

The Democrat.

GIVES ALL AWAY

KEEP YOUR EYE ON ALBANY.

The Portland Journal keeps its eye on Albany in the following fashion:

"Albany is in the lead of all the other towns in the Willamette valley, in every respect. Her interests are carefully guarded and her claims earnestly pushed. The business men of that town are wide awake, and they consider that the interest of the town is their individual interest. It only takes a couple of hours to raise almost any amount of money for a worthy enterprise. With her woolen mills, coast railroad and other enterprises, her population will triple within the next twelve months."

The republican candidate for lieutenant governor in Ohio was elected by a majority of 43 in a total vote of 750,218.

No doubt democrats relishing their Thanksgiving turkey this year.
