Billy.- A fair audience greeted Billy Arlington last evening at the Opera House. Arlington is one of the oldest minstrels in the United States, and though helas seen his best day, does some good work yet, and is exceedingly funny on oc-Those who attended were disappointed in hearing something much better rom Billy than they anticipated. One newly applied joke run about like this. He ad lost a valuable diamond in the sea, and had been swallowed by a whale. The whale was caught.

"What do you suppose was in it?"

"What do you suppose was in it?"

"Why the diamond ring of course."

"No, several Albany real estate men slaying seven-up to see which should pay forthe Oregonian ad."

Mr CE Barrows sang "The Warrior Bold" in fine shape, and was heartily applauded. He has a very pleasant barrow one voice which we hope to hear him on many other occasions. The drill under charge of Sergeant Overman was an interesting feature of the entertainment.

AN ERA OF R. R. BUILDING .- This is great era for building railroads, and though me of the plans on paper sound big they really are only a forecast of what will ome day take place. Our Astoria road is now an assured fact, and here is an ar rangement for another one by the Yauina Republican : For months Salem and Albany have been discussing and planing a railroad to Astoria says the Yauina Republicau. The indications now oint to an early construction of a rord from Albany to Astoria, This would give he people of the latter city direct connec ion to the east and south at Albany. To the east via the Oregon Pacific and to the ity, -shorter, more easily constructed, and Nor SAILED YET .- The storm at the Bay continues, and it is generally reported the heaviest for many years. On account of the manner in which the waves beat over the bar, now deep and In good condition, the Steamer Willamette Valley has thought best not to sail yet, and when she will leave port depends on the condition of the storm.

a neal or point to San Francisco is to build a road through King's valley down the Siletz to Newport, tapping the Astoria & Albany road and the West Side system of the Southern Pacific.

A BRILLIANT MAN,-Silverton has citizen over fifty years old who has resided in the city for the last eleven years and has not been out of town farther than two miles in the whole time, says the Appeal. Does not know of several cities having as many as seven thousand inhabitants. Does not know where Salem and many other large cities are situated.

Two Diren .- The water was let out for the ditch Saturday, showing a pretty ragged bottom, large mossy lumps filling the canal. The new company will clean the ditch the entire length, it is reported, which will greatly increase its power.

HARRISBURG PHOTOS, -- I G Crawford, the artist, will go to Harrisburg the first of December to remain a number of days taking pictures for all who may give him a call. Mr Crawford is a fine artist, as all will say who inspect his work and 'he people in that locality would do we'll to avail themselves of this opperant'y to get fine pictures.

CHEAR. House and lot in the city. Is rented so as to pay good interest on the money laves ed. Quarer blocks in he second avail on, vacant los in the th' o addition. Bergeles in all perus of thee'r. Addition loss, are property and falms losses. E. G. Bergeley, Peul Et ale agent, Bloods bin br. Albray.

KEEP YOU'L EZES OFEN. - Guiss & So. have received a fine line of holicay goo. s such as plush albums, fancy goods, nicel put up ne forme, 'es and an elegant work of a lists good in which there e molting quite a normal speciality. The propose keeping as fine an assortaient as is to be obtained in the city.

AGAR BILK .- A number of the Grand Army boys of Salem have been imposed upon by as impostor, who hails rom the Dalles and sails under the name of Taylor, with aliases to auit the occasion says the Statesman. Upon his advent in Salem he applied to D W Matthews for assistance and that comrade failing to make a test rendered the desired aid. Samuel Watkins was also the loser of several days board, F.J. Babenck of some tools and J M Martin of a pair of gum boots, The man pretended to want work, but when a job was found for him he studi-ously avoided his friends and disappeared when an opportunity was afforded. He is tall and wears chin whiskers. His badge is that of chaplain. Other lodges are warned against him.

All Swill, a Salem Chinaman was arrested and fined $5 for beating a horse in Salem this week. Had the offender been a white man with a vote, no attention would have been paid to him, in all probability.—Silverton Appeal.

The above happened in Albany, instead of in Salem, and, if Ah Swill had been a white man, and as brutal, he would have been nabbed just as quickly. Twenty white men are arrested in Albany to one Celestial, and there has never been a Mongolian arrested here who didn't de-serve to be. That's Albany's style. Color or nationality has bothing to do with the matter.

THE BILL OF FARE .- The following bill of fare will be served at the W C T U Hall on Thanksgiving day, by the V L's Dinner commencing at 11 o'clock. Turkey, chicken, tongue, ham, goose, cranberry sauce, jelly, salads, potatoes, baked bears, turrips, corn, pickles, cheese, mince, pumpkin pie, cake, tea, coffee. All for 25 cents. Ice cream, 15c extra. There will be an ice cream social in the evening in the G A R Hall. An interesting program has been prepared and all are invited.

AN EDITOR WAYLAID .- The editor of the Salem Journal was waylaid Sunday night by a tin horn gambler named George Woods and his wife, on account of an article that appeared in that paper. The cou-ple were arrested and duly fined. The editor managed to save a whipping by using his tongue until some policemen ar-

ON THE RIVER .- The Orient was in the city to day, and loaded with a large cargo of baled hay at the wharf of the O R & N Co. The river is now in fine condition Co. The river is now in fine condition for boating, and all navigating the river are doing a live business.

FILL IT Ur .- Albany can't afford to have an ad. runnning in the Oregonian "this space is reserved for Albany Oregon."
It does nt look well. The chizens committee should fill it up with something.

Now For THAKSGIVING .- Our readers will take notice that Mr Conrad Myer will be prepared to supply one and all with cakes and ples of all kinds, and especially, mince ples of the finest kinds for Thanks-giving day. Don't fail to leave your or-

THANKSGIVING NOTICE. - All those de

A SEASON FOR GIVING .- This has been one of the most prosperous years in the history of Albany, and, as a result, our citizens generally are feeling in remarkably good spirits. It has very properly fit them for a generous holiday season. Even the DEMOCRAT has become affected, resulting in many longing glances into the aiready well stocked stores of the city. And there is some satisfaction in feasting ones eyes. The large and elegant stock of holiday goods at Foshay & Mason's has particularly astonished us; but it is suggestive of the growth of the city and offer a splendid field for all kinds of pocketbooks. It seems much larger and more complete even than in the past. The counters are piled higher and lower and the quality of goods is in keeping with the times. Their stock of albums is simply elegant, and the prices are astonishingly low; their line of tollet cases, dressing cases manicure cases, glove and other portfolios surpasses anything ever seen in the city; their long show case filled with perfumery,in fancy settings, probably is as fine as any in the entire state, being complete in the choice of the stock; their line of fancy articles, Christmas cards, etc., is well selected; their case of gold pensoffers a desirable present. There are ink stands in fancy designs, brush holders and a thousand and one articles not even a newspaper man can remember; but as compicuous as anything is their splendid stock of holiday books, probably the best in the valley, piled tier on tier, and consisting of the latest and most desirable books in literature. You can buy a set now about as cheaply as years ago you could buy a single volume. All together nothing like the present stock of holiday goods, both in quality and quantity thas ever before been seen in Albany, if in the valley, and our citizens should by all means inspect their goods before buying. fine as any in the entire state, being com.
