BACK PROTECTION FOR FARMERS.

The new tariff bill increases the tariff tax on imported corn, and that is called protection to farmers when the western farmers are burning their corn as fuel because it won't bear the cost of shipment to market.

The farmers who produce corn have some 970,000,000 bushels on their hands for want of buyers at living prices, and yet a tax on foreign corn, that wouldn't come to this market if it could, is shipped free and admitted free of duty, is called protection to farmers.

The new tariff bill increases the tariff on imported wheat and that is called protection to farmers. Our farmers produce a large surplus of wheat that they must sell abroad or next to give it away at home, and imported wheat for our consumption is practically unknown in this country, but an increased tariff tax on wheat is heralded as increased protection to farmers. The farmers who grow wheat have yet unsold 150,000,000 bushels of last year's crop, being over 25,000,000 in excess of any previous year, and yet the farmer is insulted with the promise of protection by an increased tax on wheat that can't be imported even if shipped and admitted free.

The new tariff bill increases the tariff tax on hops nearly one hundred per cent, and that is called protection to farmers. We produce about one-third more hops than we can consume, sell the surplus to Europe and the price of hops, like the price of wheat, is made in London. We import hops, just as we import Egyptian cotton and Spanish iron ores, simply because we must have them to mix with our home products, and a tariff tax on either is no protection to the home producer but imposes increased taxes on consumers. And this is called increased protection to farmers.

When will the farmers learn to resent this costly mockery of the most important industrial interest of the country? Tariff taxes oppress farmers; tariff taxes never protect farmers to any substantial extent.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS

There Will be Trouble.
LONDON, April 2.—The Telegraph's St Petersburg correspondent says: The peasants are rising in Riazan, and blood has already been shed. The agitation is spreading to Finland and Poland, and gendarmes and Cossacks have been sent to quell the disorder. The excitement is intense. Everybody sympathizes with the students.

The O P Beaten.
SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—Judge Finn today gave judgment in favor of Simeon B. Foley for $95,000 against the Oregon Pacific Railroad Company. The action was brought on twelve promissory notes aggregating $115,000, and to foreclose a mortgage on the steamer Eastern Oregon, formerly called the City of Palatka. Defendant resisted payment of the notes on the ground that it was defrauded in the sale of the vessel. The notes were all allowed except one for $20,000, owned by J W Quintard.

Not Guilty.
MONMOUTH, Or., March 31.—The board of trustees of the State Normal school at Monmouth, were convened by the president of the board, Hon Ira F M Butler, Friday evening, March 21, for the purpose of investigating a grave charge of immoral conduct affecting the characters of President D T Stanley and Prof. Doughty, one of the lady teachers of the school. A careful and thorough investigation the charges resulted in a unanimous verdict of not guilty, and the expulsion of the two students making the charges from the school.

The Crusaders.
KANSAS CITY, April 2.—A Farmington Mo, dispatch says: "This morning the crusaders, headed by Mrs Williams and Mrs Foster, opened the campaign. Armed with hammers, they stopped Thompson's beer wagon and smashed six barrels, emptying the beer into the street. The women then took possession of the wagon and started for Lassus, four miles south, where a carload of beer belonging to the Klausman Brewery Company was side tracked. They intended to destroy all of it."

They are Paralyzed.
MILWAUKEE, April 2.—The republicans throughout Wisconsin are paralyzed at the sweeping victory of the democrats in Milwaukee. The result is laid to the bitter fight made by the Catholic priests and Lutheran ministers against the Benett compulsory education law. Many republicans predict defeat of their party next fall if the fight is made on the same lines.

In Rhode Island.
NEWPORT, R I., April 2.—The new ballot law worked easily to-day, but the count of the votes takes much longer than usual. Indications are that the democrats carried this city.
