and other plowing, and it is as merry as a marriage bell."

THE Y'S ELECTION.—The annual election of officers of the Y W C T U of Albany occurred last evening, and resulted as follows: Mrs Sherman Thompson, President; 1st Vice President, Miss Margeria Link; 2nd Vice President, Miss Rose Trumbull; Miss Ella Mead, Secretary; Miss Margeria Link, Cor Secretary; Miss Hannah Cohen, Treasurer; Miss Francis Albert, Organist; Miss Mary Cundiff, Assistant Organist; Mrs O S Pollock, Superintendent; Mrs I E Blain, Superintendent Juvenile work.

A NARROW ESCAPE.—One day last week six Chinamen, who were employed as section hands on the O P R R, had a rather miraculous escape, says the Times. They were crossing a bridge near the summit with their hand car at a good rate of speed when it jumped the track and carried the six unfortunate creatures some thirty feet to the bottom of the ravine. Strange to say, none of them were killed, although two were considerably injured.

BEING ON TIME.—The Southern Pacific officials should read the following and then go and soak their heads. It is the exception for one of their trains to be on time. Out of a total of 100,000 passenger trains on the Great Eastern road, England, for the first six months of this year, over 59 per cent were absolutely punctual, 37 per cent were less than five minutes late, 4 per cent were over five and less than ten minutes late, and 3 per cent were over ten minutes late in arriving at their destination.

A RICH MINE.—Information comes from the Greenhorn district that the lucky prospector, Mitchell, who made the recent strike near Robinsonville, worked ten hours with a motor not long ago, and rounded out $7000 worth of gold.—The Dallas T M. Such items make Albany's bar sink into significance.

CIRCUIT COURT.

The Grand Jury brought in the following indictments to-day:

Bernard Wences, assault with intent to kill.

James Patterson, larceny. Plead guilty and sentenced to 1 month in County jail.

REBECCA DEGREE.—Beulah Lodge, No 35, will give a Divine social at the Odd Fellows Hall, on Friday evening, Nov. 1st. Everybody welcome. The following program will be rendered:

Song—"The Birdie's Call," by Jessie Clifton and Elma Parker.

Song—"Poverty's Tears, Ebb and Flow," by Maud Crosby.

Song—"Restless Sea," by Archie M Hammer.

Song—"Maggie, the Cows are in the Clover," Mrs C O Lee.

Mrs Alken and Mrs Vassallo will oblige with a duet.

Miss Frances Gilbert will preside at the organ for the evening.

AN ALBANY MAN IN IT.—The usually quiet city of Yaquina was stirred up Friday morning by a shooting scrape, says the Corvallis Times. It seems an individual by the name of "Bill" Ennis had some trouble the evening before with Chris. Germanson, the bar-tender at Gardine's scow and Ennis was thrown from the house. On Friday morning the ejected gentleman appeared on the spot with a double-barreled shotgun and was about to blow the bar tender into kingdom come, when Chris, pulled his revolver and fired three shots at the unwelcome visitor, none of which took effect. This was followed by a scuffle and Ennis had his own gun broken over his back and was badly bruised up.

TRICKSTERS.—The Corvallis Times shows up the Gervais foot race between Langdon or Dobbins and Cameron. According to the Times these men and Bill Gilpin were doing the the Valley together in the usual way, as strangers, taking each other in and dividing the spoils afterwards. They managed to meet at Gervais. Cameron was to win according to the program; but Dobbins went back on him, won the race and his money and the partnership has been dissolved.

BICYCLE RIDING.—Think of a woman riding on a bicycle 84 miles in seven days, eight hours a day, an average of over fifteen miles an hour; but that is what Miss Baldwin did at San Francisco. On being interviewed she advised all women to learn to ride bicycles, pronouncing it the healthiest exercise in the world when not over done. The Albany girls will please take notice, and the DEMOCRAT's bicycle is at their service for learning purposes.

KICKS.—The noon Portland mail yesterday arrived last night. This is what people like regardless of administration; and then the trains are always late, at least rarely on time, and all to-gather matters are badly mixed up. It is to be hoped more steam will be put on, fences built and mail sent regularly.

SOMETHING NEW!—Having purchased the right of Linn county, I have a camera that will make you photographs with as many different views of your face as you want at one sitting, all for the same price and as cheap as the cheapest art.

Mrs Sherer has moved in to her new home in Tangent.

Mrs J J Beard has gone to California on a visit to her son.

Union Lecture.

I notice that Prof Rork is advertised to lecture at many points in Linn, Lane and Benton counties and is to be at Albany Nov 7th, 7-30 P M. His subject is the liquor traffic in connection with other social questions of reform in which the laboring and taxpaying men and women of this State are especially concerned.

It is to be hoped that the people will generally turn out to hear him and learn what they don't seem to know that they are being unmercifully robbed by the legal machinery of the State and Nation. I am informed his lectures are well attended and deep interest manifested. Up to the present writing the Prof has only spoken at two places, Oregon City and Harrisburg.

At both of these places unions were organized with respectable members to push forward the good work. It is to be hoped that all other places will act likewise. Let us see what can be done in Albany, Union.

That Cantankerous Old Woman

Described in the nursery ballad, who "lived upon nothing but victuals and drink," and yet "would never be quiet," was undoubtedly troubled with chronic indigestion. Her victuals, like those of many other elderly persons whose digestive power has become impaired, didn't agree with her. This was before the era of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, or some one of her numerous friends and relatives would undoubtedly have persuaded her to try the great specific for dyspepsia, constipation and biliousness. This would have been a measure of self protection on her part, for she would soon have been cured and ceased to disturb them with her clamor. The most obstinate cases of indigestion, with its attendant heartburn, flatulence, constant uneasiness of the stomach and of the nerves, are completely overcome by this sovereign remedy. Chills and fever and bilious remittent rheumatism and kidney troubles are also relieved by it.
