

THE DAILY DEMOCRAT.

HAD FLIGHT.

H S Williams for assessor, E J O'Conner for county surveyor, and Frank Farrell for Coroner are all worthy and competent for their respective offices and should receive every democratic vote in the county.

Ed Davis has made a most satisfactory county recorder. Republicans as well as democrats all admit this. Many republicans will vote for "Ed" and his majority will be phenomenal.

J J Whitney made a zealous, industrious prosecuting attorney when he served in that capacity some years ago, and he has lost none of his old time zeal in prosecuting criminals.

G F Russell is a regular rustler and when he takes charge of the office of county school superintendent, to which office he will be elected by a good round majority, he will devote himself to the building up of public schools in a practical way.

Wm Rumbaugh for county commissioner and W E Curl for county treasurer are both competent and fit for the duties of the offices for which they are running and we predict for each a big majority.

J K Weatherford and Jeff Myers candidates for the state senate, and F C Hansard C J Shedd and J F Henry for representatives are all men of integrity of purpose and will faithfully represent the people of Linn county. They can not be captured by the Portland ring.

N P Payne for county clerk and Matt Scott for sheriff are both competent and honest and will be such careful and scrupulous officials as people delight to have to attend to public affairs.

R A Miller was in the legislature when governor Pennoyer vetoed the non-taxable land bill. He voted steadily at all its stages against the bill and worked like a beaver to secure a vote to sustain the veto. He is entitled to the vote of every democrat for congress.

B B Beckman, republican, will speak in Albany May 21st at 7:30 o'clock P M Seymour Condon May 24th at 7:30 P M, and D P Thompson, Phil Metchan and others will be here May 27th at 7:30 P M.

Judge Bonham has served as Judge of the Third District and has served also on the supreme bench. His personal and judicial integrity is not questioned by any man in the state, republican or democrat. Without speaking ought against Judge Bean, his opponent, we have no hesitation in saying that it would be a great credit to the voters of the state to elect Judge Bonham.

HEAR IS MIND.

Remember that Governor Pennoyer will speak at the court house in this city on Friday May 23rd at one o'clock in the afternoon. We understand that large numbers from Scio, Lebanon, Shedd, Tangent, and other localities are making arrangements to attend. Every farmer within reasonable distance should attend and hear the "friend of the people" in their behalf.

THE BIGGEST LIE.

The very biggest campaign lie of the season is one being peddled out to the public in and around Tangent to the effect that Governor Pennoyer said in his speech at Lebanon, that he was in favor of a cheap labor as he could get, especially on public works. We could go on and truthfully say about this report that it is one of the most brazen and unmitigated campaign lies ever set afloat in Linn county. But as there is not an intelligent man in the county who is likely to believe the silly falsehood we content ourselves by saying that the story is a plain, patent falsehood manufactured out of whole cloth by some one whose love for truth has been extinguished. No man ever spoke more earnestly and candidly in behalf of labor people than did the governor in his Lebanon speech. This kind of campaigning will rebound on those who carry it on, as will be seen by the vote polled for the governor June 2nd. The writer of this and scores of republicans and democrats who heard the speech stand ready to deny this silly falsehood.

It is known also that the republican party in delegate convention, which is supposed to represent the sentiments of the republicans of the state, at the state convention placed a plank in their platform (see plank eight) declaring in favor of taxing all property not now exempt by the constitution. Upon this platform they placed Mr Thompson, who stands upon this plank as heavily as upon any other. He has accepted the nomination, and if elected stands pledged against exemption of bonds from taxation.—Plaintester

Yes, the republicans say they are in favor of taxing all property not now exempt by law, but as the proposed bonds have no existence yet, they can not now be exempted by law, so this plank is a mere double-dealing for the purpose of deceiving. Dave Thompson voted for the non-taxable bonds, and if he were elected he would approve any such bill passed by the legislature. His friends in Portland are appealing to voters to vote for him on the ground that he voted for, and is still in favor of such bonds.

David P Thompson voted against a proposition to prevent the Chinese coming to this country. Now in harmony with the eternal fitness of things the state committee that is managing his campaign have a Chinaman hired as janitor while hundreds of labor people are out of employment in that city. This shows where Dave Thompson's heart is. He employs the Chinaman because he is the cheapest.

The Herald, finding itself, since the republican county convention, with nothing to stand on, seeks to vent its spleen on the DEMOCRAT by saying that we are throwing dirt against Dave Thompson in this campaign. This effort of that paper to vent its spleen upon the DEMOCRAT, as a kind of satisfaction for the very awkward attitude which it now occupies, is unkind. In the years to come it will learn that such a course only provokes a scolding smile even from its own party friends. When the DEMOCRAT tells how Dave Thompson attempted to get two salaries out of Holladay's estate as receiver, when he was entitled to only one, quoting a decision of the supreme court as proof of everything we said, the Herald calls that throwing mud. When we tell how Dave Thompson pays taxes on only $171,000 when, in truth and in fact, he is worth nearly a million and a quarter, taking our figures of his assessment from the assessment roll of Multnomah county, the Herald calls that throwing mud. When we say that Dave Thompson is reported to have said that he would spend a hundred thousand dollars, if necessary, to secure his election, basing our statement upon the word of a prominent republican, the Herald calls this throwing mud. The truth is the Herald is envious of the courage exhibited by the DEMOCRAT in speaking up boldly on public matters while it seems afraid of its own shadow, transparent and thin however that shadow may be.

If it were no, for the plain, inelastic provision of the constitution, McKinley might attempt to place free speech on his tariff list.
