"OUR BOYS."—Friday and Saturday nights, May 16 and 17, the Russel-Jewell Dramatic company will begin a two nights engagement at the opera house. The Marysville Appeal says: "The Russel-Jewell Dramatic company were very successful last evening in their production of 'Our Boys.' The play is English 'don't you know,' and has much merit in it to recommend it to the theater-going public. It was first produced in London in 1875, and had a run of over 1500 nights. Russel and Jewell, who never associate their names with a poor company, did not advertise them as 'all stars,' but guaranteed they would give satisfaction. Judging by the applause which greeted them last evening they must have quite won over the audience. Sam Morris, who personated 'Perkin Middlemore,' a retired butterman, and Miss Mollie Stockneyer, as Belinda, a lodging house slave, divided the honors of the evening. Mr. Morris has grown to a good comedian and gave a very good representation of the difficult part he had to play. Miss Stockneyer was quite at home on the stage, and her song and dance tickled the audience. David Elmer, as the English duke, one of 'our boys,' was very effective, as was also S. Phileo, who personated the part of Chas. Middlewick, son of the butterman. Individual criticism is not called for as each and every member of the company knew his part and acted it well. We have attended many dollar shows that were not near as good.

CROOK COUNTY.—Within the past few days we have conversed with men of capital who say they will guarantee a subsidy of $10,000 with an additional amount of $10,000 in the way of depot grounds and rights of way to induce the building of a railroad through this place.

The trial of Wm. Page in the next term of circuit court of Harney county, for the killing of Bill Brown, creates considerable interest here, as both parties were well known in this county, both having lived here a number of years.

The stock inspector has inspected the sheep in the northeastern part of the county, and finds that the loss of sheep in that part of the county out of a little over 100,000 head was 31,000.—Review.

FAMOUS HANK.—Hank Vaughn, well known all over the Northwest, was nearly killed in a horse run-up on the Umatilla reservation yesterday. His leg was broken, also half a dozen ribs and he was injured internally. He is at Pendleton and will probably die.—Portland Ex.

CROP PROSPECTS.—An Albany man who has been out through the country, says fall wheat looks fine; but spring wheat is an uncertain quantity. He saw farmers harrowing where the dust was so thick one could hardly see the outfit. Farmers who were prompt, though, got their spring wheat in on time. Some of it has failed to appear; but it is looked for during the month. Apple, pear, cherry and prune trees are all right and promise a bountiful harvest; peach trees, though, were considerably injured and we will probably have to buy Southern Oregon and California peaches, ahem.

SUNNYSIDE FRUIT FARMS.—The Sunnyside tract of farm lands was first put on the market by the Oregon Land Co. in February last, and nearly all of the 650 acres which comprise the tract is sold. A few 10 acre farms remain, and nothing more desirable to the settler of limited means is to be found around Salem. A small fruit farm at Sunnyside will soon become valuable property.

Crawfordville has not yet had its boom, but why should it not come? We have a fine farming country, excellent stock, ranches, mills, timber and water power, health and good society. What else is required to produce a healthy boom? WESLEY.
