

DAILY DEMOCRAT.

ACROSS THE MTS.—Oats are $1.25 a bushel at Brownsville.

It is a matter of much difficulty to select beef from the range that will do to masticate.

The snow of last week (most of it) is still with us, but the weather has perceptibly moderated, and we expect that it will not remain much longer. The extreme cold on Tuesday and Wednesday nights. Tuesday night especially, was a wholesale destroyer of stock.

Stock of all kinds dying. Cal. Smith has lost between 2500 and 3000 sheep; T. M. A. J. Parish, of Shoo Fly, reported loss over 2000; Messrs. Saltzman & Mealey are losing a good many.

COMING THIS WAY.—Mr. H. F. Childs, of Primeville, gave us a pleasant call today. He has sold out his business in Crook county and is en route to the Willamette valley. Mr. Childs was formerly a resident of this city, and worked for the O. R. & N. Co. He went to Primeville in 1883, and engaged in merchandise, and has accumulated a competency.—Dallas T. M.

CHILLED PLOWS.—Those wishing plows will make a mistake if they do not call on the Mitchell & Lewis Co. and examine their large assortment of Gale chilled walking plows. Some of the superior qualities of these plows are the adjustable handles, the draft is always direct, the standard jointer is used, which keeps the plow always in line. By all means call and examine them.

KEEP YOUR EYE.—It would be well for farmers and others to keep an eye on the large and varied supply of agricultural implements which Mitchell & Lewis keep on hand, and the large number of new buggies and other spring vehicles which they are now receiving at their place of business, on Second street, near Schmeer's livery stable. You should by all means call in and examine their stock, as they feel safe in saying that they can make you better terms than any other house in the city.

KNOCKED IN THE HEAD.—A barrel of fine sauer-kraut and pickles. We have also opened a lot of fine Smyrna figs, Persian dates, oranges, lemons, dried peaches, apricots, &c. Willamette Packing Co.

Try the full cream cheese at C. E. Brownell's.

Some fine honey looking for customers at C. E. Brownell's.
