

DAILY DEMOCRAT.

PRETTY LONG.—An exchange says the longest train ever hauled by one locomotive came into Grafton, W Va, last week. There were ninety-eight freight cars and a caboose and the train was a few feet over a mile in length. Let's see; the distance from Brownsville to the Lebanon Junction is 12 1/2 miles. Last week a locomotive arrived at the latter place, when the passenger coach at Brownsville had not yet turned a wheel. Give the N G credit for 11 miles, 1250 feet.—Express.

BOASTING.—The Statesman boasts of Salem's big cannery, which has the small capacity of only about 100,000 cases a year. It is but a wheelbarrow in capacity to Oregon City's huge cannery, which will have a capacity of 500 cases a day, and intends to put up 50,000 cases of fish in March and April alone.—Oregon City Courier.

KID GLOVES.—I have just received an invoice of the celebrated P. Centemer kid gloves in black and colored. These with the other brands I handle, Foster genuine hook and Our Own brand, makes an assortment that any lady can be suited in prices and quality. These are all first-class goods and warranted as represented. SAMUEL E. YOUNG.
