LOCAL RECORD

And of Trade.—The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Trade was last evening, president Wright in chair.

Communication from C. W. Robinson, manager of the Northwest Industrial Station, of Spokane Falls, asking the amount of a commission for Albany, was read, and, on motion, Mr. J. H. Blain was appointed Commissioner, one of the general board of commissioners managing the Fair.

View of the proposed Soldier's Home where in Oregon, it was voted to petition the Board of Trade members in asking for the establishment of a Soldier's Home at Albany. B. F. Blain, Jay W. Blain and T. L. Wallace appointed a committee to circulate the petition.

Jay W. Blain, a member of the Horticultural Society, was authorized to invite the society to meet at Albany, on the occasion of their October meeting.

OUT MR. CUMMING.—The Chronicle Index, of Centerville, South Dakota, the following to say about one of our new business men:

A Cumming, senior member of the Horticultural Society, was authorized to invite the society to meet at Albany, on the occasion of their October meeting.

to BLIZZARDS.—An Albany firm, advising in the Arkansas Traveler, gives the following good hits for the railroad of Oregon.

Albany, Oregon. The queen city and road center of the great Willamette valley, whose richness is unsurpassed by the historic Nile. Healthful, charming. Crop failures, blizzards, cyclones, blizzards and hog cholera known. Farms, fruit land city property for sale on easy terms, at prices ranging from $10, $20 to $50 per acre. A new opportunity to invest in city property, which is now very cheap, and surely increase five-fold soon.

CENSUS INCIDENT.—A census enumerator from one of the outlying districts died yesterday, and in response to a notice as to the most singular incident in his experience, said it was at a late Tuesday of a woman who said she had been a widow five years. There were two children, one three years, the other about a year old. He asked, "Whose are these?" "Mine," was the answer. "What's the father's name?" "One of your business," he left.

to CODLIN MOTIL.—An observant gentleman in Albany informs a Democrat that he has taken some pains to ascertain if the codlin moth is at work on apples. He says after careful search sees no signs of them. S. A. Clark writes to the Statesman to say that he made a careful examination of several barrels near Salem and the northern part of Marion county and finds no signs of it. Mr. Clark suggests that our rainy winter may have destroyed it. We trust the readers of the Democrat will examine their orchards and inform us of the result of their investigations.

to the MOUNTAINS.—Joseph Weber, Comley, Wm Richardson and John Pringer left on the O. P. train for a hunting and prospecting expedition to the headwaters of the North Santiam, where they hope to find some rich mineral deposits. Success.

RESULTS.

Jackson county has the only lady census enumerator in Oregon. In the person of Mrs. Affie Cawley, appointed for Woodville, Rock Point and Gold Hill precincts.

Some liquor sellers in Boston think of trying to circumvent the law by selling under the bars, as selling over a bar is only prohibited.

Armed with a pitchfork a woman of Pike county, Pa., drove away six tramps from her barn. Any woman is a power but give her the proper weapons.

Walter Moss, well known here, was employed by the circus that recently had the fight with the Ann Arbor students. He immediately sent in his resignation, not having been hired to play the part of target. He expects to return to Portland next March, and at present is living in Toledo, —Ex.

"Billy" Dugan slumbered in the quiet town of Albany last night, having gone up on the north bound overland last evening. — Statesman. The noise and bustle of our city being too much for him Billy returned hastily towards Salem, where he will rusticate and secure the rest he needs.

Our exchanges are telling the following: An Oregon thief went to a widow's barn the other night and milked the widow's cow. Next morning that poor widow found a pocket book containing $1.17 in the stall, and advertised for the loser to come forward, prove property, return the milk and get his cash.

A young man and his intended called at the county clerk's office this afternoon for a marriage license. Through some oversight Mr. Hartman got the bride's mother's name in the paper. The groom took his glory ticket and left, but after while rushed back and remarked: "I don't want to marry the old lady. Fix this thing." It was fixed.—The Dallas T. M.

It is said to be a common sight in New York to see well dressed men running or skipping the rope in Central park. Exercise is the chief aim of these simple diversions, which are practiced mostly by brokers, lawyers and club men who are becoming stout. It is an exercise older people may well indulge in. Children should not be allowed a monopoly in such things.

The Marion county grand jury finds "that we examined into the management and condition of the Insane asylum of this state and find the same well managed and kept in clean and neat condition, and everything seemed to be done for the accommodation of the patients that could be done." This is a case where an institution survived the ponderous attacks of a newspaper.

The Oregon Pacific may be completed into Eastern Oregon some time in the future, but residents along the line of the proposed road who are any ways advanced in years have about given up all hope of living to witness its completion, says the Grant County News. We give this statement as an example of nervous prostration. If our Eastern Oregon exchanges will keep their heads on they will see the O. P. there within a reasonable time. Railroad building does not travel like electric sparks nor even like a race horse.

An item now and then from some other town about the hoodlums of its boys makes us realize that Albany is not the only place with hoods. The Jacksonville Times says: Some of the young men about town were arrested last Monday, charged with disturbing the meeting held in the street by J. R. Rice, the evangelist, by assaulting him with ancient eggs. A trial was held before Justice Pymale, who discharged all the defendants excepting one, upon whom a fine of $10 was inflicted. We hope that none of them will be caught in such business again, as their conduct was anything but good.

A Boy Lost.—A despatch to the Statesman from Sheridan says that the seventeen year old son of John Ladv, of Grand Ronde, has mysteriously disappeared. He attended a picnic in company with his half brother at Ballston on Saturday, and has not been seen since 10 o'clock that day. A large party was searching for him Sunday. The searchers were dragging Yamhill river for him to-day, but up to this evening nothing had been heard from him. Diligent search and inquiry have been made all over that part of the country, but no clue has been discovered. Foul play is suspected.

I have just received a large invoice of lace curtains, ranging in price from one to nine dollars apiece, scrim, curtain nets, etc. Also a line of curtain poles and furniture covering.

TWO CAR LOADS.—Price & Robson have just received two car loads of wagons and buggies, light and heavy, and will sell them at remarkably low prices, considering the splendid quality of the wagons.

SAW FILING ETC.—Mr. Joseph Rubel, an expert from San Francisco, is located in the Casick Block, on Broadbain street and is prepared to file saws, sharpen razors, scissors, etc., in a first-class manner.

TEN ACRE TRACTS.—Some choice to and 20 acre tracts for garden purposes, just secured for sale at a bargain. Inquire of Guiss & Hedrick.

Conn & Hendrickson have just received a fine lot of cheese, as well as a big assortment of canned goods which the public should call and inspect.

Dr. M. H. Ellis, physician and surgeon Albany, Oregon. Calls made in city at country.

Those wishing screen door and windows should call on R. B. Vank, who will put them in on a plan on short notice. Shop on corner of Second and Ferry streets.

Moving Right Along

The Astoria & South Coast railroad is being graded towards Hillsboro by a force of 300 men. There has been no let up on this undertaking and it is kept moving right along. Last week the rails were delivered in that city for the street car track, and men were at once put to work laying them down. Astoria is keeping up with the procession, and property there is steadily improving. Those desirable lots in North Pacific addition to Astoria are selling right along by the Oregon Land Co, and are proving a profitable investment.

Ten Acre Fruit Farms.

The Sunnyside tract of farm lands, 4 miles south of Salem is growing in public favor, because of its eligible location, and the choice quality of the soil. Those settlers who have gone onto this tract to make themselves homes, have shown diligence in improving their farms, and it wants but a few years to make this one of the most attractive spots in the whole Willamette valley. The Oregon Land Company still have a few of these choice 10 acre farms for sale.

An Astoria census enumerator reports finding two families, in one of which the inmates number seventeen, all of one name, and in another eighteen, all of one name.

A VOICE FROM PORT ST.

A Lady Relates two Astonishing Experiences.

To whom it may concern: I have tried almost every conceivable remedy for biliousness during the past five years as I am of a bilious temperament and suffer much from stomach and liver troubles. But nothing ever gave me the relief that I obtained from using Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. In fact I think it a cure for those ailments. At the time I was using it I had a little girl living in my family whose neck was seriously affected by a large open sore, and we tried a great many kinds of lotions, salves and blood purifiers to no avail. I gave her some of my medicine (Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla) thinking it might benefit her and as it was purely vegetable, knew it could do her no harm. To my astonishment she began to improve, and within two weeks it was entirely healed and she is now as well as ever.
