LEAVE your orders at once for fruit jars of strawberries at Jas F Powell & Co's to avoid the rush.

INDIAN WAR VETERANS.—Benjamin Camp No 8, of Indian War veterans, held its annual meeting today at the office of county Judge Shaw.

A BIG CHANGE.—There is to be a big change in the running of trains on the Southern Pacific, probably beginning about June 5.

MR OLSEN SUPPER.—The supper given last evening in ye olden style by the members of the M. E. Church was enjoyed by a large number of our citizens.

ELSEWHERE.—In order to show how contracts are let in some cities for street grading we give the following from the Eugene Register.

STATE GRANGE.—The State Grange met in Salem yesterday. Mr and Mrs John Bryant, Mr and Mrs R H Wright and Mr and Mrs C P Burkhardt were present from Linn county.

USED A STOVEPIPE.—An Albany man was recently in Eugene City for a day or two. On retiring for the night, chairs being scarce in the room furnished him, he looked about for a place to lay his clothes for the night.

A BET.—Charles Mayhew, of Eugene, was in the city yesterday with $2000 to bet on Penney. W J Monteith, of this city, and W J Guy, of Lebanon, raised $500 and bet that amount with him in the evening.

WALL PAPER.—I have just received from the east a large lot of wall paper, borders, decorations, etc., including the plain ingrains which are becoming very popular.

A FINE BRIDGE.—The contract for building a new bridge across the Willamette at Springfield was let yesterday to the Pacific Bridge Co. of San Francisco, for $35,815.

GENERAL ORDER, No 12.—The members of F Co, will assemble at their armory uniformed, armed and equipped for dress parade at 8:30 o'clock, May 30th, 1890.

TO-MORROW.—Decorating day to-morrow. Considerable interest is being taken in the exercises, and there will be a large concourse of people to go to the cemeteries.

BROUGHT EVERYTHING.—The steamer has arrived with it a large stock of fresh goods for J F Powell & Co, such as cabbage, cauliflower, peas, beans, cucumbers, new potatoes, onions, plaeapples, berries, &c.

A NEW SCHEME.—On Monday and Saturday of each week, H C Hubbard will allow a ten per cent discount on all cash purchases made at his drug store.

LADIES SUMMER BLOUSES.—The latest styles, just received from manufacturers by express.

DR. M. H. ELLIS, physician and surgeon, Albany, Oregon, calls made in city or country.

COUNTY S. S. CONVENTION.

The Linn County S. S. Convention met in the Baptist Church in this city yesterday and organized by the election of Rev L J Trumbull, President, and Rev J F Stewart, Secretary.

In the evening the praise service was very acceptably conducted by Prof Lee, Dr Irvine, of Albany, and Rev Wade, of Halsey, delivered interesting addresses.

This morning Rev T Hoberg, President of the state association, was present, and spoke words of encouragement and assisted in the organization of a county society.

A constitution similar to those in force in other counties was adopted, and under its provisions the following officers for the ensuing year were elected:

President—Rev J F Stewart, Albany. Vice-President—Dr G W Gray, Albany. Secretary—O P Coshov, Albany.

Treasurer—Mrs L E Blain, Albany. Executive Com.—Prof Young, Prof Lee and E F Sox, all of Albany.

TOOK A RID.—An Albany man took an outsider in his buggy and drove him around the city a little, past new residences and many improvements.

AN ATTRACTION.—Salem will celebrate the 4th, and she shows her usual enterprise in doing those things that will draw. Among other cute tricks they have secured Prof C C Stratton, of Mills seminary notoriety, to deliver the oration.

TO-MORROW NIGHT.—All the world admires the colored race is wonderfully gifted in music. To hear the greatest singer from the 8,000,000 colored people in this country, at our opera house Friday evening will be a treat lovers of music should not miss.

A FIRE.—A fire caught in the residence of J W Bentley this afternoon from a flame, but was extinguished with buckets of water.

WHERE TO GET THEM.—When wanting an organ or piano call on G L Blackman, where you can select from a first class stock.

POLITICIANS.—May come and go and the tariff may cause lots of talk; but just now nothing is attracting more attraction than a fine lot of coffee just received by Muller & Garret, which will undoubtedly be elected by a big majority.

FALL IN LINE.—The military excursion to Salem on June 5, on the Hoag, promises to be a great affair. Only $1 will be charged and the band will furnish music for the occasion, probably the liveliest of the season.

DR. PATTON, the specialist on female and private diseases, in Blumberg's Block, Office hours, 10 to 12, 2 to 4 and 7 to 8. Consultation free. Residence 3rd and Montgomery.

The Albany Woolen mill will pay 20 cents a pound for wool.

When wanting the best groceries in the market at reasonable prices call on J F Powell & Co.

LADIES MUSLIN UNDERWEAR.—I have just opened the largest line of muslin underwear I have ever carried, and have marked them to sell at the least possible per cent they can be handled for.

HATS.—All hats sold for the next thirty days at Ida M Brush's will be discounted, to reduce her large stock.

You can save many a dime by trading at H C Hubbard's new drug store. Try it.

FOR SALE.—Seven fresh cows for sale cheap. Inquire at this office.

SPICED ITEMS.

It is understood that a Portland wholesale drug house will endeavor to have passed at the next session of the Oregon legislature, a bill which is to exclude all patent medicines from sale in this state, except those manufactured in this, otherwise those of said wholesale drug house.—Examiner.

Sol King started this morning on his biennial tour of the county in the interest of the republican party. The sack is as long as a stockin', and the top is gilded with gold, as Dave Thompson made the last contribution.—Covallis Times.

A new fire bell was received by the city from San Francisco last week. It was filled at 1000 pounds, but really weighs but 800. As this was not as represented the council have refused to accept the bell.—Roseburg Review.

The bicyclists of Albany should erect a track somewhere in the city limits. Now that the cows have been excluded this could be done with impunity and a rail drag.

A young married couple have just gone to housekeeping. The other morning the neighbors were treated to this bit of colloquial entertainment from the two parted at the gate: He—"What shall I order for supper, precious?" She—"A piece of beef-steak, and oh, darling, do tell the man to cut it the right way of the goods, so it will be tender."—Brownsville Times.

Down at Astoria they get $1 apiece for salmon, whether it weighs ten or sixty pounds. Fishermen refuse absolutely to fish by the pound. No one would wish to buy hams by the piece and even cabbage goes by the pound, but at Astoria fishermen run the business.

A Wisconsin judge has decided that a dentist cannot legally pull a tooth on Sunday. It has not yet been declared that a child cannot be legally born on that day, but the question is thought to be pending.—Mouth Democrat.

Again Looming Up.

The Astoria Columbian sums up the amount of real estate sales in Clatsop Co. for the week ending May 17th at $29,053. The Astoria real estate market is showing a decided improvement since Huntington expressed his intention of completing the Astoria & South Coast road into Astoria.

The sales reported above were not large, but better than they have been for the past two months. The city is brightening up, and the big boom, which precedes railroad building in the Northwest has already commenced in Astoria. The bonding of property during the week named reached a quarter of a million dollars, but the amount deposited on these bonds hardly reached $40,000, proving that the actual transfer totals were not a reflex of the condition of the market.

The lots held by the Oregon Land Co. of Salem and Portland, in the North Pacific addition to Astoria, are again coming in demand and offer a very desirable investment.

Small Fruit Farms.

Among the few bargains yet remaining of the Sunnyside fruit farm, four miles east of Salem, we cite the following:

No 39.—$30 per acre; ten acres, all timber, level, good soil.

No 48.—$90 per acre; ten acres, with small house and barn, five acres cultivated good soil, small orchard, spring water on the place.

The above are very desirable property, and are for sale by the Oregon Land Co., of Salem and Portland.

GET ENTERPRISE.—Go and see this beautiful gold watch at the "Golden Rule Bazaar." Julius Gradwohl the proprietor of the Golden Rule Bazaar, informs us that he has the Prize Baking Powder, and No 1 Japan tea, expressly up for his business, and for the benefit of his customers, each box of baking powder will win a piece of fine glassware and also each pound of the tea will win a piece of fine glassware, and customers who buy one pound of tea or a box of baking powder, which is warranted, will have a chance at that beautiful gold watch. He has also added a fine assortment of family groceries to his mammoth stock of glassware and crockery, which is the largest in the Willamette Valley. Go and see Mr Gradwohl at the Golden Rule Bazaar, and you will find that nothing is misrepresented.

The best brand of Rubber hose at Smith & Sanders.

ALWAYS BE HAPPY.—A wealthy London merchant gives the secret of his business success as follows: "I always feel happy when I am advertising, for then I know that, waking or sleeping, I have a strong though silent orator working for me; one who never tires, never makes mistakes, and who is certain to induce people to call on Conn & Hendrierson for fresh strawberries and vegetables of all kinds. They keep the best and freshest."

The Albany Woolen mill will pay 20 cents a pound for wool.

NEW BLACKSMITH SHOP.—G W Willis has just completed his blacksmith shop at the corner of Second and Railroad streets where all kinds of iron and wood work can be had and done in first class order. Bring on your plows, wagons, etc., etc., for repairs.

WARM WEATHER.—A fine stock of refrigerators and ice cream freezers may be seen at Stewart & Son's. Nothing like them for the house.

SPRING AND SUMMER DELICACIES.—The largest and finest line of foreign and domestic woolsens in spring and summer novelties just received and is ready for inspection at ZACHES & SON, Merchant Tailors and Drapers, Postoffice Building.

ELECTION DAY DINNER.—On the day of the election the ladies of the Congregational Church will have dinner and ice-cream for all who may patronize them. The proceeds of the dinner will be used in making repairs on the church. Give them a good patronage.

HATS.—All hats sold for the next thirty days at Ida M Brush's will be discounted, to reduce her large stock.

You can save many a dime by trading at H C Hubbard's new drug store. Try it.

FOR SALE.—Seven fresh cows for sale cheap. Inquire at this office.

The first quarterly meeting for this conference year will be held at the Evangelical Church next Sabbath, Rev H I Buttner, P E, will be present and fill the pulpit in the morning and evening. A cordial invitation is extended to all. Messrs Curran and Bates, two civil engineers of San Francisco, were in the city this morning on their way to the front, where they will make a survey of the work done by Searie & Dean, to be used for the plaintiffs in the case of Searie & Dean against the O P. These same men made the survey and estimate used in the case of Meyers vs the O P.

A Good Book.—Nothing is ever lost by buying a good book. That is the kind to buy, and when an opportunity offers, do not lose it, for it does not occur every day. Mrs. A M Tait is canvassing for Mrs. John A Logan's Manual for the home, a work, nicely written and full of just such matter as most homes need. It is handsomely gotten up, finely illustrated, and deserves a place in every household. The book is a guide in social, domestic and business life, a treasury of useful information, touching on etiquette, hygiene, household economy, beauty, care of children, money making, fancy work, house decoration, civil service, history, geography, physiology, art, etc.
