

THE GREAT VICTORY.

Later election returns show that the tide was all in favor of the democrats. The net result is about as follows: In New York the democrats elect their state ticket by about 22000 majority and gain ten members in the legislature. In the city Tammany Hall gains a sweeping victory over the combination put up between the County Democracy and the republicans. Democrats carry New Jersey by 10000 majority and have both branches of the legislature. Virginia was carried over Mahone by 35,000 majority and the democrats have two thirds majorities in both branches of the legislature. Democrats carry Ohio by 12,000 majority and have a majority on joint ballot in the legislature. Democrats carry Iowa by about 5,000. Republicans have a small majority in the legislature. Republicans carry Massachusetts by about 6,000 majority on their state ticket and the legislature by a greatly reduced majority. Pennsylvania and Nebraska are republican. The victory is a great one for the democrats and republicans are greatly cast down.

FREE TRADE IN LUXURIES.

Napoleon, whatever his faults as a ruler, knew how to raise enormous revenues with the least possible hardships to the people and the greatest economy and certainty to the government.

"The vices have broad backs," said he, and he put heavy taxes upon tobacco and other ministers to vice and luxury, leaving the necessities of the people either wholly untaxed or as lightly burdened as possible.

The republican party, judging by the utterances of its leaders and organs, proposes to reverse this wise rule. In its view it is the necessities of the people that have "broad backs" and can best bear the burdens of taxation. "Men, women and children must have food, clothing, fuel and shelter: therefore tax these for a sure income, and we will spend the surplus." This seems to be the rare economic policy of the champions of protection—satirically so called.

President Harrison is reported to have replied recently to a spoilsman who sought to hasten the appointment of an Internal Revenue Collector: "There is no haste about these; they will all be legislated out of office when Congress meets." A republican organ in Ohio, replying to The World, says: "First of the 'surplus' producing war taxes' to go will be tobacco tax."

Why should tobacco and whiskey be exempt from taxation while 80 per cent. of the tariff taxes is collected from necessities of the people? Why abolish taxes which each consumer can abolish for himself and be the better for it? How do the people relish the prospect of free trade in vices and luxuries?

On October 29th the president appointed thirty one presidential post masters. Two were in office just made presidential, twenty to fill places made vacant by the removal of twenty and nine to fill places whose incumbents had been induced to resign. No charges against these democrats. When one of them, (Mr. Morhup of Syracuse New York,) asked to know the charges against him, president Harrison told him there were none, but that all democratic appointees should move out of the way. Compare these facts with the pledges of the republicans made in their platform that "the spirit and purpose of the reform (civil service) should be observed in all executive appointments". Is it any wonder that the thousands of mugwumps who went back to Harrison are thoroughly disgusted? And that republicans of clean inclinations everywhere are becoming alarmed at the president's subject subservience to the spoil hunters led on by Quay, Dudley and Clarkson?

IN THE LEAD.—Mr. Julius Gradwohl leads in his business and wishes it understood that he will carry the finest stock of crockery ware in the Valley, receiving his goods from headquarters, and keeping up with the times in all the latest novelties. He has received a fine lot of Wedgwood & Co's Newyacht decorated ware, called ruby ware, handsome goods in the market. Mr Gradwohl makes crockery a specialty and will meet the demands of the public in any line. Do not send away for goods but give him a call.

Ladies shoes, mens shoes, boys shoes, childrens shoes, mens boots, boys boots, at less than cost to make room for other goods at C E Brown's.

Vice President Levi P. Morten was made the target for some vigorous shots from Ex-governor St John the other day in Boston. It seems Morten has been building a hotel in Washington and constructed quite a spacious room for a saloon and rented this to a man named Kenna. Kenna had to have so many names to his petition before he could obtain license. Morten was the first to sign his petition. And this says St John for a man who represents a party that professes to be a temperance party.
