LOCAL RECORD

A BOOMING AD.—The following, published in the Jefferson Review, though an ad., contains so much good-natured boom for Albany...

FOR SALE, one block in Albany, Oregon, situated at the junction of the S P and O P railroads. All the trains going south on the S P come to a full stop on the property...

AT COST.—Having purchased a drummer's samples, consisting of ladies' and children's muslin underwear, babies' fauntelroy caps and hoods, infants and children's slips and dresses, etc., etc., and receiving on the same a great discount, I will offer the same to the public at their wholesale price...

HIS FIRST R R RIDE.—R. Grier, of Alsea, came to Corvallis on Tuesday last to see the sights. He is a man whose age has reached the seventieth notch, and the ride he had on the Oregon Pacific train on the above day was the first one he ever took on a railroad...

STRAWBERRIES.—A Benton county gardener tells us there will not be more than half a crop of strawberries this year, and that the damage by high water was considerable to the gardens—more than was at one time anticipated. The crop will be late.

THE DELIVERY BUSINESS.—Dr. I. N. Woodie has opened his livery stable and will run the same as well as the delivery business. Parties having complaints against the latter will please report to him and he will see that the business is run as it should be, to the satisfaction of the public.

FANCY WORK.—A fine line of fancy work just received at G W Simpson's, banner rods, India silks, figured and plain, a large assortment of embroidered material and a choice variety of fancy goods generally. An elegant stock to select from.

DELIVERY WAGONS.—Eight delivery wagons were congregated at the Democrat corner at one time this morning. With so many in the field our citizens ought to be able to get their meat in time for dinner.

FAREWELL PARTY.—Last evening a very enjoyable farewell party was tendered Miss Minnie Guise, at the house of her father, Dr. Guise, in anticipation of their departure for their new home at Woodland. A pleasant time was had by the large company of young people present.

NEARLY EVERYBODY GOING.—Such a general desire to hear a concert company as has been expressed in reference to the Levy concert has rarely been known here. The reserve sale has been large and Friday night there will be a rousing house.

FAIR DEAL.—Five lots in this beautiful tract were sold yesterday and orders for more are coming in. Nice homes are being built on this property. The lots are for sale on the installment plan, and every one is a bargain. You will miss it if you wait. E. G. BEARDSLEY, Agt.

BETTER.—Mr. Wm Churchill, injured by the runaway of Saturday, is gradually improving, and his many friends will be glad to learn he now stands a good chance of coming out of the accident all right.

LADIES OF ALBANY AND VICINITY.—Ida M Brush having just returned from Portland wishes to announce to her customers that she has received her full stock of spring millinery direct from the East. Will have all the latest styles both eastern and western at prices lower than ever sold before. Opening 3rd and 4th of April. All are cordially invited to attend.

DR. PATTON treats successfully all diseases of women and guarantees to cure all curable private diseases. He has a sure remedy for catarrh of the head. He keeps in his office and answers city calls by night. Consultation is free and everything is strictly confidential. He is to be found in his office in Blumberg's block from 10 to 12, 2 to 4 and 7 to 8.

WARRANTS.—A large and fine line of warrants at G W Simpson's at your own price. Try it.

CROOK COUNTY.—During the week 24 sheep owners of the county have been interviewed regarding their losses during the winter, and from their statements it is learned their loss is a little over one-third. Last fall the gentlemen who were interviewed owned 68,200 head of sheep, and they report a loss of 21,750. Though this is not a good basis on which to calculate the average loss of the county as some of the heaviest losers have not yet reported.

B F Childs returned last Sunday from Willamette valley, though we regret to learn his stay will be of short duration. He and his family contemplate moving to Brownsville in a short time, where they will make their future home. Cal Smith, of Bridge creek, is probably the heaviest loser by the winter of any sheep raiser in the county. Last fall he had about 11,000 head and he has lost all but about 2,000.

OVER A COUNTY ROAD.—Along the upper Santiam on unsurveyed government lands, are not less than 300 actual bona fide settlers who have been located there some of them for years. To assist these men this county located and constructed that is known as the Minto trail and wagon road up the Santiam into Eastern Oregon and have since been at considerable expense in keeping it open for travel. The Oregon Pacific railroad company without a shadow of authority located their line of road over the road and trail so located and worked by this county and rendered the same impassable either for wagon or pack trains, the citizens have time and again protested against this act of usurpation by the railroad company. Their protest has been ignored both by the railroad and the county officials whose plain duty it is to look after the roads of the county.—Correspondent Salem Journal.

Then the correspondent says it was permitted by Republican officials, and though he and everybody else up there are Republicans they will vote for Democrats if necessary in order to get this great wrong righted. A war is promised. The subject is an interesting one.

WHO IS SUPERINTENDENT.—Mr. E. W. Hadley, of Chicago has been appointed superintendent and assistant manager of the Oregon Pacific. Mr. W. H. Pettibone, who was announced as appointed, will, we understand, return East. For reasons that are private the matter was disposed of in this way. Mr. Hadley is a man of experience, and his family, consisting of a wife and four children, are already at Corvallis.

WILL TELL PA.—There was an emphatic difference of opinion on the street last evening between chief of police Barry and Mr. Deady, of Portland. Mr. Deady made some statements relative to what would happen as soon as his papa returned from the Sandwich Islands, a state of alleged affairs concerning which the chief expressed striking doubt.—Astoria.

TWO CAR LOADS.—Price & Robson have just received two car loads of wagons and buggies, light and heavy, and will sell them at remarkably low prices, considering the splendid quality of the wagons.

FARM SOLD.—Mr. Otto Serling has sold his farm in the Forks of the Santiam, consisting of 280 acres, to Mr. Noel Claak, of Boston, Mass., for $3500. Ashby & Neil, agents.

LEAVE ORDERS.—Orders left with Arch Blackburn, of Spencer & Blackburn, for meats from the market of Halght Bros., will be promptly attended to and delivered as well as orders left at the shop.

Two more large bills of choice millinery just received at the Misses Billa; flowers, laces, ribbons and Neapolitan hats. Also a nice assortment of children's school hats.

Get a seat for Levy.

THE LAST CHANCE WITHOUT MORE MONEY.—Only thirty more lots to be sold in the Wasson's addition. A large flour mill has just been located across the railroad and adjoining the Wasson addition, and when thirty more lots are sold the balance will be taken off the market until the first of July, and no one will then get a lot unless they commence building in thirty days. W W Beck.

FIKJ JUBILEE SINGERS

NEW ARRIVAL.—A large and complete stock of carpets, linoleum, oil cloths, shades, etc., at the store of A B McIlwain, all of the latest designs, and which will be sold at from 10 to 20 per cent lower than by other houses.

MILLINERY.—Mrs S A Wayne wishes to say to the ladies of Albany that she is on hand with a new and well selected stock of millinery, which she assures them can not be surpassed in style and elegance. She can be found at the St. Charles until she can make suitable arrangements for a store, as she wishes to locate here permanently.

THURSDAY EVENING, APRIL 3

You can save many a dime by trading at H C Hubbards new drug store. Try it.

BEFORE GLADSTONE.—Rev Newman Hall, in the New York Independent (condensed from "The Story of the Jubilee Singers"), says: "I wish Americans who are troubled by color prejudice had been present yesterday to see Mrs Gladstone and her daughters, and the noble lady and ladies present, taking their Negro friends by the hand, placing them in chairs, sitting at their side, pouring out their tea, and conversing with them in a manner utterly free from any approach either to pride or condescension; but exactly as if they had been white people in their own rank in life. * * * Then all the party being gathered in the drawing-room, the Jubilee Singers entertained us with their wonderful music. Never shall I forget Mr Gladstone's rapt, enthusiastic attention. His form was bent forward, his eyes were riveted; all the intellect and soul of his great nature seemed expressed in his countenance, and when they had finished he kept saying, 'Isn't it wonderful! I never heard anything like it!'"

The Oregonian speaks as follows of their entertainment in that city last night: "A splendid audience greeted the Fisk Jubilee Singers at the Marjannum Grand opera house last night on the occasion of their first appearance in this city, and they went away at the close of the clever entertainment highly delighted with their evening's amusement. The natural and inimitable harmony of the genuine negro melodies, sung by negro singers, will never lose its charm for lovers of pure music, and the appreciation of the audience last evening was evidenced by enthusiastic encores of every number on the program. The company, which is now in its nineteenth season, has been carefully chosen, and the voices harmonize admirably while every number sung was marked by the greatest precision. The selections were varied and well chosen, and were given with characteristic vigor." At Opera House Thursday evening; admission 50 and 75 cents.

It is a frequent remark of strangers who visit Pendleton that we can boast of more pretty girls than any town in the Northwest. Strange, isn't it, that our marriageable young men always go elsewhere to seek better halves.—E. O.

No, not strange. It simply shows that there is nothing in the claim of beauty. A beautiful girl need't go away for a husband. Albany rarely allows an outsider to intrude, though a few serious cases are on record.

FASHION NOTE.—The tea jacket is a comfortable fashion which is considerably favored just now. The waist of a tailor-made gown may be removed at tea time and replaced with one of these dainty jackets. Get your tea of Conn Bros., the popular grocers, and the fashion will be complete. They keep a choice stock, as well as the best in the grocery line generally.

THREE STORIES.—Messrs. Maston, Sox, Young and Blain, owners of the Cannon corner, have decided to erect a three-story brick on that corner, instead of a two-story building, as heretofore stated. It will have a frontage of 76 feet on Second street, and work will begin on the same just as soon as plans can be drawn and the contract let. This move will be a big thing for Second street, as well as Albany generally.

AN ART STUDIO.—Miss Mattie Martin, of Portland, is in the city, and will open an art studio here. The DEMOCRAT has seen some of her work and is highly pleased at the skill displayed.

WILL DRILL.—The young ladies of the carnival class are notified to meet at the Opera House this evening at 8 o'clock sharp for drill.

10 per cent off on all cash sales for the next 30 days at W F Read's.

FOR SALE.—A good driving horse; work well single or double. Residence on Hanson donation claim. L N ALLAN.

Special attention is called to Mr. G W Simpson's fine line of clothing. Call in time or bargains.

Good cooking stove only $10 at Hopkins & Saltmarsh's.

The Astoria papers are execratingly personal. A paper will often put its feet into the habit without realizing it. Come now, all of you quit.
