HOME MARKET HUMBUS.

The republican at the central committee in its calls for a state convention say: "All voters who favor the republican policy of American markets for the product of American labor," etc, are invited to act with that party in the coming election. This home market jibberish is a bigger humbug than Barnum ever imposed upon the American people. Every citizen is in favor of a home market if it is a better market than a foreign market, but he will favor (that is he will trade in,) a foreign market if it be better than a home market. Would the republican committee compel every American to buy and sell in the American markets regardless of the advantages offered him by buying and selling in foreign markets? They would not dare say they would, and if they would not, then all this sentimental flourish about the "home markets" is the silliest kind of nonsense. The American farmer has been promised the American markets for his products through the use of a high, protective tariff. Well he has always had it without regard to the tariff. But what is the American market for wheat, corn, beef, and pork worth to the American farmer if it be not influenced by the foreign market? Where is the market for the farmer's wheat, corn, flour, beef and pork if not foreign? Suppose the farmer had no other market for his wheat, corn, flour, beef and pork but the American markets? The price of these articles would fall at once below what they are now, ruinously low as they are. The foreign market seems to be the best market the farmer has notwithstanding we have had a blessed high tariff for twenty seven years.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS

An Oregon Cyclone.

PENNINGTON, March 7.—A special to the Tribune from Wilbur station says: The inhabitants of Wilbur station had the pleasure of witnessing a regular Dakota cyclone, which passed over about 3 o'clock this afternoon, crossing Meacram creek in a northeasterly direction, and for a few minutes the heavens were clouds with trees and branches.

Made Fun of It.

WASHINGTON, March 7.—The recent investigation made by the senate to ascertain how the newspapers got hold of the secrets of execution sessions, was started by Senator Dolph, of Oregon, who introduced the matter and was made chairman of the "inquisitorial committee," as it was called by the men on Newspaper Row. Of course the investigation has created no end of amusement and amounted to nothing.

A Life Long Democrat.

NORTH YAKIMA, March 6.—Captain A. F. Hodges, an old pioneer, died this morning of consumption, at the residence of his son in law B. Chapman. He was born in Ohio October 13, 1817. In 1843 he immigrated to Iowa, and the following year crossed the plains to Oregon, arriving in Oregon City in 1844. He worked at the carpenter's trade as contractor with Colonel Nesmith for several years. In 1849 he returned to the East by the isthmus, the steamer to New Orleans, where he purchased the machinery for the first line of steamboats placed on the upper Willamette river, which he shipped by way of Cape Horn to Oregon. While East he was appointed superintendent of Indian affairs for Oregon, and in 1852 recrossed the plains to Oregon.

A Wedding Quarrel.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., March 6.—John Willis a man highly respected in McLean county, married Mrs. Effie Plank on a couple of days ago. At the wedding supper a discussion arose between them as to religion, and grew very warm. Things grew unpleasant and the company withdrew one by one. Mrs. Willis became furious and refused to retire the bridal chamber. Every entreaty failed, and the woman sat stock still in her chair until daylight. She then set out for her former home, refusing to be accompanied by anybody. The minister of her church has endeavored to get her to return to her husband, and the latter has offered never to mention religion again in her presence, but she refuses to entertain any proposition looking to reconciliation.

Chicago Equal to It.

WASHINGTON, March 6.—"We have had a satisfactory meeting," said Chairman Chandler, of the house world's fair committee to-night, after a conference between the committee and a delegation of Chicagoans who arrived here to-day. "They have satisfied the sub-committee," he added "that they have a bona fide subscription of $2,250,000 to begin with, every dollar as good as cash. They also satisfied their ability to raise the $10,000,000 guaranteed by Chicago altogether."

KID GLOVES.—I have just received an invoice of the celebrated P. Centemerd kid gloves in black and colored. These with the other brands I handle, Foster genuine hook and Our Own brand, makes an assortment that any lady can be suited in prices and quality. These are all first-class goods and warranted as represented.
SAMUEL E. YOUNG.

CENTER TABLES.—A large and elegant shipment of center tables, in new designs finest stock in the valley, just received at Fortmiller & Irving's.

NEXT.—New and best place in town is Gilson's new barber shop in the Froman block, next door to Fortmiller & Irvine's. Best barber in town.

A Woman's Discovery.

"Another wonderful discovery has been made and that to my lady in this county. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its cruellest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she could scarcely stand and could not sleep. She bought of us a bottle of Dr. Ross's New Discovery for Consumption and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night and with one bottle has been miraculously cured. Her name is The Ladies' Lot. This sister W. C. Hamrick and Co. of Albany, N. C. Get a free trial bottle at Foshay and Mason's Drug Store."

Smoke the celebrated J. J. Cassin's mild cigars, manufactured at J. J. Cassin's cigar factory. Only 5 cents.

The Verdict Unanimous.

W. D. Bull, Druggist, Bismarck, Ind., writes: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles, and was cured of rheumatism of 15 years' standing."—Albany Daily Democrat, Belleville, Ohio, writes: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my 20 years' experience is Electric Bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the Liver, Kidneys or Blood. Only a half dollar a bottle at Foshay and Mason's Drug Store."
