

The Democrat.

From our regular correspondent.
WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8, 1889.

Chief Justice Miller has consented to deliver the address to congress when it celebrates its centennial Wednesday. One hundred years of Congress is a theme that almost any man could become eloquent over and the people are expecting something great from the Chief Justice. Admittance into the Capitol is to be by ticket only, and already it is almost impossible to obtain them.

The nomination of Judge D J Brewer, of Kansas, to be associate Justice of the Supreme Court was a complete surprise to everyone here, except the Kansas Senators. It was hardly a welcome surprise either to many republicans. The fact that Judge Brewer is a rampant prohibitionist adds nothing to the popularity of his nomination. There is no opposition to his confirmation, which will probably be pushed right through.

Senator Voorhees is "loaded for bear" on the tariff question. He offered a preamble and resolution in the Senate setting forth the fact that all existing tariff taxes on foreign merchandise should be so revised, repealed or amended as to provide: First, for the collection of a sufficient revenue to pay the expenses of the Government, economically administered, the principal and interest of the public debt as they fall due, and liberal pensions, but not a dollar more; second, for the taxation of all articles of luxury at the highest practicable rates and for the reduction of taxes on all necessities of civilized life to the lowest possible rates consistent with a tariff for revenue only; third, for the curtailment and overthrow as far as possible of all monopolies in trade by the enlargement of the free list. Mr Voorhees gave notice that he would at some future time call up the resolution and address the senate there on. His speeches are always worth listening to.

A deluge of Federal election bills have already been introduced in the Senate. It is safe to predict that none of them will ever pass the House.

The Civil Service law seems in a fair way to catch it from both parties in the Senate. Senator Vance has introduced a bill for its repeal, and Senator Paddock one removing the Railway Mail Service from its jurisdiction. Both gentlemen state that the law is a humbug, and that its strict enforcement would be directly in opposition to our whole system of Government. When two men usually as far apart as these two agree, there is food for thought in the subject of agreement.

Ex-Speaker Carlisle takes back his old place of democratic leader on the floor of the House, with as much ease and grace as he had when to accept the speakership. No one ever had a stronger hold on the party associates in Congress than Mr Carlisle has.

Of all the evils here below
There's nothing we can scan,
That sickens like the manish girl,
Or worse—the girlish man.

General Grant's old farm just out of St. Louis has been sold, but the log house built by him in 1857 will be removed and preserved as a relic.

The merchant who at this season sits in the back end of his store and growls because he has no trade, while his neighbors all around him are hustling to wait on their customers, is the man who will tell you that advertising is simply a waste of money. He deserves pity.

It seems the irony of fate that Emin Pasha should have passed safely through the dangers of the Dark Continent and then have his skull fractured by making a mis step from the porch of a hotel. The dangers of civilization are more numerous than those of the wilderness.

The hog packing industry has assumed large proportions during the past few years. It is estimated that there were only 1,800,000 hogs packed at the leading hog markets of the country in 1876, while the total pack in eight months this year have been 6,775,000.
