LOCAL RECORD

OTHELLO.—There has been a general desire expressed here to see Bandmann in Othello, and in order to gratify the desires of many of our citizens freely expressed that famous play will be presented on Thursday night. It will be a treat for our citizens, many of whom have never had the privilege of seeing it. Mr. Bandmann is said to be a power as Othello. Mr. Heubner is at his best in Iago, and Miss O'Connell as Desdemona has few equals. A full house should be the result. Our citizens already know so well the ability of this troupe that an extended notice is unnecessary.

WATCH.—At the Paris Exposition a Florentine watch of a diameter only a quarter of an inch in diameter. It has not only the two regular hands, but a third which marks the seconds, and a microscopic dial which indicates the days, weeks, months and years. It also contains an alarm, and on its front lid or cover an ingeniously cut figure of Saint Francis. Albany people watch Conn Bros store for bargains in groceries and crockery ware and are never alarmed, for they receive universally good treatment.

IT IS SOLD.—The other day the DEMOCRAT mentioned the American Building & Loan Association as a rotten concern. The next day a worthy citizen rushed in to the office of the Secretary of the Albany B & L A and inquired.

"What's the matter of the Albany Building and Loan Association. The DEMOCRAT says it is rotten."

The Secretary explained matters and the worthy citizen departed satisfied that our local association is in the valley of the most solid institutions in the world. Moral—Look twice and do not jump at conclusions.

DIED IN IOWA.—Mr P P Chaffee and family left Albany two or three weeks ago for Pennsylvania. They stopped off at Hawden, Iowa, where Mr Chaffee was taken with the grippe and died four days afterwards on the 14th instant. Mr Chaffee, who resided here several months was a hardworking industrious man and was a member of the Masonic lodge.

DIDN'T WE welcome our exchanges? Yes, even though the winds of early January were blowing through the whiskers of some of them on the day that they started out to find our sanctum.—Baker City Revellie.

This reminds us that we received about ten Revellies in one day, a good sign of the extent of the blockade. Ugh.

A CHINOOK.—This has been the wettest day of the season, there having been a continual downpour. An old timer says it is a genuine chinook and will knock the snow in the mountains out in short order. A big rise in the river may be looked for. At present there is about ten feet.

A BUSINESS CHANGE.—Dr I W Starr has sold his interest in the drug store of Starr & Chusick to Mr G C Starnard of Brownsville, and has purchased the drug business of the latter at that city. Dr Starr will move to Brownsville and Mr Starnard to Albany. Mr Starnard is a live young man and will make a good citizen.

LOST.—Somewhere in the city of Albany a Board of Trade. When last seen was somewhat emaciated; but had a good frame. As spring is coming on and a live year in Albany is anticipated it will be needed in business and anyone who has seen or heard of it will confer a favor by fattening it and returning to the owners.

MADE TO CUT.—When buying an axe get the best, one that is durable as well as sharp, and the price to do it is at Price & Robson's, who also have a fine line of wedges, etc.

A BRIGHT IDEA.—We refer to the large set of line of saws and carpenter's tools at Price & Robson's. The best in market and at the lowest.

ABNEY'S ADDITION.—54 lots in this addition to Albany, near Hackleman's 3rd addition, for sale, at $25 to $125 a lot, at Curran & Montelith's.

TAKE AIM.—When wanting anything in the gun line, shot, rifle or revolver, call on Price & Robson. They carry a first-class stock, and as well a full line of ammunition and will not be undersold.

A PECULIAR ACCIDENT.—A very peculiar accident recently happened at Corvallis. The six months old boy of J P Brandon had been placed in a small rocking chair in front of a fire place, and the mother had stepped into the wood house after fuel to start up the fire. While so doing, she heard the child begin crying in a muffled tone. On going into the room she discovered it had fallen forward and its face and one hand were imbedded in the hot coals. It was immediately rescued from its terrible position and medical aid called. The face from below the eyes down was horribly burned, also the hand. For awhile it was thought that the hand would have to be amputated, but the doctor thinks it can be saved.

EXEMPT PROPERTY.—In Oregon the following property is exempt from execution: Musical instruments, books and pictures $75; household effects, $300; clothing, $100; and clothing to each member of the family, $50; team, tools, instruments or trade or profession of debtor, $400; ten sheep two cows, five hogs, three months provisions. No exemption is good against a claim for purchase money; no homestead.

BAD FOR STOCK.—Mr Jason Wheeler has just received a letter from his son Frank at Camp Polk on Squaw Creek which tells of deep snow, for forty days bare ground not being seen. Stock was suffering and where not fed at home was dying fast. Mr Wayne Claypool had already bought $800 worth of hay for his 600 cattle and 100 horses and it was about all gone. The outlook was dubious.

PEELING AN ORANGE.—An attractive piece of Crayon work may be seen at the drug store of Mr G L Blackman. It is that of a boy peeling an orange, the background of the scene being black. It shows good execution. Miss Grace Trumbull was the artist. The DEMOCRAT is pleased to see the large amount of interest being taken by the young people of the city in art. Time thus spent is well utilized. Remember that "the best can paint who feels the most." How do you feel?

"They laugh that win."—OTHELLO, Act IV, Scene I, see Bandmann Thursday night, and not only laugh but be instructed.

AT THE SCHOOLS.—The attendance at the public schools has been reduced considerably by the epidemic of colds, called lagrippe, and the smaller schools, as well have suffered. Miss Wheeler's Kindergarten ten the attendance at which is generally about twenty-five is taking a vacation this week, Miss Wheeler herself now being ill, and Mrs Mead's, with a customary attendance of fifteen or twenty, is down to six or seven. But lagrippe is going and soon schools and things generally will be running in the old or bigger new channels.

GOING. seats for Othello Thursday night. Everybody wants to see it. Only 75 cents for reserved seats at Blackman's.

The following from the Pendleton E O is a pathetic incident of the deep snow era. "A lady, Mrs W Duff, and child, had a narrow escape from death Thursday night. They were passengers on Hunt's train, and intended to stop at Fulton station. Before reaching that point the bell-cord was accidentally pulled, and the train stopped, several miles from nowhere. Thinking Fulton had been reached, Mrs Duff left the train which started on. A severe storm was raging, and she wandered about with her little one until she became utterly exhausted. Fortunately a gentleman had seen her leave the train, and had induced the train to stop. She was found in the nick of time, the train being backed nearly a mile, and the mother dead, but alive, but rejoicing at her rescue, was helped on board."

This is the night that either makes me or foredooms me quite.—OTHELLO, Act V, scene I. Bandmann—Thursday, Oct 7.

FROM ASTORIA.—Mr R F Ashby is home from a trip to Astoria. He reports considerable movement there in the real estate market. New additions are being laid out every few days and speculation is the order of the day. Mr Ashby went over the field and saw many rugged sights, additions like Smith's at the Bay, level—vertically.

A NEW DISCOVERY.—Hubbard's Headache Capsules. They are a positive cure and fill a long felt want.

MODEL MEN.—Baker City's new policemen will have to be model men. They cannot enter a saloon or other buildings except on business, cannot drink, cannot swear or use abusive language and can never be disorderly. All the requisites of a newspaper man or lawyer.

Three men were arrested at Tulare, Cal, this morning charged with the recent train robbery near that city. They were heavily armed, and denied the charge, but circumstances were said to be against them.

All I ask is an honest comparison of my prices with those of other dealers.

DOTYVILLE.

As you have no correspondent from this vicinity I thought perhaps a few lines might be of interest.

The people generally here have been afflicted with the influenza or grippé, but nothing fatal from it yet.

Uncle Martin Prince, an old pioneer of this county, is dangerously ill at the residence of his daughter, Mrs Alice Deakins. Said to have dropsy of the heart.

Mr John W Gaines last week purchased the county right for Linn county to sell the improved rein holder, patented by J D Young, of San Marcos, Texas. It is the boss line holder yet invented.

Stock of all kinds wintering well thus far.

Married at the residence of Mr Henry Kinzer, on Jan, 18th, 1890, by J H Peery, J. P., Mr O E Dentrick and Lillie M Kinzer, both of Linn county.

The snow on the ground during our cold snap saved our fall sown wheat.

Politics beginning to loom up. Several candidates for the various offices of the county are out in the forks, to-wit: A F Beard for Sheriff, Alexander Montgomery for Co Treasurer, Jesse M South and Mr Michaels are candidates for Assessor, all subject to the will of the Democratic Co. Convention.

"There's beggary in the love that can be reckoned."—Bandmann in Othello Thursday night.

Children Saved from Severe Sickness.
 Dr Holden: I notice by the papers that you are placing your valuable Ethereal Cough Syrup before the public. It is a charitable act. I have used it in my family for many years, to my satisfaction. I believe the use of it in time, to my children, has saved them from sickness.

RBLANE
 Large size $1.00, small 50 cents. For sale by H C Hubbard, Druggist.

PROF. H. C. PALMER'S Conservatory of Music, Twocedals' block, First street, Albany, Oregon, opened January 20th, 1890. Students graded to insure equality in rendition. Prof Palmer is the only recognized successful system known for a thorough musical education. Send for circulars and references. Office hours 1 to 3 p. m.

UPS AND DOWNS.—Some of the principal ups and downs in business life is to keep quality up and prices down. This is being done very successfully at LaForest & Thompson's, and those dinner sets to be distributed among our customers. Jan. 1st a creating no little interest as well as our prices.

KID GLOVES.—I have just received an invoice of the celebrated P. Centemeri kid gloves in black and colored. These with the other brands I handle, Foster genuine hook and Our Own brand, makes an assortment that any lady can be suited in prices and quality. These are all first-class goods and warranted as represented.
 SAMUEL E. YOUNG.

A VERDICT.—That the grand display of eat, ornamental baskets, each containing one pound of choicest tea, at LaForest & Thompson's, is the finest importation ever brought to Albany. This tea is basket bred, pure and of rich flavor. We offer it at the astonishingly low price of 40c

 Mr C L Buck returned last night from a trip to Iowa and is now prepared to make Albany his permanent home.

Among the best advertisers in Baker City, are Luderman & McGrath. Commercial men say they are doing a fine business.
 Dr W H Rowland has formed a partnership with Mr L C Stratton, of Milers in the management of the Pacific Medical Co's business.
 Dr E G Beardsley has just completed decorating his real estate office, including electric lights, and it is now an attractive place.

Mr Emmett, father of J P Emmett, of McCoy, died at Albany last Saturday, and was brought to Bethel for burial Sunday.—Dallas Observer.
 Mr James Murray has returned from a trip up the Columbia, and in a few days will take charge of the Exchange Hotel. Jim is a rascal in the hotel business.
 Pendleton now has a cow ordinance. All live cattle have. There is no better sign of mossback than cows running at large in a city large enough to put on airs.

Mr E C Phelps has just opened a new job printing office on First street, over W F & Co's express office, and is now ready for business. Give him a call for fine work.
 The Russell-Jewell Dramatic Co presented Lynwood last night to a fair house. The company is a good one, and in this thrilling military drama displayed some very clever acting.

Every evening keeper in Albany was notified last evening not to sell Mr W H Greenwood intoxicating drinks, and some at least had an opportunity of refusal if his request, and did so.
 Mr Wes Shannon, the horseman, who has been Salem since the State fair, ill with typhoid fever, returned to Albany this noon, looking pretty thin; but on the improve.
 Mr Backensto, the gentleman who purchased the Jones lot on Main street last fall, was in town the fore part of the week. He was accompanied by his father, who was looking at Dallas property.—Dallas Observer.

The rains have not yet raised the Calipoola sufficiently to bring the logs up by Crawfordville down the creek, and Mr Meyer who has a large quantity thinks it doubtful if there is sufficient water for the purpose.
 Choice cloaks are now being offered at 60 cents on the dollar at Sample rooms opposite the Revere House. Remember we are here for a few days only. See ad in this issue. A good cloak man wanted.

They are telling of a Salem man, says the Grant county News, who asked two boys to carry half cord of wood from the sidewalk up a flight of stairs to his office, and when they had finished the task handed one of the lads a nickel, with instructions to "divide it" between them.
 Mr B Selling left last evening for Albany, to attend the funeral of his brother, Mr Isaac Selling, who died Friday at that place. The deceased was a wealthy merchant of Albany and a prominent and influential citizen.—Pendleton E O. This must be an error, as no such prominent merchant has resided here.
