

LOCAL RECORD

PECULIAR BUSINESS.—Recently a specimen was taken up for a quarter advertisement in the Oregonian of a certain length of time for a price. To-day the advertisement showed off to advantage; but underneath it appears another of length and signed by Curran & Monteith, the general effect of the whole such that to a casual observer the half page reads like the advertisement of Curran & Monteith alone. The being that to those not familiar with either they will get the credit of the adv. while the other agents here sit and wait. At the same time Curran & Monteith pay for their own ad. $250 and the general advertisement, their real estate agents are quite interested and the matter has stirred up a bubble of talk. As a matter of fact the firm has a perfect right to run an ad; but under the circumstances it is right for the Oregonian to place advertisements together, and if several here say they will not share of the subscription. They the whole transaction in pretty language.

MARCO.—The foot race between W. E. G. Cameron arranged for yesterday afternoon didn't terminate. The race for two hours in the rain; but, according to all the reports, Cameron was afraid to run and not cross the mark with Trine, he was given every opportunity and humored. There is little doubt that such was his intention. The declared the race off, and the dis-crowd hissed and "rattled" the Coroner as he left the ground. Those who were on the inside of foot races think Cameron is not on the run he can get some advantage or the chuck one like that with Dobbins. At the crack of a revolver is the next way to begin a race. Such only tend to degrade a contest properly conducted is full of interest to many.

PRIDE OF THE VALLEY.—Coll Van of the Scio Press, continues to keep on Albany, and occasionally gets plastic as if he had a corner block. Real estate still advances in price. The side of the valley, Albany, and gold poured into dirt by the barrel. That a spell ago found no takers for eight hundred dollars, now is gobbled up at four, five and six dollars. Yesterday owners of properties that cost them a few hundred have a large bank account and on the fat of the land if they all garnered from the advance in price. Verily Albany is on top of the best tidal wave of prosperity that the Willamette valley. 'Rahny'.

WARDS.—Several have inquired present boundaries of the wards, brought out by the approach. The Democrat finds them follows: First ward—all of that of the city from Ferry Street to its limits, including the west half of House block. Second ward—part of the city between Ferry and streets, excluding the west half of House block. Third ward—all of the city from Baker Street to its limits, including the part added by the city's charter.

ORIGINAL WONDER.—There is in county a human freak that is a curiosity. It was an Indian child of Perces tribe, with but one eye, in the center of its forehead like the fabled cyclops. The child to see with ease, and ran about such freedom as any of his com-

YET.—Mrs Mary Damback from was in Boise City, still for her wayward husband. We find him we predict that he will be wiped with his coat tails. We doubt if Mrs Damback is in track.

OUR EYES OPEN.—Gullis & Son had a fine line of holiday goods, fancy albums, fancy goods, nicely decorated, and an elegant stock of goods, in which they are making a specialty. The proposed assortment as is to be the city.

HE BIT.—He was an aesthetic looking drummer, one of your fellows who has seen the world and is up to snuff. While telling the latest story in an Albany store yesterday a man entered with a tin arrangement having a blow pipe and a wind mill on top. He carelessly set it on the counter.

"What's that," was asked.
 "Oh, that's simply a lung tester."
 "Yes."
 "Yes, my wife has not been well and I was taking it up home to try her lungs. If it whistles it is a sign the lungs are all right." The merchant, quick to see a point, covered a couple suspicious looking holes with a finger and blew the mill, which whistled rattlingly. Then the drummer tried it off hand;

"Whew, there is dust in the thing," he said, and brushed his face, soon going out, while the clerks retired for an explosion. He met a friend, who inquired the cause of his face being covered with black with finger marks streaked through it. It was really a spectacle. A light shone in his eyes through the lamp black.
 "I guess it was that d—d lung tester," he ejaculated and hastened to his room, where a mirror told the fact that even drummers can sometimes be taken in.

CROCK COUNTY.—J. N. Durcan expects to leave to-day for Albany, where he will permanently locate, though he expects to visit Prineville at each sitting of circuit court for a number of years to come. M. E. Brink Esq. arrived here from Albany on Thursday and intends locating in Prineville, having formed a partnership with Mr Durcan in his law practice here. Newt Bostwick, an old time Ochocoan left here for Linn county, his present home, with quite a number of horses last Thursday. He was accompanied by Fred Goulet who also took a number of horses below. Perry Reed says horses on the range are not generally in good condition. He had intended to gather a band to send to the Willamette valley for market, but found them too poor to put on the market.—Prineville Papers.

SOMETHING NEW.—Mr W. F. Kuhn, lately from Ohio, has purchased the business and stock of W. E. Curl, near the express office, and will change it into a business of stationery, news, magazines and periodicals of all kinds, as well as a full line of choice tobacco and cigars. Mr Kuhn proposes to do a straight forward business and solicits the patronage of all customers in his line of business. Give him a call.

FOR DIVERSION.—Three very tough fellows have been boarding for a few days at the city's palatial calaboose. They have spent the time by building fire on the floor, a little game they played on Saturday, mashing the stove pipe into pancakes, and other acts of a like refined nature. A bread and water diet for them should be reduced to chips and smoke.

TWO BOYS.—Two little boys playing blackman at the college yesterday afternoon, one being Louis Fox, a son of John Fox, collided in a pugilistic manner. A piece of a Japanese fan came in contact with an eye of the Fox boy, cutting the eye lid badly, and it was reported putting the eye out, but it seems not injuring the eye ball at all.

WAR ON A BAD PRACTICE.—A Salem paper is making a fierce and temeritous fight against the practice many young men have of sneaking up to a church door just as services are out and "catching on" to some young woman or girl. The Democrat did this several years ago; but the practice continues some in this city nevertheless. It is a very naughty one and should be stopped. Nothing can be more unmanly. The proper way is to accompany the young woman both ways. If she can go alone she can go home alone.

ALBANY is putting her nose in the air in the hopes of scenting some wholesale business. Albany has no crook in her back. Her people are wide awake.—East Oregonian.
 The above is a sample of the items going around about Albany. It seems to be the center of attraction of Western Oregon, and the citizens of the place must continue to keep up their good name. Is all the stock subscribed for the Sugar & L P factory. What about extending the street car line, etc.

A PARDON WANTED.—A petition is being circulated for the pardon of W A Hill, in the penitentiary for wrecking the overland train. A great many people sign petitions because they are asked to. In this case it will be well to pause and remember that the prisoner is simply paying the penalty for the loss of two valuable lives and that according to his own confessions he was jointly to blame with others for such a result.

SPECULATION ITEMS.—Yesterday evening Mr Robert Murphy sold to Shultz & Remington one lot at the corner of Second and Montgomery streets, being the property now being filled up for $1700.
