

LOCAL RECORD

It is very important that our citizens make some arrangements at once to give all the immigrants who come here to work by the day steady employment. Those who come to build up a new place, but find that day laborers can not find this a paradise. It could not be so.

The above from the Eugene Register is keeping with some remarks made at the public meeting of the Board of Trade, and shows the condition of affairs generally throughout Oregon. There is not enough for day laborers to do the year round. We need more material industries in Oregon for laborers coming to this country who are willing to work.

BEATS REAL ESTATE.—A party of engineers came up from Tillamook yesterday by way of Seaside. They have been surveying and supervising former surveying government land on the Nehalem, and are now returning to Salem. One of them, Engineer Singleton, a bright blue steed, brought a horse, a bright blue steed, for sale. He kept the animal with him all through the campaign, and yesterday sold him for $30. Afterwards a man told him he would have given him $50 for the steed. What's the matter with some one having a whole boat load of $10 ponies in Salem and bringing them down here?—Astorian.

SHOWED FIGHT.—They live in the suburbs, two women. A neighbor considering them somewhat demented made out a complaint for their arrest for insanity. The proper officers went out in a hack to arrest them but were met by a resistance that was startling. One of the women appeared with a large butcher knife, the other with as long a tongue. Of course, being women, the officers could not proceed against them as they would against men, and a different plan to get hold of them was resorted to, to be put in force in the morning. In the meantime the complaint was withdrawn, it perhaps being thought it was not all insanity.

SIDDONS TO-NIGHT.—The Colonist, Victoria, B. C., says: "Mrs Scott Siddons, the justly famous tragic elocutionist, in no way disappointed those who were present in Victoria last evening to listen to her readings. Her dramatic power has lost none of its old-time force, her voice retains its sweetness and adaptability, to the expression of every phase of passion, and her stage presence is just as when she first astonished the world with her ability to interpret the thoughts of the greatest dramatists that the world has known." Seats at Will & Links.

AFTER FOUR YEARS.—Mr Charles Knott, who left Albany about four years ago for California, has returned to the city to reside. He was in the butcher business here for many years. The change along First street was quite a revelation to him.

WHO BUILT THAT BLOCK?—He said looking at the Flinn block, with a surprised look. "And that one, and that one," and sure enough Albany has gone ahead in the last four years.

A HIGH CITY.—A letter from William Wright, the artist, dated at Port Townsend, received by an Albany man, announced his arrival there and that he began business as head draughtsman, with five men under him, for one of the railroad companies there. Port Townsend has 45 saloons on one street, and single furnished rooms rent for $20 a month. Everything else in proportion.

A BOYISH DISPUTE.—Two Portland men had a dispute over which was the right bank of a river, and even a reporter could not decide. The answer is in all the old school readers and any boy with average sense can answer it.

FROM HERE TOO.—C. G. Rawlings, local agent, sold fifteen tickets for the east by way of the Union Pacific last week, and already seven this week. This would indicate that some people are starting for the east from Albany as well as from other points.

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, That the thanks of Albany Lodge, No 4, I. O. O. F., are due and are hereby tendered to Bro. M C George for the able and eloquent address delivered at our recent celebration of the Seventy-first anniversary of the I. O. O. F., and to all persons who assisted in the exercises of that day.

Resolved, That the Secretary of this lodge be instructed to furnish the city papers a copy of these resolutions for publication.

A New Co.—Articles have been filed with the Secretary of State incorporating the Rock Creek Flume and Lumbering company; principal office, Gatesville, Marion county; incorporators, Don A Smith, W J Wiggs, Trieman Pritts and T J McClary; objects are to carry on the business of sawing lumber and fluming the same from the mill to the railroad and navigable streams, and to manufacture shingles and laths, and building material; capital stock, $40,000; time required 25 years.

WHY LATE.—Judges Strahan and Thayer reached Pendleton before Judge Lord, and got even with that gentleman in the following manner according to the E. O. "Judges Thayer and Strahan explain the absence of their associate, Hon. W P Lord, Monday, on the ground that he had just set thirteen eggs under a favorite hen, and he wanted to see them hatch before leaving to assume his judicial duties."

WILL BE HERE.—Dr F S Locke, the minister appointed by the Oregon conference of the Evangelical association, will be here soon to take the pastorate of the Evangelical church of Albany, of which due notice will be given, so that all may govern themselves accordingly. By request of members of the church.

AN OPPORTUNITY.—An Albany man says he has $20,000 to put into a $75,000 brick hotel, provided stock is taken for the balance. Now, fellow-citizens come forward and show your hand.

FAITH IN SMALL FARMS.—The Oregon Railway Extension Co recently filed at Olympia supplementary articles of incorporation authorizing it to build 300 miles of new lines in the northwest. Thus one movement complements another. Some cautious souls have expressed the fear that the extension of the fruit raising industry in this region would overstock the market, and here we have facilities to be provided that will allow us to reach out for a more distant market in all directions. The Oregon Land Co has faith in its small fruit farms, and to show its faith by its works has just planted an orchard of too acres to retire to when all the land hereabout is sold.

LADIES MUSLIN UNDERWEAR.—I have just opened the largest line of muslin underwear I have ever carried, and have marked them to sell at the least possible price. They can be handled for. Infants dresses from 50 cents to $3.25 cash; full size, full length; no china make, all white labor, guaranteed to be equal if not superior to anything in the market for the price. Also infants caps and coats. SAMUEL E. YOUNG.

WHERE MONEY IS BEING MADE. In the Sound country. I have for sale four lots in the Arlington addition to the city of Blaine. The property lays only one mile from tide water, and is undoubtedly a good investment at the present prices. Corner lots only $60. Inside lots $50. Terms one-half cash, balance in six months. Call at the office and examine the property. E. G. BEARDSLEY, Agent.

ALBANY MARBLE AND GRANITE WORKS. Having lately purchased the stock of S A Riggs and G W Harris, we shall be pleased to show designs and give prices to all intending purchasers. Best of workmen employed and prices as low as any first-class work. Visit us before purchasing elsewhere. EDWIN & ACHESON next door to Democrat office Albany, Or.

OUT CALLING.—When out shopping call on Spencer & Blackburn. They will return the compliment by calling at your home every morning and take your orders for anything you might wish in the grocery or vegetable line at the lowest possible prices.

MONMOUTH NOTES.

Monmouth can boast of a hook and ladder company, one having been organized last week.

Huntington was met by a committee from the board of trade, Sunday, as he passed through. He promised to repair and make this a good road.

Rev Byers, lately from Nebraska, is trying to raise a subscription to build a Methodist church.

Supt McElroy and State printer Baker were in town last Friday, and gave the seniors a call. They were shown over the building by Prof Powell.

The senior class is nearing the close of the final examinations. We think they must be getting along nicely, we do not hear of any tears but all seem hopeful. The state is pretty well represented this year in the class. Ten gentlemen and eleven ladies representing ten counties and Washington; four came from Linn county.

The Normal dedicatory picnic will be held in the grove on the college grounds, May 23. Several prominent speakers will deliver address; among them Supt McElroy and the governor. Besides the usual program Prof Tutbill, education teacher, will recite, and Miss Porter, of Linn, and Mr Stanley, of Crook—who have been chosen by the school, will deliver orations. JOHN L. ALLEN.

OAKVILLE.

The Horticultural Association of Oakville, which met on the evening of the 6th, was favored with a short address on small fruit by Hon W H Crawford, late of Dakota. He said strawberries were the best of fruit for politicians, to keep them in a mild temper.

Mr Johnson White made a lengthy speech, but finally gave it up that it would take him longer to tell what he didn't know about small fruits than what he did. A Y Smith made a few remarks about the gooseberry.

Prof John E Love was in Oakville last week. He is selling school charts and other things of that nature, but his visit to this place was probably on other business this time. Come again, John.

The Y P N C E will give a picnic at Hamilton's Grove, on Saturday the 17th inst. The exercises will consist of recitations, essays, dialogues, vocal and instrumental music. Come everybody and bring your children. You can depend on a good time.

LITTLE ROSE BUD.

Hoping that the friendly feeling which has existed may so continue in the future, and praying that I may be a blessing to your city so long as I stay among you. Trusting that I may have the co-operation of the Christian people of Albany and the love and esteem of all our citizens, I am humbly your servant and brother, I B FISHER.

If you don't read your local paper, says an exchange, you are behind the times, and if you are behind the times people are liable to call you a moss back, and when you get to be a moss back it is time to die.

An interesting episode occurred at the depot last evening. A young man was seen to start on a run, with a valise in his hand, along the opposite side of the train from the depot, going eastward. Some one noticed a police officer that a thief was running away with a valise he had stolen from the cars. The officer started after him, catching him near the O P depot, where he found that he was a highly respectable young man, with his own valise. Being in a hurry he had done some running.

HE FOOLS 'EM.

People who are Easily Deceived. He has Caught Eight so far.

A city druggist stated that he had had eight calls for Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla but had sold his own every time. It did not occur to him that it might be a serious matter to give his old time mercury and potash preparation to people who do not need syphilitic treatment. It is safe to say that not one person in ten have a syphilitic trouble. Hence what do they want with such dangerous minerals as mercury and potash? What thousands of our people are troubled with indigestion, dyspepsia, sick headaches, constipation and face eruptions, all of which are the legitimate results of improper liver and kidney action, or impaired digestive organs. Those disorders do not call for syphilitic treatment, but for mild vegetable liver, stomach and bowel alteratives. We are surprised that intelligent people should be persuaded into taking a mercury and potash sarsaparilla. When you ask for Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla, see that you get it. W B ADAMS, FRANK WALLACE
