AN ATHLETIC CLUB.—The DEMOCRAT acknowledges a call from Mr. E. W. Bradstreet, who is getting up a class in athletics. Members of F. C., among others, have become interested, and it is thought the armory will be secured for the purpose; a good gymnasium purchased, and a class formed in all kinds of gymnastics according to taste. Mr. Bradstreet is an expert with Indian clubs, in general athletics, and as well, is an adept at boxing, having taken lessons of the famous Jim Corbett. The club is being quite generally encouraged and will no doubt become a fact. An exhibition meeting was held last evening at the armory, and another one will be held Monday night to perfect arrangements.

GETTING FASHIONABLE.—A very attractive feature has been added to the St. Charles hotel, in the shape of a lawn tennis game. It is neatly located in the court of the hotel, where there is a nice lawn, and several have become quite interested in it. Mr. E. H. Norton, the coal expert, taking the lead in the introduction of this very fascinating game, which it is to be hoped will be more generally introduced in Albany.

MAN wants but little here below—How oft the line we seek! And, as many of us know, It's lucky for the man.

But those who want the best groceries, the freshest fruits, the nicest canned goods, and a fine line of crockeryware to select from, go to Conn & Hendricson, where they have their wants, little or big, satisfied at bottom prices.

THE INCREASE.—The total vote in Linn county, at the recent election, on congressional was 4062. In 1888 it was 3388, an increase of nearly 700, showing an increase in population of about 3500, or a population for the county of 20,000 people. In Lane and Marion counties, in fact through the whole valley, about the same rate of increase is observed, which is as it should be. The valley is growing together.

A PICNIC.—A big picnic was held to-day at Wiley Holman's grove, by the Grangers of Linn county. The Lebanon band passed through the city for the grove loaded with music for the occasion. These picnics are always successful, and this one no doubt was not an exception.

BROUGHT EVERYTHING.—The steamer has arrived with it a large stock of fresh goods for J. F. Powell & Co., such as cabbage, cauliflower, peas, beans, cucumbers, new potatoes, onions, pineapples, berries, &c.

LADIES' MESH UNDERWEAR.—I have just opened the largest line of mesh underwear I have ever carried, and have marked them to sell at the least possible price. They can be handled for infants dresses from 50 cents to $3.25 each; full size, full length; no china make, all white labor, guaranteed to be equal if not superior to anything in the market for the price. Also infants caps and coats.

HATS.—All hats sold for the next thirty days at Ida M. Brush's will be discounted, to reduce her large stock.

The best brand of Rubber hose at Smith & Wenders.

WALL PAPER.—I have just received from the east a large invoice of wall paper, borders, decorations, etc., including the plain ingrains which are becoming very popular. These goods are better styles and cheaper than ever before.

You can save many a dime by trading at H. C. Hubbard's new drug store. Try it.

TRAIN WRECKED.

SPECIAL TO DEMOCRAT. SALEM, Or., June 7.—Freight train coming north wrecked to-day about three-fourths of a mile south of S. P. passenger depot at this city. Two brakemen were injured, one perhaps fatally. The wreck was caused by running into a band of horses while making a "sliding switch". The engine and a few cars struck the horses but did not leave the track. The remaining portion of the train ran into another horse and caused the wreck. Five or six cars are one mass of debris and it will probably be two days before trains can pass this point. Local trains will transfer mail and express and run to Portland this afternoon.

Death of Hon. Wm. Cyrus.

Hon. William Cyrus, of Seio, died at his home in that town on Friday evening at a quarter past ten o'clock. During the day he was at work hoeing in the garden, when he was struck with paralysis and soon became unconscious and lingered in that state until he died. Mr. Cyrus was born of English and Scotch parents, in Granger county, Tennessee, on the 17th day of December, 1820. He crossed the plains to Oregon in 1847 and has resided here ever since. In 1866 he was elected a state senator from Linn county, and in 1872 he was elected county commissioner, both of which places he filled to the satisfaction of the people of the county. He was married three times. His first wife was Mary A. Deakin, a native of Indiana. By her he had seven girls and three boys. His second wife was Jane Brien, by whom he had one daughter and two sons. His third wife was Margaret H. Charlton, who survives him. Mr. Cyrus was a devoted member of the Baptist church, a leading granger, a most exemplary and useful man in his vicinity. He had many friends but no enemies. He was a man of strict public and private integrity and was a model man in the best sense of that word. A large circle of friends extended their heartfelt sympathy to the family in this their hour of sorrow and bereavement.

Funeral services will take place to-morrow at Providence church at 11 o'clock.

In Lively Demand.

The Astoria Columbian says real estate in that city is quite firm, and everything is advancing in value. Demands for inside property are constantly coming in, and outside property including acreage and residence lots, is selling as fast as it can be platted. Every one is holding in anticipation of the consummation of the deal with C. P. Huntington, whereby the Astoria & South Coast railroad to Hillsboro will be completed. As soon as he signs the contract values will be doubled, and even then property will go at a lively rate. The lots on sale by the Oregon Land Co., in the North Pacific addition to Astoria, partake of this activity, and are quite favorably regarded as an investment.

TOLD A STORY.—Mr. H. W. Parker, candidate for the legislature on the union ticket, ran 50 ahead of his party vote. According to the Brownsville Times he told the following story on the campaign which, now as the election is over, we give, though it really indicates nothing, for a majority of men know very well why they were voting for Penneyer.

He said that while near the Santiam he was attracted by a young man shouting, "Hurrah for D. P. Thompson." "What for?" inquired Mr. Parker. "Oh he's got the seeds, you bet." At another place he met a young man in town, and as he approached the young man threw up his hands and shouted: "Hurrah for Penneyer." "For what reason?" inquired Mr. Parker. "Danfino," answered the enthusiast as he spit and shifted his quid of tobacco to the other side of his mouth.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN.

That Albany excursion was quite an advertising boom for Salem, says the Journal. Well, the truth is our citizens did like the way they were treated there, liked the broad streets, the nice lawns, the general aspect, and were interested in the asylum and penitentiary; but we have not yet heard of any emigrants that way. It was also an advertising boom for Albany, for it showed Salem what a nice class of people we have, orderly, good looking etc. Several more will be down on the 4th of the glorious Julia.

It was a Salem policeman who requested the laborer about midnight to stop the crying of a baby as it kept him awake.

The Linn county candidate who sang himself up said "reck" says the ride is not a disagreeable one if a man is only musical and keeps his temper.

An insurance man who has been all over the Coast says that unquestionably the Willamette Valley is ahead of all other sections of the Northwest and that none of the cities are showing a healthier growth than Albany.

Mr. Locke Richardson is giving readings in Portland, from Shakespeare. The Man About Town heard him about eighteen years ago in a small New York village, when he was just getting a reputation, and the impression that he is the best Shakespearean reader in the U. S. has since been indelibly fixed in his mind; and that is his reputation now.

In order to give the men a hit a woman writer in the West Shore says a Seattle woman fainted when her husband took off his hat to her. Her corsets were probably too tight or else she was walking with some other man.

Speaking of going around the world suggests the fact that one can see the world go around easily by an overdose of champagne or even beer.

Some Albany people are always imagining that the noses of their neighbors are turned up at them; but it is probably because they meet them when going down hill. Mostly imagination.

As a rule people who are snubbed have themselves to blame and wall flowers can only lay the fault at their own doors.

While at the penitentiary recently an Albany woman called on W. W. Saunders, Billy Danfics and Hill, the train wrecker. They all looked very sad, as if they didn't enjoy life behind the bars; but a good time to be sorry is just before committing the crime that causes the imprisonment. The woman left with a bunch of artificial flowers from Hill, having left a bouquet of the genuine article, which about expresses the difference between inside and outside life, one is dead, the other alive.

Its mild laxative effects are exceedingly grateful to the system. It is a pleasant surprise that awaits those who do not know what our vegetable juices do for debility, sluggish liver and impaired digestive organs."
