

DAILY DEMOCRAT.

REMAINS FOUND.—About three weeks ago a young man, the son of Hon. Robert Mays, of Wasco county, while herding horses on Muddy, in the Northwestern part of the county, found what he believed to be the remains of a man. Young Mays asserted that the skull was not burned so but what it was easily recognized as that of a human. The company who were with him gathering horses thought he was mistaken and made light of the matter, but young Mays was positive he was right. This, in view of the fact that George Nutting was last seen in that neighborhood a little over a year ago, leads us to believe that young Mays was right, and that the remains are those of Mr. Nutting. —Prineville News.

THE LARGEST TRAIN.—A magnificent looking passenger train was the overland going north this morning. It consisted of thirteen coaches, besides the baggage, express and mail cars, making sixteen in all. Conductor Wilson said it was the biggest passenger train that ever passed over the road. It started out with 208 overland passengers, an unusually large number. It was one hour and twenty minutes late here, and no wonder. Another engine was put on at this point and she went into Portland as a double-header. —Journal.
