LOCAL RECORD

THE "UNION" ORGANIZER.—The lecture or more properly "stump speech" by Prof Rork on Thursday evening, October 24th, drew an interesting audience, mostly laboring men.

A LETTER WRITER.—Did you ever stop to think what a useless letter writer a good local paper is? Week after week, reaching into year after year it goes on.

WOULDN'T YOU LIKE?—Fifty men arrived in this city yesterday morning on the Portland boat to defend the Nelsen valley, where they intended to take up timber claims, says the Astoria Journal.

SOCIAL PARTY.—A very pleasant social party was given last evening at the residence of Mr Frank J Miller, near the Democrat office.

AN ACCURATE DESCRIPTION.—Postmasters are frequently in receipt of some queer letters of inquiry, and their life would be a burden if they attempted to answer all of them, says the Headlight.

"BORED FOR SREKANSKI OR BUST!"—The "Bored for Srekaniski or Bust!" is a new and original song, which may be considered a grand feat on the size of Luffalo's "Bored Wild."

A RARE BARGAIN.—160 acres fine farmland 5 miles from Albany, 1 mile from R station. Good house and barn. $25 acre.

McMINNVILLE COLLEGE.—At the last district convention held in McMinnville, a sum of $1735 was raised for the Baptist college, which completed the amount necessary to make the interest of the building fund of $15,000 available.

40 A FOOT.—Mr John Fox to-day sold Star Brewery property, consisting of feet front, to T E Hogg, for $14,000.

THE BEST.—Quarter blocks and some of the finest lots in the city are offered for cheap by E G Beardsley Real Estate agent, Broadalbin St. Also about 10 acres one mile from town at a bargain price property of all descriptions.

HOUSE AND LOT.—Capt E J Lanning has sold his house and lot on Second St, just east of the O P track to Countert Montague for $1800.

ANCOUVER.—I have for sale a very prospective business lot in Vancouver T or would trade for Albany property. E G Beardsley, Real Estate Agent, Broadalbin St Albany.

EXT.—New and best place in town is on's new barber shop in the Froman St, next door to Fortmiller & Irvine's, barber in town.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN.

The Man About Town bears a great deal of speculation about the result of the recent step taken by the Chicago and Northwestern in agreeing to stop its work and unite with the Union Pacific, thus putting a quietus to its connection with the Oregon Pacific for the present.

Competition is undoubtedly the life of trade. In this connection the M. A. T. has observed lanterns in a show window marked 40 cents apiece, immediately followed in another window by lanterns marked at 25 cents.

Have you observed that foggy, disagreeable mornings are generally followed by bright afternoons. That's life.

W. L. ITZEL DON.—The plan of building a line of rail from Salem to Seaside, and the Oregon Pacific, and from a Salem to Seaside, on the west side of the bay, is receiving general discussion and the proposition is generally meeting with approval.

A MUDDY ITEM.—But, what's the use of objecting and all this sort of business. Even Albany—the metropolis sit down of Linn county, the great (?) railroad center of itself, the village of homely girls and bow-legged dogs, the town that imagines a darnite more than it really has, and ever will get—has muddy and slummy streets.—Corvallis Gazette.

HEAVY SALES.—Daily we hear of some very heavy real estate sales in Albany, and these are indicative of the steady, healthy continued growth of the city, and the very heavy sales of dressed chickens for Sunday dinners by the Willamette Packing Co. is indicative of the prosperous growing business of that house.

TO THE LADIES ONLY.—I am now prepared to do all kinds of stamping, and have over two thousand designs to choose from. Also keep a nice line of embroidery materials, such as arranges, crewels, No. 1 and 2 embroidery chenilles, princess chevilles, etc., etc., and the finest pouncers, tassels, crescents, corés plushes, felts and fancy work materials ever in the city.

ALL NIGHT.—Mr Ivanovich keeps an all night house on First St between Ellsworth and Lyon, at which is to be found fresh oysters, porter, house steaks, ham and eggs etc.

A TICKET.—Beginning Oct. 19th we will give a ticket with each cash purchase of $1.00 and every five of these tickets gives a chance at drawing one of those elegant sets of dishes at LAFOREST & THOMPSONS.

BABIES.—The finest line of baby carriages in the Valley just received at Stewart & Sox's. Prices are remarkably cheap considering the superior quality of the carriages.
