LOCAL RECORD

A CENSUS DEMOCRAT.—Already census incidents are told the Democrat. One of the takers was interviewing a well-known young lady with the usual interrogatories.

"Married?"
"No."
"Was on the list, but the next question, seriously given, was a startling one."

"Engaged?"
The young lady blushed, twisted around in her chair, choked a little, and was greatly relieved when the census taker said:

"Well, never mind, you don't have to answer that."

SAVED BY A THUNDERBOLT.—Blanton, the Colfax murderer, will not be hung, but sentenced for manslaughter, that being the only offense for which the indictment holds good, as interpreted by the supreme court.

Now there will be a fine burst of indignation around Colfax about the law defending the criminal, and the incompetency of courts to administer justice. "It is true that Blanton shot his man in cold blood, and that he is acquitted on a technicality—a mistake of the prosecuting attorney in framing the indictment,"—Wallis Wallis Statesman.

ON BEHALF OF THE CITY.—The Journal still extends to Hon. D. P. Thompson a cordial invitation to come and live in Salem. It does not appear that Portland really cares to keep him and honor him as he deserves.—Journal.

If he had subscribed to the Hunt railroad and a few enterprises like that perhaps Portland would put his coat tails more vigorously. Salem is welcome to him. But the election is over.

A SAMPLE.—On election day an old man was struck on the forehead by a plow-beam while walking on State street. The plow was standing up on the sidewalk and fell of its own accord, and the old man was pretty badly hurt. The cut bled a good deal and he had to get a basin of water to wash the blood away. This should be a lesson against cumbering up the sidewalks with wares of all kinds.—Salem Journal.

SOMETHING IS IT.—That was a hard hit an irreverent voter gave to a politician who was a strict church member, when he said: "You must think more of your politics than you do of your religion, because you have often asked me to vote for you, and your party ticket, but you have never asked me to join or attend your church." There is something in this to set some political church members to thinking.

THEY MET.—Mr. John Kitzmiller, of Douglas county, is visiting in this city. He is 88 years of age, and while here met an old acquaintance of his boyhood—Uncle Ira Hunter—whom he has not seen for over fifty years. The meeting can be better imagined than told as their thoughts flew back to the days of their youth in old Tennessee.—Times.

BENTON COUNTY.—In Benton county the democrats elected Wm. Mackey for Sheriff.

M. P. Bennett for Treasurer and E. S. Skipton for assessor.

Bush Wilson was re-elected Clerk of court, and will soon begin his fifteenth term, having now served twenty years. It is absolutely impossible to beat him, no matter how good a man is put up.

LIKE ALBANY'S.—On Sunday last six bobos and two young thieves broke out of the rear of the Portland jail by digging away some of the rotten brick and mortar. The police force are so justly ashamed of the place they are required to guard that they said nothing about the break till an enterprising reporter inadvertently "dropped" on it.

ELECTION.—Albany Lodge No. 4, I. O. O. F. elected the following officers Wednesday evening:

J. D. Guinn, N. G.
W. C. Sears, V. G.
C. G. Rawlings, R. S.
J. Gradwohl, Treas.

F'S EXCURSION.—Over two hundred left for Salem on the Wm. M. Hoag. A beautiful day and a nice crowd of people spoke for an enjoyable time. A game of baseball was to be played in the afternoon between the College nines of both cities.

CHURCH NOTICE.—Eld J. Bowerson will preach in Albany next Sunday, at 11 a. m. Having been refused his own church home he will hold services at the M. E. church, south. All are invited.

THEY ARE ELECTED.—Anthony Conn & Henderson are elected to supply the people with the freshest and best groceries in the market. Just so we have enough to eat what's the odds. Strawberries, and other fruits, the latest vegetables, and the purest groceries, with prompt attention, that is the order. Do not get excited, but call on Conn & Henderson and get what you need.

HATS.—All hats sold for the next thirty days at Ida M. Brush's will be discounted, to reduce her large stock.

WALL PAPER.—I have just received from the east a large invoice of wall paper, borders, decorations, etc., including the plain ingrains which are becoming very popular. These goods are better styles and cheaper than ever before.

—S. M. E. YOUNG

CROOK COUNTY.—Squaw creek farmer have just finished putting in their spring grain. They have plenty of water with which to irrigate, and expect to have good crops from late sown grain.

Now, that there is little hope of the Oregon Pacific railroad being built at any near date in the future, the people of Crook county should encourage the building of the proposed railroad from The Dalles into this section.

Many observing people predict a dry unproductive season. So far, they are approximately correct. We had a very late winter and late spring, accordingly, since which time no rain has fallen.

The case of Wm. Page, indicted for the killing of Bill Brown, at Burns, was dismissed at the recent term of court there. Richard Lytton, of Camp Creek, died at Hackleman's ranch on Sunday the 18th. He is the first white person buried on Camp Creek. The old gentleman was 65 years of age.

The bulk of the wool shorn in Crook county this year has been shipped to The Dalles, where it will probably remain in warehouses until the market opens up. At present there seems to be little stir in the wool market, and it is feared that prices will be low when buyers begin purchasing.

Mrs. C. M. Charlton, one day this week showed us a number of fine views of Princeton College, which she had just received from her brother-in-law, James Charlton, who is attending school at Princeton. The views were well executed and show off the old college to good advantage.—Prineville Papers.

EUGENE REGISTER ITEMS.—Mr. Walker, of Portland, a member of the firm of Stayer & Walker, is building a summer residence in the mountains up the McKenzie. He has sent some of his furniture up from Portland.

Travel on the overland route to California is unusually heavy at present. The California express is composed of from ten to fourteen cars daily. On last Saturday's train there were 175 through passengers.

Last Friday evening about 6 o'clock a disgraceful row took place on our streets in which the notorious Chow Smith, figured prominently, as is the case too often. He approached a G. A. R. man who was wearing his badge and with giving vent to a few harsh names, snatched the badge from his coat. Another man who was standing near resented the insult and struck Chow a stinging blow in the face.

A general fight then took place in which six men took part, four being against Chow and Sam Smith. Had they not been separated the Smiths would have been laid up for repairs in short order. The two Smiths were fined $10 and costs each, amounting to about $32 each.

FUNNY SAYINGS.—Clara's Mother (calling)—Clara, Mr. Smithers is in the parlor and says he wants you.

Clara (entering parlor and throwing herself into Smithers' arms)—O Charlie, this is so sudden.—Clothing and Furnishings.

"Doctor, can't you tell me of a cure for the gout?"

"Oh, yes; you shouldn't have drunk so much Rhine wine during the last thirty years."—Friedenblatt.

Old Sol will soon be cloudless skies. Shine like a fiery ball.

And there will then be lots of flies. Upon us all.—Boston Courier.

A DEAD NEWSPAPER.—Salem was once termed the graveyard of newspapers. This week another journalistic corpse was laid to rest. It was Bob Thompson's State Democrat. There was no funeral ceremonies and no flowers. It went to its long home practically unwept and comparatively unnoted. The disease was physical exhaustion superinduced by lack of nourishment.

The above is the way the Salem Statesman chronicles the death of a brotner. A great many people wouldn't treat a brotner that way, but then, they never agreed, and sometimes quarreled a little.

SERVED HIM RIGHT.—An Astoria tooth pedler was altogether fresh with one of his lady patients. The woman told her husband, who decided to keep quiet until the dentist presented the bill for his services which had been agreed at $4. Yesterday, called the Astorian, the tooth manipulator called at the store, and presented a bill for $5, which the husband paid, and then said "You infernal scoundrel, you insulted my wife, and I'm going to pay you for it now." Pulling off his coat he suited the action to the word and pummeled the dentist in good shape, then turned him out of the store.

BROUGHT EVERYTHING.—The steamer has arrived with it a large stock of fresh goods for J. F. Powell & Co., such as cabbage, cauliflower, peas, beans, cucumbers, new potatoes, onions, pineapples, berries, &c.

LADIES' MUSLIN UNDERWEAR.—I have just opened the largest line of muslin underwear I have ever carried, and have marked them to sell at the least possible price. They can be handled for infants dresses from 50 cents to $3.25 each; full size, full length; no china make, all white labor, guaranteed to be equal if not superior to anything in the market for the price. Also infants caps and coats.

A NEW SCHEME.—On Monday and Saturday of each week, H. C. Hubbard will allow a ten per cent. discount on all cash purchases made at his drug store. This will only be allowed on Monday's and Saturday's.

FREAK OF NATURE.—Nature plays queer freaks with the flower seeds sent out by the agricultural department at Washington. A man who received a package of seeds labeled "giant-pansy" planted them in a flower-bed and soon had a small crop of turnips, while a number of seeds labeled "double pink" produced long-neck squashes.

PILOT ROCK STYLE.—Much fun was had at Pilot Rock over the election. The judges learned of the fact that a certain candidate whisky and beer were being liberally dished out to voters who were thus rendered unable to cast their votes intelligently. They ordered its confiscation, and it was raided by the constables. Next day, the election over, friends of the said candidates opponent drank the latter's health and success with the confiscated beverages.—E. O.
