LOCAL RECORD

LEAVE your orders at once for fruit jars and strawberries at Jas F Powell & Co's, and avoid the rush.

MATCHES AND ACID.—Without a doubt there is one woman in the state that thinks marriage is a failure. Monday morning a young wife of Walter Ronce, who lives about five miles up the river on the pendence road, decided that she had enough of this world's troubles and would rise to that dark shore by a peculiar and method. She took a bunch of matches and after chewing the heads of them and swallowing them she took a small vial of carbolic acid and drank a good dose of it. The acid soon began to burn her mouth and throat and she drank good deal of water which diluted the dangerous poison. Dr. J. N. Smith was called and did what he could to relieve the sufferer. She is only 16 years old and is quite frail. The doctor thinks she is beyond anger, but had a narrow escape. Mr Ronce is an industrious man and his trouble is to be regretted.—Statesman.

THE CROPS.—There are so many different remarks made about the condition of the crops that the DEMOCRAT has taken pains to ascertain the facts from men who have been through the country and are competent to judge. Fall wheat there sown on summer fallow, is in fine condition in most cases and will in any case produce a good crop; where sown on stubble land, it is stunted and speckled and the crop will be very small, but probably better than many count on.
There seems to be about the same amount of each, perhaps slightly the most of summer fallow. Spring wheat is either uncertain, but a good rain within ten days will make a fair crop. Some of it, though, is probably beyond redemption.
Altogether the crop promises to be about average.

MADLY INSANE.—Jim Carroll, the insane man from Syracuse, was taken to Albany this morning. Quite an exciting time is reported in his capture. Being armed with a razor he was not a very amiable piece of booty. He would jump perpetually in the air several feet when or twenty times in succession and then hunched his head on the ground like an injured animal. At one house on First street a woman stood ready with a shot gun for awhile to protect herself while a private citizen was on guard outside, waiting the arrival of the Sheriff with a warrant for his arrest. He was finally arrested and taken to the Court House.

PROVING A FINE THING.—Standing on First Street, near the St Charles, one can see looking Washington St. the entire length, the cut being nearly on a level.
It shows a handsome street. This work of improvement has been the means of giving employment to a large number of men, besides making much needed improvements over the city. As Second Street is yet to be lowered there is plenty of work ahead, and yet the job has not been such an El Dorado as some presented.

A huge rattlesnake was killed about a mile north of town Sunday, which, according to report, was the largest seen in his vicinity for a number of years. We are told that there is a den of these hideous reptiles near by. Some one ought to take it in hand to destroy this home of the venomous race.—Times.

Add to this the den of boycotters at brownsville, and our fellow-citizens there are entitled to the sympathy of the world. Take a pitchfork and slay them right and left.

IN 1846 LIKEWISE.—The real estate man has always been in Oregon, ready to room the country, philanthropic like, in which he lived. In the Spectator, published at Oregon City in 1846, E C Tackett, announced that he "would offer or sale in a few days a number of lots situated on the lower part of his claim, lying in the Willamette river and just at the foot of the Clackamas rapids, where a bridge will be built during the coming season.

The Astorian has investigated the offer of Webster's Unabridged Dictionary for a premium for $2.65. The book is not what it is represented to be. It is dimly printed on poor paper and inferior binding, and is away behind the times.

That is about the way it struck the DEMOCRAT. Several valley papers, however, and even the Examiner, took it in and are offering it as premiums.

PUBLIC EXAMINATION.—The following teachers are attending the public examination being held this week: G L Calavan, Charlie Hawk, C F Swank, G D Abrams, Melvin Bamford, Ada Wassetz, Belle M Chance, Mrs Nellie Tunison, Amanda Mc Bride, Mrs W F Rowland, H L Robe, Benjamin P Thompson, E A Roice, E G Margerson, R M Marks, Mrs Flora Funk, Julia A Woods, Jennie Linbeck.

BROUGHT EVERYTHING.—The steamer arrived with it a large stock of goods for J F Powell & Co, such as bage, cauliflower, peas, beans, cucumbers, new potatoes, onions, pineapples, berries, &c.

A NEW SCHEME.—On Monday and Tuesday of each week, H C Hubbard will give a ten per cent discount on all cash purchases made at his drug store. This will only be allowed on Monday's and Tuesday's.

ers by express. SAMUEL E YOUNG.

SUE GOT ONE.—Mrs Luella B Smith, a grass widow of this place, says the Ashland Record, left with her three children on this morning's train for Woodland, Cal., where she will be married to Mr Ramsey, a well-to-do stockman of Santa Rosa, and also a grass widow with five children. It will be remembered that Mrs Smith recently had an ad. in a San Francisco paper stating that she was willing to join hands and hearts with a suitable gentleman. She was soon in correspondence with a host of just such persons, and has the photographs of some 30 old, along with loving letters. A number of them from all parts of the coast traveled to Ashland to call on the lady.
Mr Ramsey shows up well in a photograph, as does his five children, and he is no slouch as a letter-writer. Among the flights of fancy that his love-sick pen took was something like this: "Let us forget the past, dearest, and I will do all to make you and your dear children happy. I long for the happy hour when I can clasp you in my arms and call you my own, own dearest Luella."

A Good Book.—Nothing is ever lost by buying a good book. That is the kind to buy, and when an opportunity offers, do not lose it, for it does not occur every day.
Mrs. A M Tait is canvassing for Mrs.
John A Logan's Manual for the home, a work, nicely written and full of just such matter as most homes need. It is handsomer gotten up, finely illustrated, and deserves a place in every household. The book is a guide in social, domestic and business life, a treasury of useful information, touching on etiquette, hygiene, household economy, beauty, care of children, money making, fancy work, house decoration, civil service, history, geography, physiology, art, etc.

DECORATION NOTICES.—Members of the W R C are requested to meet at the G A R Hall on Thursday at 3 p. m. to prepare flowers and make such other arrangements as is necessary for memorial day.
A full attendance is desired. Also all visiting members are earnestly invited to be present and assist in the services. By order of the President.

It is requested that all those who can will furnish flowers for memorial day and send them to the G A R Hall on Thursday at 3 p. m. By order of committee.

perior to anything in the market for the price. Also infants caps and coats.

SAMUEL E YOUNG.

WALL PAPER.—I have just received from the east a large lot of wall paper, borders, decorations, etc., including the plain ingrains which are becoming very popular. These goods are better styles and cheaper than ever before.

Band will go to that city on the 4th of July.

E G Beardsley, the real estate man, left for Portland to-day, and will go into the same business there. He obtained a good reputation for promptness and taste in Albany.

When democrats come to vote next Monday you want to look over your ticket to see that the name of E E Davis for Recorder is there. A better man for the place could not be selected.

Frank Farrell for Coroner, E J O'Connor for Surveyor, H S Williams for Assessor, are names on the democratic ticket and they are entitled to and should receive the entire vote of their party.

Mr Allen Henry, wife and daughter, of Chico, Cal., arrived in the city this morning on their way to Crook county, where Mr Henry has large property interests. The DEMOCRAT acknowledges a pleasant call from Mrs and Miss Henry.

No man ever received a nomination for an office in a fairer or more open way than N P Payne did for Clerk. He was the choice of a very large majority of the convention. His competency and fitness for the office are unquestioned. He is fairly entitled to every democratic vote in the county. He will be elected.

Democrats, do not forget that "Uncle Billy" Carl is on your ticket for Treasurer.
He is worthy your support. Being crippled so that he can not work he needs this office as he cannot make a living by work. His opponent is a gentleman competent and fitted to fill the office, but he is full-handed and does not need the office.

"For State Senators, J K Weatherford and Jeff Myers." Thus reads the democratic county ticket. These gentlemen are experienced, conscientious and trustworthy. "For Representatives, C J Shedd, F J Hanson and J F Henry." These are men of integrity, and when these men go to Salem as Senators and Representatives we all rest secure in the fact that they will not be captured by the Portland ring.

For School Superintendent no better man could have been chosen by the democrats than G F Russell. He has lived in Oregon most of his life, is thoroughly identified with school interests in Lien county, holds a very high grade first-class certificate and has had large experience as a teacher. His opponent, Mr Michener, is practically unknown to the great body of the voters, and patrons of the schools in the county, having been here but about a year. Besides he has just received a lucrative federal appointment. Mr Russell will receive a great many republican votes not by men who know his thorough fitness for the office.

Mr and Mrs Fred Blumberg arrived home this morning from Oakland, Cal., where they had been to spend the summer, coming much earlier than they intended on account of the excessively hot weather.

Bal O'Fellows, of Chicken Fricassee fame, has been in the city to day. A DEMOCRAT man acknowledges the pleasure of a ride after his high-headed, fleet-footed trotter, which Bal declares to be the fastest in Oregon, trotting frequently in 2:25 without much effort.

Mat Scott, the democratic nominee for Sheriff, is fully competent to perform all the duties of the Sheriff's office faithfully and well. His well known probity, conscientiousness, integrity and business qualities make him the man whom the people want for Sheriff. The man who votes for him may feel sure that he will never regret it.

Wm Rumbaugh for County Commissioner is the name on the democratic ticket. A vote for Tusk is a vote to make the county court republicans. This would give the republicans a majority of the judges and clerks of election, and in case the office of County Clerk, Recorder, Sheriff, School Supt, or other county office should become vacant by death or other cause the court would then appoint a republican. Democrats look to this matter and cast your votes for Mr Rumbaugh.
