

DAILY DEMOCRAT.

WEATHER CROP BULLETIN NO. 41.

Of the Oregon State Weather Bureau, co-operating with U. S. Signal Service, Central Office, Portland, Oregon, for the week ending Saturday, June 14th, 1890:

WEATHER.

The week has been cool and partly cloudy, with light sprinkles of rain on Sunday, Monday and Saturday. The rainfall was light and did not much more than to lay the dust. Vegetation of all kinds would be benefited by good heavy rains, and especially would the wheat crop be benefited. The weather has, however, not been injurious to crops, the cool, cloudy weather being more beneficial than cloudless, warm weather would be, but rain is what is needed for the growth and maturing of grains, vegetables, etc.

CROPS.

Haying is generally in progress and light yields are generally reported. The continued dry weather proved to be quite injurious to the hay crop in most sections. The fall and early sown spring wheat are in good condition. They would be benefited by rain, but if no dry north winds prevail, the crop will average very well. The late sown spring grain continues to be in a poor condition, not less than one-half the average from spring sown grain is expected. Barley, rye and oats are doing quite well. Corn has a slow growth owing to the cool weather. Hops are reported as progressing nicely. Vineyards are healthy and excellent prospects are shown by them. Eastern Oregon crop reports are more hopeful than from the Willamette valley. Fruit, however, in the Willamette valley is in as fine a condition as could be desired, and Southern Oregon promises to eclipse former years by her fruit yield. The strawberry crop is becoming exhausted and cherries are now plentiful in the market.

RIVERS.

The rivers continue to fall slowly and reports do not indicate that there is much snow to be melted.

B. S. PAGER, Observer U. S. Signal Service, Assistant Director Oregon Weather Bureau.

J. W. Stewart, who was on the republican ticket for representative, was in town during the week. Mr Stewart is not sorry of his defeat, as he thinks it is a saving of about $500 to him.—Oreoco Review.

The above is a very philosophical way to take ones defeat. How cheap the men who were elected to the state legislature must feel, and certainly they are entitled to the sympathy of the public. As most of them are men of moderate means $500 will be quite a loss to them. Yet the woods never have to be raked to find candidates.

MAN wants but little here below—How off the line we scan! And, as many of us know, It's lucky for the man. But those who want the best groceries, the freshest fruits, the nicest canned goods, and a fine line of crockeryware to select from, go to Conn & Hendricks, where they have their wares, little or big, satisfied at bottom prices.

Jas F Powell & Co.

WALL PAPER.—I have just received from the east a large invoice of wall paper, borders, decorations, etc., including the plain ingrains which are becoming very popular. These goods are better styles and cheaper than ever before.

SAMUEL E. YOUNG.

SPRING HAS COME.—The stock of wall paper at Fortmiller & Irving's is larger than ever, being quite immense and include many new and beautiful designs.

The Albany Wooden Mill will pay 20 cent apiece for wood.

LADIES SUMMER BLOWERS.—The latest novelties, just received from manufacturers by express. SAMUEL E. YOUNG.
