A BOOMERANG.

The other day the Oregonian in its usual bombastic style went out of its way to say some very depreciating words about the democratic party of Oregon, when Barney Goldsmith, chairman of the democratic state central committee answered as given below. Barney's a brick:

PORTLAND, May 5.—[To the Editor]—The Oregonian of to-day contains a short editorial devoted to the democracy of this state. The article is composed of only sixteen lines, and as every line is a misstatement of facts, I feel it my duty to reply to it. Some of the tremendous and gorgeous words used in the article frightened me when I first read them, but upon consulting Webster, I find that they only sound big, but that there is really nothing in them. In the article you say "In Oregon this year there is no democratic campaign. Everything else is being abandoned, and Pennoyerism is the sole stock in trade." Allow me to inform you, the democratic campaign in Oregon is now in progress; that it will be actively and vigorously conducted, and that it will be conducted differently from the mode and manner in which the republican primaries at Portland were conducted, for particulars of which please read the Oregonian of the day subsequent to said primaries; and let me tell you that not only will the democratic campaign in Oregon be vigorously conducted, but it is my opinion that after the democratic campaign closes, the people will give such a verdict as will send some of your friends to that secluded locality where the breezes are laden with pungent odors exhaled from the river Saline, their worldly possessions diminished, but their experience enlarged, sadder if not wiser men.

"Pennoyerism is the whole stock in trade." Well, Pennoyerism is not a bad stock in trade. With us Pennoyerism means an honest, efficient and economical administration of the affairs of the state. It means protection of the people's rights and the people's interest against the aggressions of political bosses, schemers, boodlers and wealthy cormorants. This is a good enough stock in trade for the democrats and for a good many republicans.

How will our stock in trade compare with that of our opponents? I pause for reply. I beg to attach hereby a small sample of our stock in trade, showing the condition of the common school fund after three years management by a democratic board, in comparison with the management of it by a republican board: The fund, including certificates of sale and all other items, amounted in

January, 1885, to $ 868,735 16
January, 1887, to 1,059,409 10
January, 1889, to 1,756,700 00
January, 1890, to 1,995,995 23

The earning power of the fund, measured by the amount actually loaned and not including certificates of sale, was in

January, 1885, to $ 733,268 62
January, 1887, to 781,437 63
January, 1889, to 1,428,071 14
January, 1890, to 1,568,071 14

In July and August of each year, the revenue derived from this fund has been distributed to the several counties of the state, in aid of the public schools.

The amount received by each county, is in proportion to the number of children of school age in the county. The following is a statement of the distribution for five years past:

Year.	Per Capita	Total Distributed.
1885	$ 75	$ 59,046 75
1886	99	74,571 30
1887	1 00	87,217 00
1888	1 25	108,217 50
1889	1 30	130,387 20
1890, estimated	1 60	153,000 00

Pretty good sample of stock in trade. We can furnish you with many more such samples. Our stock in trade is clean, free from blemishes and defects, can that much be said of the stock in trade of others? You are pleased to say, "There is no effort to do anything else but elect Pennoyer, everything else has been abandoned for Pennoyer, and on election day every other candidate on the democratic ticket will be traded for Pennoyer. The democratic party in Oregon has ceased to exist, etc., etc." To me it is simply astonishing to see into what errors great men often will fall, for the result will show you that the democratic party not only has not ceased to exist, but that it is very much alive, too. You will find that the democratic candidates will not be traded off for Pennoyer; there is no inclination to do so, and there is no necessity for it, as Pennoyer is so overwhelmingly the choice of the people that he will have votes to spare, and plenty of them, at that. Our stock in trade as you call it, and our capital stock, which you say consists in Governor Pennoyer's peculiar personality, both of them suit us. I honestly believe it would not hurt your side any if they had some of it. Respectfully yours,

B GOLDSMITH,
Ch'n Democratic State Central Com.

§ § § § Thompson was in the legislature of this state in 1870 when a memorial was introduced requesting our representatives in congress to use all the means in their power to secure the annulling of the Burlingame treaty under which the Chinese were then swarming into this country in vast hordes, and under which they were entitled to all the privileges of the most favored nations of Europe. DaSid voted no on this memorial. He was then, and doubtless is now in favor of opening our door and establishing a kind of "free trade" in Chinese immigration. Voters should think of this on the day of election.
