

An exchange in another part of the county says "in response to a kind invitation a large party of friends met at the residence, etc."

The increase in artistic taste in Albany has been remarkable during the past few years, a fact the Man About Town views with great pleasure.

The following from the Brownsville Times the Man About Town considers a case of turning the tables in good shape, though we know nothing about the individual case.

An Albany man, who has been doing some figuring, says the total cost of the banners and costumes gotten up for the carnival was about $1500.

If you want to speculate and will compare prices, you will buy in Fair Dale.
