CHANDLER'S ELECTION SCHEME.

Senator Chandler cannot be happy unless he is spoiling something by his meddling methods. He cannot spoil the United States navy any longer by making it part of a political machine and he is going to do his best to spoil our election system by introducing divided control into election management instead of allowing all elections to be held as heretofore under State laws.

The bill introduced into the Senate by him recently is an exceedingly vicious measure. Under its provisions ten voters in any Congressional district in the country may call for the appointment of a distinct set of election officers for the purpose of holding Congressional elections. It doesn't require the gift of prophecy to understand that upon the passage of this law the ten voters will be found to make the necessary affidavit in every district if for no other reason than to compel the appointment and payment of the proposed Federal election boards.

The Senate should consign Senator Chandler's election bill to an early and very deep grave. There is no call for a new Federal election law of any kind at present, much less for the very vicious and expensive measure which Senator Chandler cannot busy himself about better legislation than this the Senate should busy itself in sitting down very hard upon his schemes. It will save the Supreme Court the trouble.

Now and then we see in the dispatches "Better Mail Facilities For Oregon". Well they are needed badly enough. But there is something else needed, and that is that railway clerks be compelled to attend to their duties more faithfully. Every few days the mail from North on the express is carried by this point and brought back to us next day. The mail service in Oregon is worse than it has ever been. It is no uncommon thing now to receive mail marked "missent" when the address is a printed one. Let the evils be remedied in the interest of the people.

Stanley is still the hero of the hour, and extensive preparations are being made in London for his reception. The Royal Geographical Society is taking the lead and will entertain the famous explorer at a banquet in St. James' Hall. English publishers are competing for his coming book, and one offer of $200,000 is reported to have been made.

A spirited contest is now going on in Missouri between Senator Vest and Governor Francis as to who shall be the next United States Senator. Senator Vest is much more alarmed at the probability of the republicans carrying the state than that Governor Francis will be able to defeat him for the senatorship.

There were twelve million more pounds of tobacco and snuff, twenty-three million more cigars, and two hundred and ninety million more cigarettes produced in this country in 1889 than in the preceding year. Over 66,000,000 cigarettes were exported.

All the breweries in Chicago are about to pass into the hands of the London, England, syndicate which recently bought the Omaha breweries.

Packing companies with a capital of over $100,000 each have recently been organized at Oskaloosa, Iowa, and Portland, Oregon.

All the barrel wire factories in this country have gone into a wire trust. They will operate from all the large cities.

Every acre, every bit of property conveyed to aliens who have no intention of becoming citizens is a standing menace to our liberties. The question may be pertinently asked: Where shall our surplus millions find investment if we part with our birthright for foreign gold? Once let foreign capitalists get a firm footing here and it will soon be found that there is an alien hand on the throttle of every American engine and a foreign pilot at the wheel.

Billy Emerson, king of burnt cork minstrels thinks that minstrelsy has reached the height of tinsel elaboration and that to hold on to the attention of the public it must revert to its old time simplicity. It will strike the average patron of this sort of thing that Billy is about right.
