LOCAL RECORD

CHARGED WITH SELFISHNESS.—The Dalles M, quite an outspoken paper, says C P Huntington, recently here, was kind of a man:

C P Huntington, the president of the Southern Pacific, has been making a tour of the valley towns and Portland, at each place the people have turned out en masse to do him honor, the same though he was a benefactor of the people. These railroad men work for the best of themselves, unmindful of the prosperity or woe of the community, and the people show little discernment when they place them in the position of philanthropists or benefactors of a community. As regards railroad facilities Mr Huntington would let the grass grow in the streets of every Willamette city, and by so doing he would further the interests of the company.

FORMER NEIGHBORS.—Several former residents of this part of the state are now before the people for some office in different counties of this great commonwealth on the democratic ticket, among others are D W Jarvis, formerly principal of the Tangent schools, for School Superintendent of Umatilla county; H W Kesee, Linton county man, for County Judge of Klamath county; Dr J E Kirkpatrick, formerly of Scio, for Coroner of Polk county; Arthur Hodges, for Clerk, Ed N Hyde, for Treasurer, and Knox Houston, for Surveyor, of Crook county, all former residents of Linn; Hon L Bilyeu for Representative in Lane county.

ONE OF THE ATTRACTIONS.—Miss Carrie Prina, with Fowler's Tableaux d'Art and Concert Company, is the possessor of a rare sweet voice, and was heartily encored for her singing last night, making a great hit with "Annie Laurie," which she sang in a highly artistic manner, pleasing the audience by speaking the words of the song distinctly, which is something that other good singers often do.—Stockton Mail. At Opera House Monday evening May 5; admission 50 and 75 cents.

TO OREGON CITY.—H L Hatch leaves for Oregon City this morning by steamer Gatley, taking with him the timbers and pipes and tackle necessary to place the steamer Three Sisters in shape to be launched right away, or rather, when the basin is completed, which will be in a week or two. It will be remembered that this craft was landed on the road-way above Oregon City during the high water in February last.—Statesman.

THAT MASS MEETING.—The Board of Trade's mass meeting Tuesday night promises to be one of the liveliest events of the season. The committee have arranged an attractive program consisting of short speeches, music by the band and some patriotic songs by a quartet, and nothing will be left undone to make the evening a pleasant and profitable one.

GET TAKES.—Crawford & Paxton have just taken some fine views of the pupils of the public schools, getting them by departments. They show up very distinctly and parents should order them for their homes. Now is an excellent time for pictures, and the large and elegant display of pictures at Crawford & Paxton's gallery shows that they are doing work unexcelled anywhere.

PICNIC.—The first picnic that the DEMOCRAT hears of being held in the valley occurred yesterday at Hackleman's grove, and consisted of the school children of the Albany public schools. It was a lively crowd and a great picnic time was had. When the DEMOCRAT man was a boy and went to picnics, it was customary to do some fasting in order to do justice to the occasion; but in Oregon people get hungry in four or five hours and such conduct is not necessary.

BALLOT PAPER.—The county clerk has received from the secretary of state 3¼ reams of ballot paper to be used in printing ballots for the June election. The paper is 24x38 inches, and will make 4000 tickets to the ream, or 28,080 tickets of the legal size, which is 4x12 inches. This is an estimate of ten tickets to every voter.

WORTH SEEING.—Mrs Scott Siddons, who will appear at the Opera House on Monday evening, May 8th, is so beautiful a woman that it is a pleasure to not only hear her, but to study her classic figures. Her toilets are each one of them a study in art, and one of Mrs Siddons' peculiarities is that she plans her gowns herself, though they are all made in Worth.

SPECIAL EXCURSION.—There is a big Sunday school excursion to-day from Albany to Mill City. Parties at the former place have chartered a special train on the Oregon Pacific and expect to have a joyable time in the mountains. The Albany band accompanies the party.—Statesman.

WALL PAPER.—I have just received from the east a large invoice of wall paper, borders, decorations, etc., including the plain ingrains which are becoming very popular. These goods are better in style and cheaper than ever before.

FORGOT HERSELF.—An amusing story is told about a Salvation woman, who was selling War Crys in Portland. She went into a saloon on Fourth street, says an Ex, to sell a copy to the barkeeper, but the latter refered her to a prominent lawyer, who is now a candidate for represenative on the republican ticket, who was playing cards at one of the tables. The barkeeper told the woman that if she would pray for the man he would give her 25 cents. She marched up to him, knelt down and offered an eloquent prayer to the throne of grace in his behalf. She then arose and watched the game sor some time. Finally the lawyer lost his jack. The woman suddenly remarked, "there, you've lost your jack haven't you?" The woman saw she had made a break and left.

ALBANY ONE OF THEM.—"This town beats any town I ever saw," said a "Hey Rube" follower of the circus, yesterday. "In what way?" asked the newspaper man, as they stood near the flap of a tent. "Why," said he, "there is nothing but water all around here; there's no wagons, no horses hitched under the trees, no saddle horses, few country people, and no chance to work any game. Every one seems so 'fly.' A few towns like this and a fellow wouldn't have no show at all to make a piece. Now up the valley I could work the crowd right along for from $5 to $15 a day, but I haven't made a cent to-day, and don't expect to."

WHERE money is being made. In the Sound country. I have for sale four lots in the Arlington addition to the city of Blaine. The property lays only one mile from tide water, and is undoubtedly a good investment at the present prices. Corner lots only $60. Inside lots $50. Terms one-half cash, balance in six months. Call at the office and examine the property.

EVANGELICAL CONFERENCE.

EVANGELICAL CONFRENCE, J BOWERSOX, CHAIRMAN.

During the afternoon session of yesterday a statement of the position of this faction of the conference was prepared, setting forth substantially the facts already given, and giving the following reasons for their position:

1. Two applicants for the ministry were refused examination because they answered in the affirmative when asked whether they believed that Bishop Thomas Bowman had been legally suspended.

2. Two men being appointed by the board of missions to the Oregon conference during the year, and as it is customary for the conference to pay one-half of the traveling expenses of such appointees, the majority of the conference agreed to do so again, provided that two other men with proper credentials, and who came at their own expense, be also received into the conference. To this the ex-bishop's adherents, voicing his sentiments, positively refused to agree.

3. Threats were made that several prominent members of this conference would be suspended because they had circulated a religious paper known as the Evangelical, and because they had furnished evidence to the committee, that tried and suspended Bishop J J Esher. All efforts to learn whether these threats would be carried out were met with such replies as indicated that they would be carried out at any cost.

4. The epithet "Publishing house robbers," applied to us by this would-be bishop, we declare to be a base slander, as we demand nothing more than the money appropriated a year ago for services which were rendered during this past year.

These are but few of the many reasons and facts which we might place before the public, and which have influenced us in taking the position we do.

We ask for nothing but what is right. We demand that our convictions be respected and the laws of our church be obeyed by our church officials, as well as by the ministry and the laity, and we know that a thinking public will approve of our course in standing like men for what our consciences and our convictions hold to be right in the sight of God.

CONFERENCE REPORTER.

CORRECTION.

Whereas, in a report from the ex-Bishop Bowman's conference published in the DEMOCRAT of yesterday, it was stated that the sentiment of the conference was pretty evenly divided with reference to the authority of the suspended bishop, therefore I, John L Hershner, Secretary of last years conference, and Secretary of the Evangelical conference this year, declare that the roll of conference members included the names of 16 ministers, 5 of whom constituted the Bowman faction, while the balance, 11 in number, organized the Evangelical conference, which is now in session in the M E Church South of this city.

J L HERSHNER

EVANGELICAL CONFERENCE, T. BOWMAN, CHAIRMAN.

During the afternoon session the following resolutions were passed:

WHEREAS, A number of our brethrens withdrew this morning from the conference without any just or reasonable cause, yet as this conference is disposed not to act in any harsh manner, therefore

Resolved, That we recommend that H J Bittner and M Burlingame be appointed a committee to wait on those brethren and in the name of the conference assure them that if they will return to the conference either in a body or as individuals they will be dealt with in a Christian spirit and reasonable manner providing they will return at the opening of the morning's session.

The two Presiding Elder districts were then consolidated into one district, called Portland district. H I Bittner was then elected as Presiding Elder.

I B Fisher was elected conference trustee for three years and N Shupp for two years.

L S Fisher, of Portland, was elected as conference treasurer and N Shupp, of Independence, treasurer of the Missionary society.

SATURDAY MORNING.

After the opening of the conference in regular order the standing committee reported.

The committee on worship reported as follows, which was adopted by the conference: Evangelical church, H I Bittner this evening, 7:45. Ordination sermon Sunday morning at 11, Bishop Bowman. Missionary meeting Sunday evening, Bishop Bowman. 1st Presbyterian church Sabbath evening, N Shupp. M E Church, Sunday evening, J E Stoops. Christian church, Sunday evening, P Bittner.

The committee appointed to wait on the brethren who left the conference at the opening of its session, offering conciliating measures, reported a hearing was not granted.

The following was passed:

Whereas, Statements have been made in the public press in reference to the so-called suspension of our bishop, Thomas Bowman, of Chicago, Ill., therefore

Resolved, That we, the Oregon conference, most respectfully requests the bishop on next Monday afternoon, at 2 p. m., to make a full and detail statement of the cause leading to the present opposition in the Evangelical church, and the facts connected with his so-called trial and suspension.

2d, That we most earnestly solicit the Evangelical members, public and local reporters of the press to be present and hear the statement.

The conference then adjourned until Monday at 2 p m.

Making all Ends Meet.

At Sunnyside, four miles south of Salem, the Oregon Land Company has a force of men and teams at work planting sugar corn between the rows of trees in its hundred acre orchard. This corn is for the use of the cannery. By this enterprise the Company finds employment for several of its small tract purchasers who have to hire out till their farms get to bearing; it also helps the cannery along in its opening year; and the cultivation of the corn keeps the orchard thoroughly worked over. Here are three good ends attained, beside the profit that may be derived from the crop.

People who are Easily Deceived. He has Caught Eight so far.

A city druggist stated that he had had eight calls for Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla but had sold his own every time. It did not occur to him that it might be a serious matter to give his old time mercury and potash preparation to people who do not need syphilitic treatment. It is safe to say that not one person in ten have a syphilitic trouble. Hence what do they want with such dangerous minerals as mercury and potash? What nine-tenths of our people are troubled with is indigestion, dyspepsia, sick headaches, constipation and face eruptions, all of which are the legitimate results of improper liver and kidney action, or impaired digestive organs. Those disorders do not call for syphilitic treatment, but for mild vegetable liver, stomach and bowel alteratives. We are surprised that intelligent people should be persuaded into taking a mercury and potash sarsaparilla. When you ask for Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla, see that you get it.
