THIR GALS.—Mrs O S Pollock left last evening for Jacksonville, on a short visit to her brother, previous to her departure for Birmingham, Ala., where she will open a select day school for young ladies. She took with her the universal will of our citizens, and leaves a void as a teacher of which any woman might be proud. Four years ago, on account of ill health, Mrs Pollock resigned her position of Principal of the Montgomery Female College at Christianburg, Va., and came to the coast on a visit to her brother, Col James P Goodall, and to her health. She accepted a position in the Albany Collegiate Institute, and for three years has had charge of the departments of English literature, elocution, history and psychology, filling a position with an ability, energy and thoroughness rarely equaled, securing the entire confidence of her associates and the love and esteem of her pupils. Under her efficient training the young ladies have made a progress that has been remarkable, and the effects of her thorough work will be seen among the young people of the city for years to come. With her health fully restored, and a ripe experience to back her, she will be in a position to take charge of the Birmingham school in a manner that cannot help building it into an institution of prominence and usefulness. The MOORAT commends Mrs Pollock to the consideration of the people of Birmingham. In her new field Mrs Pollock will have as an assistant Miss G W Stephens, formerly principal of St Mary's primary at Birmingham, where she is already very favorably known, and whom many of our citizens will remember as having spent a pleasant week in our city several months ago.

ALUMNI RECEPTION.—The reception given by the Alumni of the Albany College last evening was one of the pleasant and most successful in the history of the College, a remarkable feeling of good will pervading the evening's doings. The lunch served was of a very choice nature, the tables being loaded with the delicacies of the season. Several after dinner speeches added spice as well as something solid, to the occasion. Dr Campbell, President Condit, C E Wolverson and A B Slauson each spoke in a very entertaining and quite extemporaneous way. Those present were Dr and Mrs Campbell, President and Mrs Condit, Prof and Mrs Lee, Prof Lorrillard, Misses Lib Irvine, Lee Prather, Annie Althouse, Lillie and Ina Robertson, Flora Mason and Hettie Miller, Messrs Quincy Propst and Collins Elkins, Mrs Kate Burkhardt and husband, Mrs Clara Stewart and husband, Mrs Clara Wolverson and husband, Mrs Mary Slauson and husband, and Mrs Libbie Merrill and husband, with whom the reception was held.

AS HONOR.—At the commencement at Princeton Wednesday Mr James J Charlton, of this city, was the successful candidate for one of the first prizes. Mr Charlton's career has been a remarkably successful one. From the beginning he stood high, his manly bearing making friends for him on all occasions, and his studious, discerning mind giving him a high rank. He was made President of the Senior class and delivered the farewell address. His success will be a matter of great interest to Linn county people, generally, where he has spent his life.

BUSINESS CHANGES.—Mr H C Hubbard has sold his drug business to Mr J A Cummings, of Clinton, Iowa. Mr Cummings was in Albany several months ago, and liking the city, has concluded to make it his home. He is a first-class business man and will no doubt do well here. Mr Hubbard has not yet decided on his future location.

MR A H Marshall has sold his livery stable and outfit to Mr Frank Trites, who will hereafter run the business. Mr Trites is an old resident of Linn county, where he is generally well liked.
