

LEBANON.—Prof. H. C. Palmer, teacher of the conservatory of music in Albany, was in town Wednesday. He will instruct the newly organized cornet band.

The board of trade held a meeting Monday night. Some of our business men will, no doubt, organize a building and loan association the coming season to meet the demands of an incoming population.

Messrs. James and Robert McCaustland, formerly from Iowa, but recently of Salem and Albany, were interviewing our real estate dealers this week. The above named gentlemen are like scores of other immigrants, at least in one respect, they want some Oregon soil and doubtless can be suited.

The meeting of the Elite Literary society called together last Friday the talented young men of Lebanon to discuss the military ability of Generals Grant and Lee. The decision was rendered in favor of the negative. M. A. Miller, one of the disputants in the discussion, is rejoicing over his victory.—Express.

BROWNSVILLE.—Four hundred dollars special tax and the bonding of the district for $2000 was voted for without a single negative vote. It was unanimous. A. Leroy was elected clerk and W. B. Blanchard, director, instead of J. M. Howe.

Mr. W. R. Kirk returned from Portland Monday evening. He started for Eastern Oregon, but while in Portland met his brother, T. J. Kirk, from Athena, who informed him that if he wished to do business he had better wait till things thawed out over there. Everything frozen up and business is paralyzed.

Rev. C. Sperry met with a very painful accident Wednesday afternoon, while carrying a plow to the blacksmith shop. He had gotten as far as the high side-walk on the south side, when the end of the plow caught on an upright piece of timber that had been placed there as a brace to the walk, throwing him off the walk to the ground, about eight or nine feet below. The plow hit in such a manner as to cut a terrible gash across the instep and front part of his foot.—Times.

CRAWFORDSVILLE.—Mr Henry Chance and wife, of Cottage Grove, arrived here Monday. Mr Chance will take charge of the saw mill above here.

Mr. Patrick Farrell left here last Wednesday morning for his home in Eugene. He has been here for a month teaching the band. The boys liked him very well and learned some fine pieces of music. They are playing 3rd grade music.

Mr. J. H. Glass took charge of the Post Office last Friday. Mr. Moses, the retiring P. M. kept the office for four years, with credit to himself and the entire satisfaction of the patrons.—Cor Times.

DELAYED WOOLENS.—Zaches & Son merchant tailors and grapers, opposite Post Office, have received notice that the two large shipments of woolens consigned to them are soon to arrive. It will be to your interest and advantage to examine their stock before purchasing, as they anticipate the largest and finest grade of spring and summer goods in foreign and domestic delicacies ever brought to Albany.

STOCKINET AND JERSEY JACKETS.—Just received a new supply. I think the best ever shown for the money. SAMUEL E. YOUNG.

A BRIGHT IDEA.—We refer to the large assemblage of saws and carpenter's tools at Price & Robinsons. The best in market and prices the lowest.
