LOCAL RECORD

GRANGE MATTERS.—Grangers of Linn county take notice. At a regular meeting of the Linn County Council P. of H., held with Oak Plain Grange on January 4th, 1890, Hon R A Irvine was selected to receive and forward the relief fund for the benefit of the drouth stricken brethren of the order in Wasco and Sherman counties. Subordinate granges will forward the above funds to Bro Irvine, of Albany. Officers of the Council for 1890: President, F A Kizer. Vice-President, John Scott. Chaplain, F C Doughen. Secretary, Miss Clara McEeklen. Business Agent, Mart Miller. Treasurer, Strauder Froman. Trustees, Alfred Blevins and Jonas Davis. NIM PAYNE, Sec. Pro Tem.

WHEN WERE THEY HANGED.—These freezing snowy days when men can do no work, they collect themselves together around warm stoves and discuss matters of more or less interest. Sometimes these discussions grow heated and warm, and such a one was discussed around the Revere House stove yesterday. The question was, "when were the Chicago anarchists hanged?" Various persons present gave many different dates as the true one. But they differed as men usually do, and the matter was finally dropped up by an agreement to leave the question in dispute to the DEMOCRAT. The anarchists were hanged November 11th 1887. They were Spies, Parsons, Fischer and Engel, Louis Lingg having committed suicide the day previous. The name of the newspaper of which Spies and Schaw were owners and editors was the Arbeiter Zeitung

A DAISY SCHEME.—In this city is a young man who is professionally inclined. He is fairly studious and has a penchant for business. But he likes very much to go to the theater, and he likes, oh, so very much, to take that smiling best girl of his to the entertainment. She lives off several blocks from the business section, and when a new show is advertised and he finds himself pressed for time he writes her a very sweet invitation to attend the theater, put up in a charming envelop, folds it, places a ten cent delivery stamp on it, quietly drops it into the delivery box and a post official promptly delivers it. Oh this postal scheme is so convenient—for young gentlemen with sweet hearts. Dont it.

A DESERVED HONOR.—The present year closes the college course of one of Linn county's talented young men at Princeton, James J Charlton, who will leave the classic walls of that popular college in June. His course from the beginning has been an honorable one, far more than the average honors being conferred on him. Now we learn that he has been elected by the senior class President, and will preside over the commencement exercises in June. He has been elected to deliver the farewell address to the college on behalf of the class, a large one, making the honor the more prominent. Linn county people take a personal pride in the success of their young man abroad.

A O U W SURPRISE.—Last evening the officers of Safety Lodge No 13 A O U W were duly installed for the ensuing term. A very large number of members were present, and when the lodge had about concluded its business a noise as the rushing of mighty was heard on the stairway leading to the lodge room. It proved to be the wives, daughters and friends of the members who had chosen this occasion to show their appreciation of this worthy order. Each lady seized upon a member and escorted him down to the W C T U rooms where two long tables laden with choice eatables, chicken, turkey, pies, cakes hot coffee and tea, etc., awaited the members and friends. Ample justice was meted out to these after which a genuine social time was had in the lodge room.

TENTH YEAR.—Mr N J Henton has just begun his tenth year as Recorder of the city of Albany. In that length of time he has earned the duties of the office thoroughly, until Recorder and office seem a part of each other. The DEMOCRAT at the beginning of a new year returns thanks for many favors extended.

A RUNAWAY.—Last evening one of the dray teams of W E Kelley took a lively spin through the streets, going down Feery, and first finally stopping at the lumber yard, with out any damage done. It is said to have been the longest runaway in the history of Albany, the hard frozen streets being conducive to rumbles.

AN ELOPEMENT.—The following appears in the Macleay column in the Shilverton Appeal: Mr Oscar Eoff and Miss Carter (his mother's hired girl) eloped last week and were married. They returned home, and Oscar is sick a bed.

New cream cheese just received at Conrad Meyers.

New council called to order and duly sworn in. Present—W H Garrett, G W Smith, CG Burkhart, B F Tabler and L W Deyoe. Mayor Cowan then read an eloquent as well as sensible, inaugural address, one which might well be used as an immigration document, so well does it express our interests, as well as indicating our needs. On motion it was ordered published in city papers, and referred.

COMMITTED SUICIDE.

SPECIAL TO DEMOCRAT. EUGENE CITY, Jan. 1890.—Last evening as the Eugene local train was entering the city limits a man concealed by a clump of bushes jumped on the track in front of the engine and was instantly killed. A coroner's verdict was that it was suicide. The name of the man was Christy. He was a young man about 28 years old and was a stranger.

UNGRATEFUL.—A few days ago a tramp called at the residence of a gentleman living in the eastern part of the city and asked for something to eat and expressed a willingness to saw some wood for a meal. The gentleman gave him a job of sawing wood in his woodshed, which he performed well and promptly. He ate a hearty meal—enough for two ordinary men and went his way. A few nights after the gentleman heard a noise about his house and on going to the window he saw the same tramp climb over his gate and go into his woodshed. He loaded his shot gun and went out and saw the tramp getting over the fence to leave. He shot at him but the tramp was confident near by ran for dear life. On examination it was found that the tramp had taken a coat, pair of boots, and a pair of rubbers from the wood shed and slipped them through a fence preparatory to carrying them off. The tramp while sawing wood located these articles and came in the dark to carry them off. Moral: Never hire a tramp to saw wood or feed them for they generally spy out things to steal.

DOWN A HAY SHUTE.—While working in his barn Dr. S. G. Irvine accidentally fell down a hay shute with a quantity of hay, striking the corner of a manger, and it is feared injuring him internally, if not breaking a rib also.

TEN DAYS ONLY.—Ho, ye business men, listen to the voice of the most conservative and successful men of our town. Buy an acre of land in Albany's addition to Astoria, which to-day costs you less than $25 per lot and which will double in value less than one year. Now don't be a gump but buy it now. For further information inquire of the OREGON LAND COMPANY.

Dr. M. H. Ellis, physician and surgeon Albany, Oregon. Calls made in city or country.

ON THE SOUTHERN BOUNDARY.

Mr George Smith and wife, of Missouri are visiting Mrs M A E Smith at present. Mr Smith is a brother of the late Hiram Smith and is said to resemble him very much.

Frank Moore, of Portland, spent Christmas with his relatives here, the family of Mr Irvin Macy.

Miss Clara Tilton came home from Monmouth to spend the holidays.

Miss Clara Philpot, who has been attending school at Albany, spent the holidays with home folks.

Jennie Bowley has been visiting friends here for the past two weeks.

A dancing party at Percy Smith's, one at Mr Alloghnan's and the ball at Young has claimed the attention of the young people the past week. A musicale at Mr Bill Grimes on Saturday evening will probably wind up the holiday gayeties.

There was a light fall of snow here on Thursday last.

Miss Maggie Boyman has been spending a week with friends on Lake Creek.

Frank Taylor spent Christmas with relatives in Marion county.

Miss Alma Allingham will go to Eugene next week to attend the sisters' school there.

MILL CITY.

January 5th, 1890. Rev. Mr Holbert preached here at the City House at 11 o'clock, and had a large attendance. The Christian people of this little town were rather surprised to see the minister here to-day as it was not the day he had set for church; but the congregation was wiser at the closing of the sermon, when they had the pleasure of seeing Mr W D Garmon and Miss Karrey Stewart united in the holy bonds of matrimony. Miss Marion Crable was the bridesmaid and Mr John West the groomsmen. The bride looked very handsome, and was dressed in a beautiful green. A nice dinner was served by the bride's mother. It was one of the nicest affairs we have witnessed in this little thriving city. Miss Karrey Stewart has been a resident of this city about a year, and Mr W D Garmon has held the position of telegraph operator for the O P Co.

OAKVILLE.

The Y P S of C E held their semi-annual election on the evening of Dec. 31st. The officers for the next six months were as follows: President, Otto Stone; Vice-President, Wesley St John; Secretary, Sarah Morrison.

On New Year's morning Otto Stone left for a short visit to his grandparents in Benton county. He arrived there about one o'clock p. m. and about two o'clock was accidentally killed. Otto is greatly missed here by all who knew him, and especially the young people. He earnestly contended for the right, and if there was any doubt that a thing was not right he would not take any decided steps until he had asked the advice of others, and he chose as his counselors men of good judgment. There is vacant a place in the Sabbath school, the church and the home. "Shall the dead, to life returning, raise and sing thy wonders, Lord? Shall the grave thy love be learning, death thy faithfulness record?"—Psalm 88, 7.

AMICUS.

ELLEFARD AND BROPHY.—This dramatic organization arrived from the South to-day and are quartered at the St Charles. A Georgia court has decided that patent medicine proprietors are peculiarly responsible for all the injuries inflicted by their nostrums. Heretofore, the patients have had to pay doctors to cure them after taking the patent infallibles.

Yesterday we mentioned the fact that Conductor Kennedy, of the O P had the Russian gripe. One of his friends explains it as follows: He recently acquired possession of the finest water agate on the coast, and that reminded him so much of the time that he spent all night on the sand beach hunting water agates that he got the shakes.

The Democrat is glad to observe that the Salem Building and Loan association is improving. At its meeting last evening twenty one and seventeen months interest in advance was not bad. When the demand for money for building purposes there increases, and they learn to understand the workings of the association bids will go up to fifty and sixty months; as they do in all large cities.
