GIVES HIS REASONS.

The editor of the Woodburn Independent Independent in policy as in name, gives his reasons for supporting Pennoyer as follows:

We shall support Sylvester Pennoyer for governor in true accord with our principle of "best man for the office, irrespective of politics." Governor Pennoyer has, during his administration, made some mistakes, but no man is infallible. If he has erred in some things, it has been an error of the head, not of the heart; and as he has erred in some things, he has been pre-eminently right in others. He has stood for the right of the producing classes while his opponent was unjustly laboring for the passage of a bill that was both unjust and unconstitutional. In doing this he has borne the bitter denunciations of a partisan press and consulted the best interest of the people instead of his own. With all that has been against him, he has never been accused of dishonesty, and we believe that his administration has been the purest and best that we have had in a decade and a half. His administration has been passed under many difficulties that never beset his predecessors. He assumed the reins of government from the hands of Moody, a man whose connection with the swamp land steals and the unappropriated school fund will forever stamp him as a man beyond the bounds of integrity or else a common fool, unable in his ignorance to know right from wrong and without the manhood to stop both republicans and democrats from stealing the swamp lands. Neither the legislature nor all the executive branches of the state have been in political accord with the governor and to a reasonable man there can be no wonder that Governor Pennoyer has been the recipient of much commendation.

On the other hand, we find but one reason for supporting Mr. Thompson. In fact the only reason offered is that Mr. Thompson at some remote time worked at the blacksmith trade and also packed a surveyor's chain; that he has been wise and amassed much wealth, and, if necessary, will pay out $100,000 to secure his election. To offset these remarkable virtues we have the record of his action on the well known "Lock and dam swindle," his stand on the Bull Run water scheme and the fact that he is the figure head of the successful wing of the republican ring, which triumphed over Simon by the liberal use of money. That this money was furnished by Thompson, no one can deny; that the fight made in Portland was a disgrace to the party and its result a travesty on every principle of political purity, all admit. Therefore, how can we do otherwise than support Pennoyer?

HE DESERVES IT.

G. W. Webb is a candidate on the democratic ticket for re-election to the office of state treasurer. He is a pioneer; an old resident of Eastern Oregon, and a citizen of Umatilla county, where he has many friends and admirers. "Uncle George," as he is known the country over, is as faithful in office as he is out of it, and has administered state treasury affairs with the same devotion to public duty that he displayed when he was treasurer of Umatilla county. He is as big and honest in small things as in large affairs.

It has been suggested by some of his friends in this county that he deserves a complimentary vote at their hands and a number of republicans have signified their willingness to add their voice and strength to show their appreciation of a good citizen and an efficient public servant. It is hoped that his friends all over the country will lend their efforts in the same direction, and if his majority in the county reaches 1000 it will not be a vote more than he deserves. The citizens of Umatilla county, regardless of party, should feel that they were showing only a patriotic feeling in voting for a citizen of their county when he is, at least, the equal of his opponent.—East Oregonian.

ATTENTION DEMOCRATS.

Brownsville, Or., May 17, 1890.

Editors Democrat:

I wish to call the attention of democrats to the importance that attaches to the office of county commissioner. The most essential thing is to secure a commissioner who is careful and ever watchful of the interests of the whole people. These qualifications, Mr. Rumbaugh, our candidate, has in an eminent degree. There is another matter that is of much importance to democrats of the county, and that is the political character of the office. Suppose Mr. Trask, the republican nominee, should be elected; then the county court would be republican, and it would be run exclusively in the interest of that party so far as all matters affecting party matters are concerned. Judges and clerks of election, road supervisors, would be appointed with a view to promote the interests of that party. Suppose Mat Scott, after having served a month or so as sheriff, should die, and the county court was republican, would it not appoint a republican sheriff? Of course it would. Suppose the office of county clerk, treasurer, recorder, school superintendent or other minor office should become vacant by death, resignation or other cause, does not every democrat see that the court would fill these offices with republicans? Let every democrat reflect upon the fact that if he should vote for Mr. Trask he is virtually voting in favor of a republican for sheriff, clerk, recorder or treasurer, in case any of these offices should become vacant. Democrats can not afford to do this.
