CAL RECORD

LET.—There promises to be a large morrow night to witness Bandin the famous play of Hamlet. It tten our citizens have an opportur witness so eminent an actor in so play, Shakespeare's masterplece, in this play that Harpers Magazine I his acting as effective and powerof his acting as effective and power-lamilet is an intensely interesting in itself and is ful of good parts, amilet alone; but Horatio, Laertes, in, Pollonius, the grave diggers, the the King all attract an increasing ion. It is certainly a treat to see t, particularly when so well cast as troop.

RABBIT HUNT.-Umatilla com w storm was a mild affair as a jack killer compared to the following the Prineville News: "A match curred on Thursday of this week n Ora Poindexter and John Temon one side, and Perry Poindexter we Stewart on the other side. The went together in one vehicle, Leslie went together in one venicie, Lesile repool acting as wagon master. Ora exter killed 50 jack rabbits and his it, John Templeton, killed 41. Dave it killed 57 rabbits, while his partner, Poindexter, killed 43. The four it, it will be seen, killed 191 rabbits. If this a masterly day's hunt."

DAY NIGHT,-The Salem Journal as follows about the Russell-fewell o be here Monday night : "Those sid not attend the performance of rond" last night by the Russell-Jewmatte company will regret it exceedwhen they learn to-day that it was the very best dramatic performances iven before a Salem audience. In particular was it first class. There no sticks for actors, every man and in the caste being so far above the try as to be termed fine."

t Willamette Valley has had snow th this winter for good sleighing and the cold weather to make good ice for ummer's use. That's about what had here.—Princeille News.

, they had enough snow in Dakota ighing and ice to put up. But there fferent degrees of these things, and egree in the valley is very small, so that we didn't catch the ride, nor see e put us. An old Crook county man he never knew a Prineville paper to he truth about the weather.

is Rotten.-The members of the rican Building and Loan association lbany, have now abandoned pays in the same. 35 shares of stock held here and $277 was paid to the ern. The members think they will 175 back. The association has been rn up to be very rotten and has been on a villanious plan, and there is talk appressing it. The truth is the plan out the same as all national associas, and it is not safe to invest in any of h. Deal only with local associations, the are known to be safe.

E CENSUS .- The census takers will business June 1st. It will require or eight men in Linn county, and aldo the work. It will of course be of t importance that they be men who Thorough and reliable. As the time is rly here and the census will be rushed till be in order not to do much boasting ill after its completion, and then some allities should have their excuses well e results attained were greater than even the most sanguine expected. It is now and that the road will be here by the specific for facted September, 1891, for William Reid has agreed to give bonds for its impletion.—Transcript.

LL-PROPORTIONED. -Patri gets $5,000 ight for singing, and many men think nselves fortunate if they can get that ount in ave years, and it takes many ten are to earn it. One night to ten years, e difference is too great; but it films what a peculiar world this is,

GREAT MEN SECURED.-The Salem Journal is to be run in a metropolitan style. It has just secured an editor in chief. Ernst Hofer, who comes with a recommendation from Senator Allison of Iowa as one of the leading young men and journalists of Iowa, and A F Hofer, jr., who has the recommendation of the great and only J S Clarkson. Mr Mitchell will be city editor. It is really a strong team, The above reminds the writer that when he came to the Coast several years ago he had six or seven soaring letters of introduction from some Eastern Honorables to Stephen J Field and some of the other boys. He felt so small beside the recommenda-He felt so small beside the recommenda-tions that he locked them up and they are under key now. He's been striving for vears to deserve them and if when he is-fifty years old he approaches the hub he'll publish them. It is a great deal better to go up, even like a snail, than to offer a chance to go the other way. Of course, though, the Hofers will keep ascending as far as the ladder will permit. Not many runes left though.

rungs left though. NEVER SAW IT .- The Statesman's discussion of the bridge question has awaken-ed Albany and she is already talking of building a bridge across the Willamette. The DEMOGRAT looks longingly at Salem's The DEMOCRAT looks longingly at Salem's bridge and pronounces the Statesman's remarks on the subject as being "dry and cynical" and says Albany is actually not jealous of Salem's magnificent prosperity. Good, The truth is, a free bridge would be a grand thing for Albany.—Salem Statesman.

As a matter of fact we do not think the correspondent in the DEMOCRAT ever saw the Statesman's bridge discussions That paper should have its hands full several are ambitious to be the ones of taking credit for Salem's prosperous movements without claiming credit for every idea of progress among its neighbors ugh and reliable. As the time is You'd better go to work on the railroad subscription before it dies entirely,

A QUEER INCIDENT .- Some time ago we mentioned the fact that about forty or WILL BE THERE. Saturday night's fifty men and boys were seen throwing ating of the Board of Directors of the stones at a wild duck near the depot, that the same duck was killed yesterday, one of the boys hitting him on the head with a same duck was killed yesterday, one of the boys hitting him on the head with a WHOLESALE STEALING.

Two Drain Girls Rob their Employers.

About three months ago two girls, Hatie and Kate Mattoon came from Drain Station to Albany and secured places to work in private families, for some reason or other only working a short time in each place. Among other places they worked for Capt Phillips in Benton county, CA Curran, F M French and F J Miller. A couple weeks also Hattle decided to return home and did so at once. She was then working for Mr Miller and her sister was then at Mr French's. On her going home Kate took her place at Mr Millers, leaving Mr French's for the purpose. Last Saturday Kate, on short notice, left for her home at Drain, leaving two trunks at Mr Millers, one a new one recently purchased and made arrangements for Mr Miller to forward them on Monday, Sunday Mrs Hiller failed to find any of her gloves, and on investigation missed several things. Suspicion immediately fell on the Mattoon girls, and the trunks were opened, Inside three complete suns of Mrs. Millers clothes were found, also a beaded sack, gold locket, books, gloves, etc, in all of the value of over $150, and a large quantity of things not belonging to them. Mr French was notified. Not suspecting anything wrong he had notdiscovered any losses, and hence was surprised to find in the trunks, hence was surprised to find in the trunks, dresses, crockery ware, jewelry, children's play things, etc. belonging to his wife and children, and still several rings, jewelry, clothes, etc. remaining in the trunk, the property of others they had worked for, the two trunks using packed full of stolen property. Among the effects were several letters from flattle to Kate, in which she advised her to steal everything, she could, mentioning different things, among others a piece of flannel for their organ, some books, as the ones she had at home were just splendid, etc. As quite a number of additional things have been missed it is probable Hattle took them home with her. As a sample of the brazenness of the girls on going home Hattle told Mrs. Miller that she had five white skirts on, and asked her if they looked bunchy. On being told that they did she took off some of them, and they were nearly all Mrs. Millers. On account of the tender age of the girls it was decided not to make any arrests. It is bad enough to implicate the girls in the matter. Some though, think they are not the only ones in Drain privy to the transactions. The case is an unfortunate one, but the Democrat is here to give the news, and as it gets it from head-quarters the facts can be relied on. dresses, crockery ware, jewelry, children's give the news, and as it gets it from head-quarters the facts can be relied on.

Will It Stor .- The Marshai has very roperly ordered the Celestials to quit selling lottery tickets to white men, but it anybody thinks that white men will stop buying tickets in Chinese lotteries they will find themselves mistaken. They have been doing it for years here and elsewhere and will probably continue to, using more caution. So far as this goes though,gambling is gambling, whether done in a saloon facing four aces, or in a Chinese den facing spots, or facing spots on little cubes anywhere, or in putting dollars into Louisiana where, or in putting dotters the tousants of the property tickets, for which there is a regular agency here. The history of gambling is interesting. It was done thousands of years ago and has never been stopped yet, and whenever one head of it is cut off another like the fabled monster springs out again. Of course it is wrong; but no one has ever learned how to ston it. has ever learned how to stop it.

AT THE ASTLUM.-Caleb Davis, a pioneer of 53 died at the insane asylum on Jan. 21, at the age of 69 years. The deceased was taken there from Pleasant Hill, Lane county about two years ago. Mr Davis esided in Linn county for several years. His son J F Davis, of Harrisburg. ook the body yesterday to that city for burial. The deceased was at one time a man of considerable means, but he went as security for several of his friends, and they failed, and he lost all he had. He grieved over the matter until his mind be-came deranged. He had been married three times and the father of twelve children, eleven of whom survive him.
