

OAKVILLE.

The Oakville Horticultural association met on the evening of April 2d. Mr G D Barton read a paper on planting and pruning an orchard. A question by D E Junkin, will a new orchard be successful in the same place an old orchard grew? No one could answer positively, but mostly agreed that it would not do.

Dr Leonard said he came to Oregon to stay. He owned a $10,000 farm in Iowa, which didn't bring in ten per cent, and he wouldn't trade ten acres in Oregon for 160 in Iowa. Mr Barton showed how to prune a tree. He said that pruning was an evil, but a necessary evil and could be easily overdone. The society will meet again on the first Tuesday in May, at 7:30 o'clock. At this meeting a paper will be read by Dr Leonard on the outlook for a market for our prunes; also a paper by W H Crawford on the cultivation of small fruits; also a paper on flowers, by Miss Lou Stockton.

The Literary and Reform society met on the evening of the 4th. The question, "Resolved that dancing is wrong" was ably discussed by W H Crawford in the affirmative and D E Junkin in the negative; decision of the judges in favor of the affirmative. There will be no more dancing in Oakville unless some one gets the tooth-ache.

Mr A M Acheson and Elmer Hamilton start East the last of the month, the former to a meeting of the general assembly of the U P church, and the latter to Keokuk, Iowa, and Garnett, Kansas.

Mr Nathan Needham will buy a piece of land and go into the fruit business.

Mrs Mary Locke is quite ill with neuralgic fever.

Several young people from this neighborhood attended the ball at Coburg last Friday evening and report a good time.

The gentle April rains are making it interesting for farmers who are nearly all crowded with spring work.

Miss Clara Philpot has returned home from school at Albany and Miss Alma Allingham has come home from the convent at Eugene. Both will attend district school near home this summer.

RATHER REMARKABLE.—Saturday the county of Multnomah paid to the state treasurer a $128,000, the remaining balance of her state taxes for this year. A few weeks ago she sent in $50,000, making in all $178,000. Multnomah comes in early and is about the fifth or sixth county to pay her taxes in full. It is expected that many will come in during the next ten days.
