

DAILY DEMOCRAT.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN.

The Man About Town knows of several men in Albany with money lying loose, who, if they would, could make the public dizzy at the sight of public improvements.

Because boys will be boys is no reason why they should go around to neighbors' barns and steal eggs, drop into stores and steal merchandise, deplete on the adjoining country and do other little streaks of meanness of a large and various nature.

If there is a pleasanter time of the year than when the leaves are half grown and the trees are masses of pop corn balls, to be childish, then the Man About Town doesn't know when it is.
